THE LOCAL BUDGET

Wm. Fox, of Leamington, was in the city yesterday.

J. Kittermaster, of Courtwright, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

Wm. McKee, of Petrolia, called on his many Chatham friends yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Wilcox, Bloomfield, are visiting friends in Detroit and Windsor.

Mr. Grant, of Blenheim, one of the "Kent" increase players, was in the city yesterday.

Ten teams wanted to work in the sugar beet fields; highest wages paid. Apply to Geo. W. Cowan.

Lost, a sable ruff on Saturday morning on the market square. A reward will be paid to the finder by leaving at The Planet Office.

The last prisoner in the jail goes out to-morrow. A free man, unless somebody is put in to-day there will be an empty jail to-morrow.

Sheriff Gemmill, returning officer for West Kent, is posting up the proclamations for the referendum. In the city, the same polling places will be used as are used at municipal elections.

Tickets for the Colonial moving picture exhibition in the Grand Opera House on Nov. 12, under the auspices of the I. O. O. F., are for sale at McCall's drug store and Turner's drug store. Reserve plans opens Tuesday at 10 a. m. at the Central Drug store.

CONCERT TO-NIGHT

Every child was present at the rehearsal for the Central school concert this afternoon. The seating was used, as it will be for the regular concert, and everything passed without the least fear or alarm on the part of the children or their parents. The concert promises to be a huge success.

CUSTOMS SALE

Quite a crowd collected this afternoon to watch and take part in the sale of goods on which duty had not been paid. The sale was under the auspices of the customs department. It was advertised to be pulled off at two o'clock, and at that hour quite a number had assembled. Besides many ladies, amongst the multitude were noticed F. Marx, Chief Holmes, Con. Shea, Mayor Salmon, Robert Cooper, Theo. Bourassa, Will Stevens, W. H. Benson, Percy Morley, Geo. Jamieson, Will Melish, D. J. Macdonald, J. W. Burrows, A. D. Westman, Will Taskberry, Frank Phelps, Harry Ball, Nelson Stringer, Art. Bedford, W. H. Harper, Mr. Wilcox, Arthur Dunn, W. E. Rispen, and many others.

The sale directors were a little late in getting back from dinner and it was 2:30 before they arrived. For a minute the hubbub of conversation ceased when Collector of Customs Parkerson, Deputy Collector Pollock and Auctioneer Andrew Thomson put in an appearance. The auctioneer opened up the sale with a little explanatory speech, then offered a guitar for sale. After some spirited bidding at five cents a rise, the guitar was knocked down to D. J. Macdonald for $1.75. The next article offered was two bottles of medicine, but nobody wanted it. A stamping outfit was sold to Theodore Bourassa for 45 cents. Then a farmer bought some advertising cards for five cents. A band uniform with gold braid and a helmet aroused some interest and bidding was lively but not heavy. A woman secured the uniform for $1.45.

Mrs. Gray bought half a dozen paving brick samples for 5c. She got good measure for her money, in weight.

Nobody wanted a cast iron wheel, and it will be destroyed. At least that is what Andrew Thomson said would be done with the articles not sold.

Nobody wanted a package of medicine. The crowd was evidently healthy. Some pills wouldn't sell either. There seemed to be quite a number troubled with asthma in the crowd, for many wanted a bottle of Asthma Cure. An aged farmer bought it for 50c.

A. C. Parker bought a box of photographs for 5c. When he examined his purchase he found he had purchased advertising pictures of lambs.

Nobody wanted some Louisiana lottery tickets only seven years old. J. W. Humphrey wanted Chief Holmes to arrest Andrew for selling lottery tickets, but fortunately there was no one anxious to speculate and Andrew escaped.

A basket of old clothes realized 50c. The sale continued all afternoon, furnishing lots of fun and amusement.

REGIMENT ORDERS

Chatham, Ont., Oct. 25, '03.
Headquarters 24th "Kent" Regiment.
Regimental orders

by
Lieut.-Col. J. B. Rankin, commanding.

1. The Company drills will be held next week at the discretion of captains of companies.

2. The band and bugle band will meet for practice on the regular nights.

By Order,
W. A. COLTART, Jr.,
1st Lieutenant,
Acting Adjutant.

THE MARKETS

The market this morning, while not an excellent one for Saturday, was far better than we have had for some time. No new stuff is being brought in and the prices remain practically unchanged.

Following is the full price list:—

IN THE SHEDS.
Eggs, per doz., 15c to 18c.
Chickens, each, 20c to 35c.
Ducks, each, 30c to 35c.
Butter, per pound, 18c to 20c.

VEGETABLES AND FRUITS.
Summer squash, three for 10c.
Sage, per bunch, 5c.
Carrots, per peck, 10c.
Onions, per peck, 20c.

Potatoes, per bag, $1.00 to $1.20.
Cabbage, per head, 3c to 5c.
Tomatoes, per peck, 15c.
Cucumbers, per doz., 2c.
Celery, 3 bunches for 10c.

Cauliflower, per head, 5c.
Peaches, per basket, 20c to 40c.
Apples, per peck, 10c.
Pears, per peck, 15c.
Honey, per rack, 13c.

Grapes, per basket, 25c.
Pumpkins, each, 10c to 15c.
Beets, per peck, 15c.
Skunk skins, 15c to 75c.
Dog skins, 25c to 50c.

Cane Bottom Chairs.

When the seats of cane bottom chairs have become limp and stretched, provided none of the canes are broken, they may be restored by being well washed in hot water and exposed to a current of air. This treatment causes the canes to tighten up, and when dry the seat will be quite flat.

English Ivy.

The English ivy attains so great an age that in England they say it never dies. There are ivy stocks ten or twelve inches in diameter which are known to have been planted as slips 600 or 800 years ago.

AN ACCIDENT Averted.

To the Editor of The Planet:
Dear Sir,—Through the clear-headed brain of the principal of the Central School what might have been a serious affair was averted last night at the Grand Opera House by the good judgment used by Principal Plewes. The platform recently erected, on which was seated several hundred school children, began to sway, and the principal, seeing the danger that the children so under his control that by his telling them to remain quiet and not to move, they were taken off their dangerous positions without the injury to a single child, thus averting a sad accident. After all had been removed, Mr. Plewes came in from the platform and informed the large assemblage that the concert would have to be postponed until Saturday evening owing to the dangerous position of the platform. This was a sad disappointment to all, and Mr. Plewes should be commended upon the good judgment he used. Our children are certainly in good hands while under such a good, collected head.

Yours truly,
W. R. BAXTER.

PERTINENT QUERIES.

Chatham, Nov. 8, '02.
To the Editor of The Planet:

Dear Sir,—Upon reading the long list of signatures against this prohibition act, I am just now becoming interested. If we are expected to vote in December we wish to know just what we are to vote for or against. You will no doubt consider me behind the times, but believe me, there are not three out of fifty of us country folk who really understand the thing. I am quite aware of its having been our privilege to have read it up, but until now there has been but little interest taken in it generally.

According to this manifesto, the liquor traffic is still to be carried on, only in unfenced houses; or, will our laws permit such a state of affairs? Are they who are entrusted to carry them out so impotent as to submit to such outlaws? If so is it any wonder the census returns are decreasing each year?

I do not know but few of these men whose names appear on the list, but it would be well for you who do, to carefully look them over, and if they belong to the law, as they are the most temperate, moral and substantial of your citizens, would it not be well for your temperance enthusiasts to consider their decision a little.

But on the other hand, if they are drinking men themselves, and are so confident of their being able to secure the stuff as readily after the passing of such a law, as they do now, why all this anxiety?

We would esteem it a great favor if some of your temperance or other workers would explain matters more sore, and we shall take note this time. Thinking you for your space should you consider this worthy of publication, I am yours very respectfully.
