Local Notes

Perfectly healthy people have pure, rich blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla purifies and enriches the blood and makes people healthy.

The government has decided not to make May 24th a statutory holiday. A good many of our citizens are likely to celebrate, nevertheless.

A Kingston man was the other day fined $10 and costs for swearing on the streets. The authorities are waging war against profanity.

The birth-rate of Canada is away below that of Scotland, or Ireland, or England. It is said to be due to the preponderance of rural people who are not able to marry until late in life. They are just as able as ever but not so willing. Young folks nowadays want to begin life with a flourish. They are not content to labor and wait for success.

A remarkable demonstration of dental science took place at the Children's Hospital, Toronto, a few days ago when a three-year-old child, previously dumb, was practically given the power of speech. Dr. Brophy, of Chicago, performed the operation in the presence of many of the city doctors, on a child who had never spoken, and the result was most successful.

At a recent meeting of the Brockville board of trade a proposition from the Consolidated Phosphate Co., Ltd. of England, was submitted. This company desires to establish a business in Brockville and asks for a free site and exemption from taxation for ten years for which concessions they would spend $36,000 in buildings and $18,000 annually in wages. A motion urging the town council to take advantage of the offer was accepted.

At the recent meeting of the A. O. U. W. Grand Lodge a resolution was adopted declaring for an increase in the rates. In order that every section of the jurisdiction might be represented a committee composed of one from each district was selected, and these met and deputized a sub-committee to strike a table of rates. When this is done the large committee will meet and pass upon the table and prepare a recommendation to Grand Lodge.

SATURDAY, March 16.—Miss Stratton of Toledo is the guest of Mrs. Gifford.

The many friends of Mrs. George Davis regret that her health is not improving very much.
Our school opened again this week, Miss Eyre holding the reins of government.

W. G. Olds is erecting a commodious cow stable which, when finished, will be very convenient.

We are glad that Mr. John C. Blanchard is recovering. He was severely injured by the kick of a horse.

Mr. E. M. Smith purchased a spanking grey team in the vicinity of Meriville. All other men will have to take a back seat while Edward holds the reins.

Mrs. George Dixon remains very low, with small hopes of her recovery. Her daughters, Mrs. Stowell of Brockville and Mrs. M. Grath of New York, and her sons, William and Wesley, are home with her now.

John McBratney will start for Manitoba next Tuesday. He has a large farm near Cartwright, Manitoba. He has purchased the fine draft team owned by Ed. Smith and several other horses and will carry on farming very extensively next summer.

Mrs. M. E. Smith owns a very remarkable hen. It lays eggs with three yolks in them. It would appear that it has heard of the great Brockville fair to be held in September next and is preparing to exhibit a new variety of triplets.

LANSDOWNE

Miss Jessie Findly gave a party to her friends last Thursday night.

D. F. Warren goes to Belleville this week as a delegate from the L. O. L. No. 26 to attend a meeting of the Grand Lodge.

Miss Nellie McKay & Orville Curry were married at the home of the bride's mother on Wednesday evening, March 13th.

H. C. Mulvaugh has engaged Arthur Lancaster, just from Belleville Business College, as an assistant in his store.

The merchants here are doing a rushing spring trade.

J. Beale is doing a good trade in the confectionery line.

B. Leverette has moved his family here from Brockville.

FRONT OF YONGE.

Mr. Charles Tennant and family have the sympathy of the community at large in the death of their little child. The funeral which took place Saturday last, was a very large one and showed the high esteem in which the family are held in the township. The Rev. Mr. Daley performed the last rites for the dead. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Yonge Mills.

Many small select parties are being held through the township, but for the fact that they are very private we cannot possibly describe them.

We were fully aware that this would be a hard winter from the fact that the muskrats on Fly creek had built very large houses.

Mr. Bryan and B. Leader have ordered a roller mill, to be run for the farmers and the public. This is certainly keeping well up with the times. A carload of Manitoba hard wheat will be immediately laid down at the mill.

Mr. Charles Truesdell of Junctown has been ill with inflammation of the bowels. He is under the care of Dr. Lane.

Mr. Ormon Gibson, who was ill for some time, has completely recovered and is attending to business again.

Mr. Dunkin has an orange tree which is in full bloom. It has fruit and blossoms at the same time.

Not to Be Sacrificed.
The man who loves to tell us how his fellow man should act
And bids us to his teachings bow
And hail them as exact,
If all the world were good and wise,
Revealing through and through
No cause for censure to his eyes,
What would the good man do?
And so we will be mortal still
And go our hithering ways,
Lest we might check the critic's skill
And miss his rounded phrase,
For if we never broke a law
Nor had to start anew
We ask it with a sense of awe,
What would the good man do?

Concluding the Story.
De Tanque—My father is 80 years old and has never used glasses.
O'Soague—Always drinks from the bottle, eh?
A Dreadful State.
He—Well, we can't believe more than half we hear.
She—Oh, worse than that. I can't believe more than half I say.—Life.

A Parasite.
Towne—It seems Jenkins has just discovered that he has a family tree.
Brown—Yes, it's an outgrowth of his successful business plant.

Progress.
'Twas said by a Whig
That a man with a gig
Enjoyed a clear claim to gentility,
But a man who would now
Win the parent's bow
Must belong to the automobility.—Life.
