

"I Was Terribly Weak After Baby Was Born"

Mrs. H. McClure, Norwood, Ont., writes:

"After my baby was born, I was terribly weak and run down, with pains across my back. I had heard so much of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food that I decided to try it. Three boxes proved enough to make me quite strong and well again. I also used Dr. Chase's Ointment for a rash which broke out on the baby, and the rash disappeared completely in a short time."

Bad Smashes Will Occur

Even the most careful drivers are liable to suffer the bad smashes that damage property and play havoc with the other man's car. A slippery road, a child stepping in front of the machine, someone else's carelessness, these and other unexpected dangers are to blame for many a serious accident.

Edmundston Locals

R. D. Murphy left for Boston on Monday morning.

School opened after the Easter recess on Wednesday morning.

David Evans left for Glendyne where he will be located for the summer.

Isaac Kasner who was in Montreal on business, returned to his home last Friday.

We are glad to see Jim McKenzie back to town again after his long sojourn in the woods.

Mrs. William Matheson and little daughter, Isobel, made a visit to Woodstock this week.

Vernie Cameron and family are leaving shortly for Chicago, where they will make their home.

R. W. Hammond's sale is continuing for hardware that are worth while and goods of unsurpassed quality, you can't beat Hammond's.

We understand that J. C. Cote, the popular proprietor of the "Library," will remove from Edmundston this summer. Mr. Cote is a good citizen and there is genuine regret on the part of the thought of his leaving here.

The gold fish sale recently held at the Rexall Drug Store was a huge success and another one is to be held next week. Nothing is much more attractive than a bowl of these lively and pretty fish. Children delight in them, and grown-ups are almost as fond of them as are the children.

Frederick F. Jalbert, who lived at the first settlement from St. Basil, was found dead in his home on Tuesday morning. Some few months ago Mr. Jalbert, accompanied by his wife, went on an extended visit to the United States where their grown-up children are living, but the deceased did not like it there, and came back to his home, leaving Mrs. Jalbert behind. Since he came home he has been living by himself. A couple of weeks ago he told some of his neighbors that he thought he would pay a visit to some friends in St. Jacques, and as for several days they did not see him around, or any smoke from the chimneys, they naturally presumed that he was making the proposed visit. On Tuesday morning they investigated, and found him in his home dead. Coroner Levite Cyr, accompanied by Dr. Martin, went to the house on Tuesday afternoon, and held a preliminary inquest and post mortem examination and they found that he had been dead for perhaps more than a week and that he died from natural causes. The deceased was about fifty-five years of age.

J. N. Thibault, we regret to hear, is laid up in his home with rheumatism.

Miss Daisy Keith of Moncton was a visitor over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Amos.

Rev. Mr. Beauchamp of Richmond, Que., was a visitor at the home of Florent Deschamps last week.

Douglas Dunbar, who is suffering from typhoid fever is getting along as well as can be expected.

E. E. Miller who is employed at the Fraser Companies' mill, met with a painful last week, by scalding his hand quite badly.

A. E. Sealey of Woodstock was here over the week-end, visiting his son, Leo Sealey, who is on the staff of the Fraser Companies, Ltd.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner of Moncton were the guests of their daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Leaman, Canada Road over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred McLeod wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Lizzie to Capt. D. Soucy of Port Kent, Maine. Congratulations Mr. Soucy.

Easter Hats were not as much in evidence this Easter as they are some years, as a good many of the ladies preferred to be comfortable and wear their winter's chapeaux.

The Firemen's Ball held on Monday night was a great success, a great many people availing themselves of the opportunity to keep the firemen and to have an enjoyable evening as well.

Plus Michaud, M. P. returned to Ottawa on Thursday. He was going to stay over one night at Campbellton and expected to reach Ottawa in time for the opening of the House on Monday morning.

The sale in Moscovitz old store on Canada Road, held by the Ladies Circle of St. Paul's Church, was a great success last Saturday. Although the day was cold and blustery the good things to eat found a ready sale, and the cut flowers were in great demand, especially by the young, unmarried, but attached men, who wanted to see their best girls decked out on Easter morning.

The inquest on the victims of the Van Buren fire was held on Wednesday morning, Dr. Boone of Presque Isle being the coroner. It was found that the victims came to their death through suffocation and burns. No cause for the fire was found. A representative of The Observer enquired concerning the injured and was informed on Wednesday night that they were doing exceedingly well, and that there was no danger.
