SATURDAY last was nomination day for the New Brunwick elections. There is a contest in every constituency, and a very hot election is expected. Mr. Blair, Minister of Railways, is taking a hand in favor of the Tweedy Government, and is very wrathy against the Globe newspaper, conducted by Senator Ellis, which has come out against the Government, although a Liberal journal.

The Attorney General argued contra, and the Court unanimously held that as the prisoner had been indicted and twice put on his trial he was therefore not within the provisions of section 7 of the Habeas Corpus Act which provides that if a prisoner be not indicted and tried within two terms of the passengers still on board toria or any other distributing Court after his committment, he shall be discharged. In this case all that was possible to bring about a speedy trial was done and the fact that the jury disagreed is sufficient ground to ask for discharge. The prisoner therefore remains in Prince County jail to Welsh as follows: Finlayson or- transportation would be arrested.
