Miscellaneous. A Lonely Lighthoase.

DETROIT, June 27 .- Aterrible story suffering has reached Houghton, which, if true, shows criminal careessness or neglect on the part of the Government authorities. The keeper of the Passage Island lighthouse, lying directly north-east of Isle Royal ncluded to winter on the island. His family, so report says, consisted himself, wife, child and father. Several weeks ago the father was taken sick, and provisions began to run short, and the son started in a boat for the adjacent island to secure supplies and a doctor, if possible. Over three weeks have gone by, and THE PERRY DAVIS PAIN KILLER acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails, when taken at the commencement of an no tidings have been received of the missing man. Several days since a bridge disaster now number thirty, involved a ing a sum aggregating seven hundred and flag of distress flying from the island. Upon inspection, it was found the father had died from a lack of proper medical care and starvation; also that the child was dead from starvation and the mother in a pitiable condition, and Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, &c. must inevitably have met with a like fate but for the timely arrival. Care the PAIN KILLER will be found a willing physician, ready and able to relieve your suffering without delay, and at a very insig-nificant cost. For
