It begins to look as though the present money stringency may affect the village. In May last the Council refused to consider an offer at par for $3,825.75 of local improvement debentures. This will be added to about $10,000 with the six walks and sewers to be constructed this year. In addition, the purchase of the electric plant, will require an additional issue, and it begins to look as though a higher rate of interest would have to be offered, judging from the experience of other municipalities in the province.—Tilbury Times.
