COR. SIXTH AND KING STREETS OVER THE BEE HIVE PHONE: Office 317. Resi

It seems that a certain gentleman had an option on the property previous to the city's offer. He had had the option quite a long time before the deal with the city was thought of, but it seems that he had never signified his intenton of taking over the property until someone gave him the tip yesterday that the city was about to close the deal.

This afternoon, it is understood, he paid a visit to his lawyer to see what he could do toward retaining his option on the property.

If the man insists on purchasing the property, it is obvious that the

the property, it is obvious that the city will have to look elsewhere for a site for the Isolation Hospital.
