This Man Told the Last Story.

From the New Haven News. A party of gentlemen at a Birmingham hotel were telling stories one night recently of famous shots and how many quails, partridges, ducks and other birds had been killed at a single discharge. After listening to what seemed a wilful exaggeration by different narrators, a stranger who was present volunteered his experience of his only use of the fatal double-barrelled gun as follows: "I went into the field one day to try game. The only game I discovered was a nameless flock of blackbirds. I should say there were 10,000 in the flock. Slowly I crawled up to them, and when no more than four rods away the birds rose in a solid mass. I fired both barrels, and how many do you think I killed?"

Big Boots.

In the German army the Fatherland kindly provides very rosy boots for its warriors. There is a very serious inconvenience, however, attending the disposition between the sizes of boot and feet. In very soft, tonaceous ground the boots are left sticking, while the man goes on, casting an affectionate farewell look behind him, but he is not there. When the Eighteenth Army Corps, two years ago, was sent to the front at Strasbourg, they carried a sturdy boot, which had rendered very sticky and muddy, the boots of the infantry were pulled off by hundreds, so that a fatigue party had to be called off, and great laughter to gather up the lost property. This is no exaggeration, and in military history the occasion is still known as the "boot parade." Three or four years ago at the maneuvers near Berlin we saw thousands of men suffering agony from boots that wrung their feet. This is a very important matter and would tell seriously in a campaign.

A Horse Back of a Girl.

A Birmingham, Ala., paper says: A strange story of animal infatuation is told on Southern. Alexander Mitchell, a blackman, was shot and killed by Wesley Evans Saturday, August 28. Mitchell had a horse to which he was very much attached, and the animal accompanied him everywhere. After the attack on Mitchell he refused to eat, and acted very strangely. He would neigh and appear to speak to himself. At the usual time he would go to the stable, and, not seeing his owner, appear to be in deep distress. His back was rubbed and he refused to eat, and finally died of starvation. The owner of the horse is said to have released it.

It Saves the Money.

Washington, D.C., paper says: Yes, my dear son, I've recomended that by walking down town to my business every day I have saved $200 in the last year. Well, you'll say, that's not much. Well, I am out that much, too, today. Follow me, if the way, could you not save a few dollars?

Have You a Match?

(Constitution in want of light, by tipsy stranger) - Got a match? T. S. - British. (Holds out several, examining.) They light on both. T. S. - Awfully handsome. Where's the box? T. S. - That's what I want to know - look it up today.

The Last Year, -1886.

After the above year is ended there need be no person suffering from Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Toothache, Headache, Lumbago, or any acute pain, if they only purchase a bottle of Fluid Lightning, as it cures instantly. Pain cannot stay where it is used. The name is Fluid Lightning. Sold by G Rhynas', druggist.

Lonsdale as a Bark-Stealer.

From London Modern Society. Lord Lonsdale, treasurer and traveling companion to Miss Violet Cameron, has locked out the miners at the Whitbaker collieries, owing to their refusing to agree to an unfair reduction in their weekly wages. Thus the poor workers under the earth and their wives and children are to be left to starve, while Lord Lonsdale carries on his expensive spree as a showman and indulges in his whim of claspering an opera house star.

Hitselwood Falls.

J. D. Cameron, of Westlake, Ainslie, Cape Breton, had inflammatory rheumatism which Hagyard's Yellow Oil cured after all other treatment had failed.

Misses and Maid.

From London Punch. "Where have you been Jane?" "I've been to a meeting of the Girls' Friendly Society, ma'am." "Well, and what did the lady say to you?" "Please, ma'am, she said I wasn't to give you warning, as I meant to. She said I was to look upon you as my throat-and-bear it."

Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure.

A woman always tells a secret to some one because she is afraid she might die and then there would be no one left to tell it. Mr. Phillip Fidler, of Clarion County was winded out of a thousand dollars last week by three-card monte men. Ah, ha! played on him, did they?

The History of Hundred.

Mr. John Morris of St. Johns, N. S., was so seriously afflicted with a disease of the kidneys that dropsy was developing and his life was despaired of. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him after physicians had failed.

California's Big Trees Go.

The "big trees" of California will soon be extinct. Seventeen lumber companies, owning from 3000 to 25,000 acres of redwood forest each, are waging the war of extermination with all the weapons known to the modern logging camp. The demand for the wood is unlimited, and all the mills are kept at work to the limit of their capacity. The forest is so large, but the forces employed against them are swift and irresistible.

McGregor's Lung Compound.

Have you a Bad Cough, a Chronic Hoarseness, a feeling of Tightness in the Chest, Weak Lungs, or any similar complaint? If so, buy at once a bottle of McGregor's Lung Compound. "It will cure you." It contains entirely new specifics, of which one dose is more effective than a whole bottle of the old time remedies. It is put up in 50c and $1 bottles. Sold by G. Rhynas', druggist. Try it, and you will never have reason to complain. (4)

Wanted Practical Domestic.

"You," bawled a social snapper, in favor of the party, in movement for the great mass of pain." "Well, snapper, now, yielded a professed and true on the floor."

It is wise to provide against emergencies which are liable to arise in every family. A cold may be a dangerous thing, or not, depending upon the means at hand to combat it. In sudden attacks of cold, croup, asthma, etc., Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will prove your best friend.

Too Much Mental Strain. Editor daily paper: No you would like a job on the paper, Rastus? Rastus: Yes, sah, I kinder feels dat I wud. Editor: Quite steady. Well, Rastus, well you a trial. You can carry that paper out on the sidewalk up to the sixth story, the rest down the windows, and scrub the floor of clean the subcellar, and...

A Seasonable Hint. During the breaking up of winter, when the air is chilly and the weather damp, such complaints as rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, sore throat, croup and other painful affections of sudden cold are prevalent. It is then that Haysard's Yellow Oil is found truly valuable as a household remedy.

Making Fun of Himself. From the Wall Street News. "I don't see," observed Boggs, as he leaned back in his chair, "how any man of sense could be led to endorse $50,000 or $100,000 and skip the country. He is disgraced, his functions are null and void, and what good can the money do him."

A Crying Evil.—Children are often fretful and ill when worms are the cause. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup safely expels all worms.

The "Horrid Old Uncle." It was a horrid old uncle of two dear young creatures who looked them both on meeting him at a family party. "Ah, Jennie," he said, as he pressed his arm round the neck of one of the girls, "you did well to put your tight underclothes, as your noddle is getting so heavy and swollen."

A Wonderful Organ. The largest organ, and one that plays a controlling part on the health of the body is the liver. If torpid or inactive, the whole system becomes diseased. Dr. Chase's Liver Cure is made especially for Liver and Kidney diseases, and is guaranteed to cure. Receipt book and medicine $1. Sold by J. Wilson.

A Good Book-keeper. From the Detroit Free Press. Smith: "Say, didn't you tell me that young Jones was a good book-keeper?" Fagg: "Why, yes, I believe he did."

A Heavy Load. "When I ate, my food was like a lump of lead in my stomach. I took Burdock Blood Bitters. The more I took, the more it helped me. I am like a new man now," says Ezra Babcock, of Cloyne P. O., Township Barrie, Ont. 2.

The Same Thing. From Life. "What in thunder is that child crying for?" asked Fogg. "I don't know. I've given him everything I can think of and still he doesn't stop," replied his wife. "That's queer, of course that he want some thing else."

Seeing is believing. Read the testimonials in the pamphlet on Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure, then buy a bottle and relieve yourself of all those distressing pains. Your Druggist can tell you all about it. Sold by J. Wilson Goderich 2m
