—Services next Sunday at St. Ann's at 11 a. m.; St. Paul's at 7 p. m.

—Auction sale of personal property at Centreville next Wednesday, 21st.

—Rev. Mr. MacDonald held a baptism at Morice's on Sunday. One person was immersed.

—Dr. Carter has removed from Bristol to Port Elgin—a more central location for his practice.

—Mrs. Charles W. Chandler has received $3,000 insurance on her late husband's life from the Royal Arcanum.

—Rev. A. R. B. Shewsbury will preach next Sabbath at Rockport at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m., and at Grand Ance at 3 p. m.

—Dr. Bradley, Dentist, will be in Bath, N. S., on Thursday, March 15th, and will remain one week. Rooms at Bath Verto Hotel. 11

—The funeral sermon of the late Arthur G. Chase will be preached by the Rev. D. S. Carpenter at the Salem Methodist Church next Sunday at 3 p. m.

—Farmers or others wanting seed oats, horses, buggies, pumps, sleds, truck wagons, harnesses, ropes, &c., would do well to attend the sale at the International Hotel, Friday afternoon.

—Miss Eliza Palmer, daughter of Mr. William Palmer, formerly of Sackville, now living in Moncton, went to visit some friends at Campbellton on Friday last, and died on Sunday morning after a few hours illness.

—The business men of Sackville are complaining that the postal box at Sackville Station does not receive due attention from the post office. Letters of importance are often put there for speedy transmission and when not taken out, of course the object of the box is defeated.

—On Tuesday, 20th inst., there will be held in the Methodist Church at Cookville a centenary meeting, at which will be present Rev. S. A. Man, of Dorchester, and others; and also at Rockport on the following evening, Wednesday, 21st. Collection will be taken up for the Memorial Hall fund of Sackville. All who can possibly come are earnestly requested to do so. Meeting to commence each evening at 7 o'clock.

—A temperance meeting takes place on next Thursday evening, 22nd inst., in the basement of the Methodist Church of this village, the chair to be taken at half past seven o'clock by the Rev. Mr. McDonald. There will, of course, be address delivered by the chairman and other gentlemen; and the Sackville Vocal Music Society, under the leadership of Professor Cran, has kindly consented to take part in the exercises of the evening.

—Mr. Geo. Manro, the Nova Scotia millionaire in New York, has endowed a law school in connection with Dalhousie College, Halifax, and has nominated Prof. Weldon P. D., of Mt. Allison, to the chair of International and Constitutional Law. The salary is $2,000. Dr. Weldon has accepted the position and will enter upon its duties the next collegiate year. Few men in this community have warmer friends than Dr. Weldon, who, while pleased at his advancement, will sincerely regret the severance of his ties with this place.

—A Minister's Evidence.

The all prevalent malady of civilized life is Dyspepsia. Rev. W. B. Clifford, of Bothwell, was cured of dyspepsia and liver complaint that rendered his life almost a burden. The cure was completed by three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters.

The Question of the Day.

"What is good for a cold?" is a question often asked, but seldom satisfactorily answered. We can answer to the satisfaction of all, if they will follow the lead of Dr. Weldon's Pectoral Balsam, a safe, pleasant and certain throat and lung healer. Sold by all druggists.

Happy Consumption.

Discovered, the means by which any lady may wear slippers or shoes one or two sizes smaller than usual. Every one who has used PATER'S PATENT CORN EXTRACTOR is pleased with the result. Very few persons are exempt from suffering great discomfort and pain from corns, but corns are of small importance and they may be removed by a few applications of PATER'S PATENT CORN EXTRACTOR. Beware of substitutes and bad counterfeits. Sure, prompt and painless. Sold everywhere by druggists. N. C. POLSON & CO., Kingston, Proprietors.

—A house at New Richmond, P. Q., occupied by Mr. John W. McWhirter, has destroyed by fire on Monday night, 5th inst. Mrs. McWhirter and her infant daughter perishing in the flames. Her father-in-law, an old man, managed to escape with two of the children. They walked some distance to the next house, but after arriving there the old man, managed to escape with two of the children. They walked some distance to the next house, but after arriving there the old man, managed to escape with two of the children.

—One of the many strange episodes of the recent Western floods was the finding of an infant near Louisville floating in a cradle in the river. A man who was rowing across the river found the cradle, and on rowing up to it was surprised to find a beautiful infant, about three months old, gazing up to the sky in open-mouthed wonder. The little waif was comfortably and warmly dressed, and was evidently the child of a rich man. Its parents have not yet been found.

—Information has been received of the frightful death of two over-riding aeronauts in Madrid: Captain Mari and his assistant were killed on a balloon on the 10th inst. before an immense concourse of people on January 28th. When the balloon was 1,000 feet up Captain Mari got out upon a trap suspended from the basket and began his performance. Suddenly cries of horror were heard. The trapeze rope was broken and the intruder went over and over till he struck the stone pavement. A moment later another basket went over from the people when the balloon containing the other occupant was seen upon a trap suspended from the basket, crushed against the projecting eave of a house, hurled its occupant to the ground, and he died in a few moments. Both persons were under engagement to Barcelona.

Dorchester Items.

—Mr. DeMill, the accountant of the Bank of this place, left on the 11th inst. for Halifax. The Bank, of which he was president, returned their esteem by giving an oyster supper in his honor. Guests were invited and a company of about forty gathered around the "festive board."

—The defeat of Mr. Hamilton excites little comment. So few of the electors were able to distinguish between the Government and Opposition at the last election, that they had no strong sympathies; and as still a smaller minority knew whether Messrs. Turner and Lewis were supporters of the former or latter, it is a matter of conjecture whether Mr. Turner was really turned out. It is generally admitted, however, that Albert had some claim to recognition in the scramble for office, and as her position is the same as before the defeat, she has little to gain. Had Mr. Turner returned with a portfolio he would doubtless have been re-elected.

—Petitions are in circulation praying the Dominion Government to relieve the County of its oppressive Railway taxes. The Parish of Elgin is remote from all great public works, and has no Government Railway or sea-border to tax the revenue, it would seem that it had some claim to Government patronage, especially as the R. R. tax has been very burdensome. In the meantime the constable, Mr. E. S. Steeves, is diligently collecting the back levy. A few days ago, he presented himself at the premises of one Mr. Beagan, a son of Elgin, and claimed to drive away the cows. But they were also not equipt, preferring the potatoes and the bran, which was lavishly displayed by their master, to the society of Her Majesty's officer. He, however, persisted in driving the cows, when a number of the cows were driven away.
