HAD IT BAD.

Man Arrested for Sending 600 Letters to Women.

New York, May 5.—When Mrs. Katherine Ballou's victoria came up Fifth avenue to Fifty-first street at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon Police Captain Delaney had a dozen men and Detectives Quinlan and Mehan lining that part of the avenue.

At Fifty-first street Mrs. Ballou stopped the carriage and sent a footman to the curb. The footman pointed out a man and the police grabbed him, hauled him into a cab and locked him up in the Thirty-fifth street station house.

The prisoner is Frederick C. Zimmerman, who describes himself as an inventor of fountain pens, with an office at 233 East Fifty-second street.

He admitted that he had written more than 600 love letters to Mrs. Ballou. He says he fell in love with her in the street, seeing her drive by.

Mrs. Ballou says she has been annoyed her for two years by writing her letters to him. She has written him, and later by calling at her house at 331 Lexington avenue and insisting on seeing her. She believes that he is mad and she was afraid he might shoot her.

He told the police he would love her forever whatever they did to him. She drove to the station after his arrest and told Capt. Delaney that one of Zimmerman's letters spoke of things at his home which he was going to send her through the mails. She feared that he might mean an infernal machine. The detectives went to Zimmerman's office and there took possession of his effects, which will be examined today.

SOME INCIDENTS OF THE BATTLE OF SPION KOP.

(Black and White.)

Not a title of the dramatic occurrences of the war can ever be told. We get a good impression of the extraordinary scenes common to the combatants' life in a volume of the Boer Campaign, by Lieutenant E. Blake Knox, R. A. M. C. (Brimley Johnson, 10s. 6d. net). This gallant officer has given us a stirring story of some of the most remarkable tableaux of the great battles in which General Buller engaged. It was during the battle of Taba Mayama that the sporting instinct of the Boers brought some of them to their senses. They were on Three Tree Hill, when something started a hare out into the open. "This was trying Tommy too far. He could sit and wait for most things, but a chase he could not resist. Nearly a hundred men jumped up and went after that hare, hallooing, throwing sticks, stags, bully-hoof tins, and even their helmets after it, regardless of all danger." This was all the sight the Boers wanted and started the shelling, one shell instantly killing a man and wounding half a dozen others.

Tricked into Spion Kop. It was in the same battle that a trick was practiced which had incalculable effect upon the Boer fortunes. Hinton (who afterwards became known as an infernal machine. The detectives went to Zimmerman's office and there took possession of his effects, which will be examined today.

A Pathetic Last Message. Much has been written about Spion Kop, and we have by no means heard the last of it. Lieutenant Knox contributes important additions. Some of his pictures are intensely dramatic. When General Woodgate, who had the command, received his fatal wound, he ordered the heliographer to signal: "We are between a terrible cross-fire, and can barely hold our own. No more shells. Help us." A shell smashed the instrument as the last official words of the unfortunate officer were being transmitted.

C. P. R. LAND SALES.

Returns of Companies Show an Enormous Increase.

Winnipeg, Man., May 5.—The returns of the C. P. R. land department and the Canada Northern Land Department and the Canada North-west and Company show what an immense amount of business is being done. TWO YEARS IN PRISON.

Princess Radziwill Laughed While Ju y Deliberated.

SPUN COIN TO SEE RESULT

Cape Town, May 5.—Princess Radziwill, who has been on trial here on the charge of forging the name of Cecil Rhodes to a number of notes and drafts, yesterday found guilty on all the counts of the indictment against her, and was sentenced to two years' imprisonment without the benefit of a pardon.

The judge, in pronouncing the sentence, said that he was sorry to see a woman of her rank and position brought to such a low level.

The princess, who is a Polish noble, was seen in the courtroom looking very pale and nervous.

She had since repaid £3,000 of the money she had borrowed from Mr. Rhodes for the recovery of this money. She admitted that she had wrongly used the name of Mr. Rhodes to obtain the money.

The chief justice then addressed the prisoner impressively. He referred to her birth, her education, and her position in society. He deplored the two dark features of her case, namely, the attempts to incriminate the innocent Mrs. Schultz and the bringing of a boy into the employ of the postoffice to forge a date line on the alleged cablegram from B. A. Hawksley.

During the address by the attorney-general, Princess Radziwill drummed angrily on the desk with her fingers, and was continually engaged in writing notes and tearing them up.

The jury was out for 35 minutes. During its absence the Princess appeared to be unconcerned, laughing and spinning a coin to determine what the verdict would be, and exclaiming gleefully, "Not guilty!"

TAXES ADD TO REVENUE.

Britain Will Gain £76,025,000 Up to April, 1903.

London, May 5.—A Parliamentary paper just published shows a total estimated increase on account of the war in South Africa, to March 31, 1903, of £222,970,000, and in respect of operations in China, a total of £6,040,000.

A second table shows that the proceeds of the new taxes from 1900 to March 31, 1903, amount to an increase in the revenue of £76,025,000, of which the greatest part is supplied by income tax, which aggregates £30,377,000. The sugar duty, from its imposition until March, 1903, is estimated to produce £11,200,000. The revenue net free by the suspension of the sinking fund amounts to £13,868,000. This, together with the proceeds of new taxation, leaves a balance for war expenditure to be charged to capital account of £155,148,000.

AN OFFICER, NOT A STUDENT.

Man Who Killed Russian Minister to be Hanged.

London, Monday, May 5.—A despatch to the Times from St. Petersburg says that Balabanoff, who on April 15 shot and killed M. Sipiaguine, Minister of the Interior, has been sentenced to death by the court-martial to which the case was referred. He will be hanged on May 3rd in the presence of a few carefully selected witnesses. Nothing is known certainly of his identity. It is now believed that he is an officer, and not a student, which accounts for the extraordinary secrecy the police have observed throughout the case, except for his trial by court-martial. An ordinary court tried Peter Karpoivitch, who shot M. Bogoloff, Minister of Public Instruction, last year.
