Looking Forward.

Bad luck may come this year or next, and put me out of kilter, but I am not distressed or vexed, my eyes no teardrops filter. I'd rather think that coming days will be brighter and better, and so I sing my song of praise, and whoop and tear my sweater. I may fall down and break a leg, as you say, with emotion, and give to buy about a keg of powder, pills and potion; but while my legs are on my frame, no trouble will I borrow: I'll prance around and play the game and have no truck with sorrow. My aunt may come and bring her kid to visit for a cycle; on joy, you say, 'twill put the lid, but for the love of Michael, why should I fret till she shall start to share my humble pottage? No aunt can break a brive man's heart until she's in his cottage. Ten million chumps, all c'er the earth, are always muffled-drumming, and missing all there is of mirth, through fear of what's a-ceming. Oh, friends, to-day let us be glad and keep our tops a-spinning; and if to-morrow we are sad, the next day we'll be grinning! Let's always keep our smiles on straight, to sorrow make resistance; no folly's greater than to wait for troubles in the distance.

Prayer Meetings Used as Lure

In Confidence Trick.
Chicago, June 14.—Under indictment on a charge of operating a confidence game, Orland E. Robinson, former manager of a match company, and his son, Orlando, Jr., are accused of having duped forty members of the Forty-First Street Presbyterian Church out of $21,500. They are said to have interested the church people in their scheme to organize a match-making machine company by holding prayer-meetings.

The elder Robinson, who was arrested at his residence at Perrysburg, Ohio, and the son, who was taken to St. Louis, were brought to Chicago yesterday and released on $5,000 bail each.

Attorneys for that portion of the Presbyterian congregation which claims it has been swindled, assert that the Robinsons held prayer meetings in their suite in a downtown hotel and at the residences of several of their customers.

Ministers, business men, washwomen, factory girls, widows and orphans are listed as their alleged victims, whose confidence was gained at the religious meetings. The Robinsons are said to have operated in 24 cities in the same manner.

Prefers Downey to Gibbs.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Sir,—Will you please give me space in your popular paper for a few remarks on the politics, which are becoming quite an interesting subject here? It is the question brought up in every store, on every corner and wherever you see a number of men assembled you may know that elections is on the carpet. Conjecture is rife as to who will represent the Liberals here next term. Mr. Gibbs they say is coming as candidate for the People's Party, though why the ticket is not given to Mr. Downey who is a most capable representative, and who has done more for the District than any of his predecessors. I can't say Morris by doing this is courting defeat. I am not a rampant party man at all, but I think I am fair-minded, and I must say that Mr. Downey during his term did all in his power for the District, and when a man writes to him in any difficulty he would help him to the best of his ability irrespective of politics. He has gained many friends during his term, and if he were to come on the Liberal ticket he would poll a big vote and I think would give Mr. Gibbs the honour of another defeat. Mr. Downey was the first member we ever had to intercede himself in the poor man's interest and who had the courage of his convictions to carry them out every if by so doing he offended the higher powers and made them his bitter enemies. He would not grant a favor to a merchant if by so doing he would use one cent of the district money which all should share in alike. The Western Star is getting quite enthusiastic in its praise of Mr. Gibbs, and I think it but fair for some of Mr. Downey's friends to say a word in his behalf although this letter does not give him half his due.

I am, sir, yours,
St. George's, June 13, 1913. C.

S.A. Services.

The services at the S. A. Citadel continue to draw great crowds. Last night the large auditorium and platform was filled, whilst many occupied seats in the gallery. From the singing of the opening song until the benediction was pronounced there was not a dull moment. After the opening exercises the meeting was opened for testimony, and the manner in which the people responded was an evidence of the blessing which they had received through these services. The Citadel band led by Mr. A. Brewster, rendered one of its inspiring marches, while a solo sung by one of the bandsmen was much enjoyed. Miss Jones sang most beautifully "Saviour hold my hand," after which Adjutant Hargrove introduced Mr. W. H. Jones, Superintendent of the King George Fifth Institute. Mr. Jones expressed his pleasure at meeting with the Salvationists and their friends, remarking that this was not the first time he had taken part in a Salvation Army meeting. In fact his honeymoon had been spent assisting in a revival campaign led by the Salvation Army. The speaker took his text from Daniel 5 and 27. Mr. Jones is a pleasing speaker, and in words frequent in their simplicity he reasoned with that great audience of righteousness and judgment, to come, until Felix like, many trembled. At the close of the address, and in response to the Adjutant's appeal for penitents, many rose to their feet, while a number went forward to the penitent's table. On Sunday, Adjutant and Mrs. Hargrove will be in charge of the meetings, and on Thursday night, June 26th, Mr. R. K. Barnes will address the meeting. Seats free; all are welcome.—J. M.

Requiem Mass

For Repose of the Soul of the Late
Rev. Jas. McNamara.

On Wednesday morning, in the R. C. Church, Burin, a solemn High Mass of Requiem was sung for the repose of the soul of the late beloved Parish Priest of that place, Rev. Jas. McNamara, whose death caused widespread sorrow amongst the people of the parish over which he had spiritual jurisdiction. The church was crowded, people coming from all parts of the countryside to take part in the sad ceremony. The celebrant of the mass was Rev. Father Wilson, and the choir was supervised by the good Nuns of Burin Convent. At the conclusion of the mass, Father Wilson preached an eloquent and touching sermon in which he reviewed the life and works of the deceased priest and brought to the mind's eye of his mourning parishioners his kindness, helpfulness and charity. He particularly dwelt on the excellent work done by Father McNamara in the district, his attention to the church in which they were then assembled and pointed out that the fruition of his zeal could be noticed in the churches and schools erected by him, the advancement of education and the material and spiritual betterment of the people over whom he was placed. The oration was couched in beautiful language and many in the congregation were moved to tears.

First Schooner Down.

The schr. Mildred M. Belle, Capt. J. P. Wade, of Conception Harbor, was the first vessel to get down to Northern Labrador this season. The schooner did excellent work, was down before the mail boat, and made the voyage in 3 days. Capt. Wade will fish at Smokey Run. The schr. Frolic, which had to put into Conception after being damaged by ice recently, was commanded by Capt. C. Costigan, of Harbor Main, not by Capt. Spracklin.

THE MARY'S MISSION.—The s.s. Mary, which left here yesterday morning for Bay St. George, where she will run in the mail and passenger service, is commanded by Capt. Samuel Butt, formerly of the s.s. Active. The ship is in good condition for the service, being recently overhauled and her chief engineer is Mr. John Maher, with Mr. Matthew Pope, as second and Capt. Bonia, purser.

The Father to His Motherless Children.

Come gather closer to my side,
My little smitten flock,
And I will tell of him who brought
Pure water from the rock;
Who boldly led God's people forth
From Egypt's wrath and guile,
And once a cradled babe did float
All helpless on the Nile.

You're weary, precious ones, your eyes
Are wandering far and wide;
Think ye of her who knew so well
Your tender thoughts to guide;
Who could to wisdom's sacred lore
Your fixed attention claim;
Ah! never from your hearts erase
That blessed mother's name.

The time to sing your evening hymn,
My youngest infant dove;
Come, press thy velvet cheek to mine,
And learn the lay of love;
My sheltering arms can clasp you all,
My poor deserted throng;
Cling as you used to cling to her
Who sings the angel's song.

Begin, sweet birds, the accustomed strain,
Come warble loud and clear;
Alas, alas, you're weeping all
Another defeat. Mr. Downey was the first member we ever had to intercede himself in the poor man's interest and who had the courage of his convictions to carry them out every if by so doing he offended the higher powers and made them his bitter enemies. He would not grant a favor to a merchant if by so doing he would use one cent of the district money which all should share in alike. The Western Star is getting quite enthusiastic in its praise of Mr. Gibbs, and I think it but fair for some of Mr. Downey's friends to say a word in his behalf although this letter does not give him half his due.

Mendelssohn Recital

The Mendelssohn Recital presented last night at Gower Street Church, under the direction of Mr. F. J. King, organist and choirmaster, afforded music-lovers a rare treat. Amongst the large and representative audience were their Excellencies Governor and Mrs. Davidson, attended by Major Davenport. The recital opened with congregational singing of "All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name," to the good old tune of "Diadem." After the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Rogers, had said the Lord's Prayer, in which the congregation joined, the programme opened with an overture to "Lobgesang," faultlessly executed by Mr. King, who manipulated the organ, which was listened to by the audience with undivided emotion. The selections of the recital were from the compositions of Mendelssohn, chiefly from "Elijah." The chorus renditions went smoothly and showed that the greatest care had been taken in practice. The chorus "Blessed are the meek" was particularly pleasing and parts of it were sung without accompaniment. The duet "I waited for the Lord," by Miss Daffady and Mrs. King, evoked much favorable comment and the trio "Lift Thine Eyes," without musical help, by Misses Curtis, Vey and Russell, was well received. Mrs. King interpreted splendidly "Hear ye Israel," and "Hear my Prayer." She has sung the former before in Gower Street Church, but last night's effect, it is said, eclipsed all previous ones. Mr. Seymour's "If with all your hearts," and Mr. Russell's "O Lord, have Mercy," were exceptionally good. The recital closed with the singing of the Doxology and Benediction by the Rev. Dr. Rogers.

Died at Montreal.

There passed away at the General Hospital at Montreal on last Sunday night, at the age of 48, Mr. W. J. Marquand. Deceased was a well known figure in St. John's, whether for over 20 years connected with the Sun Life Assurance Co., and for many years was manager of Sun Life affairs in Newfoundland. Prior to his demise, which was very sudden, Mr. Marquand was promoted to Insurance Manager at Pittsburg, and accompanied by his wife and niece, was leaving by the Ocean Limited on a visit to his home in Jersey, Channel Islands, when he was suddenly stricken and succumbed. The many friends of the deceased in St. John's will sympathize with his family.

Visited the Schools.

Wednesday, Sir Henry Lewis, now here on a vacation from England, in an informal way, visited the schools of the Christian Brothers, St. Patrick's Hall. Sir Henry was shown through the class rooms by Revs. Superior Ryan and Brother Kennedy, and was highly pleased with the facilities for a good education afforded by the schools. He examined some of the classes in their various exercises and complimented the pupils on their efficiency and the Brothers on their zeal and ability as teachers. The short and eloquent address he made was taken in a very accurate manner by the class in stenography and Sir Henry retained some of the typewritten copies of the boys' work. Sir Henry Lewis is an ardent Home Ruler, and a personal friend of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the world-famed Lloyd George.

Personal.

Rev. Dr. Kitchen, who was on a health trip, returned by the s.s. Florizel, yesterday.
Mr. N. and Mrs. Outerbridge were passengers from Halifax by the Florizel, yesterday.
Mr. R. G. and Mrs. Reid arrived here by the Bruce express yesterday, after having spent the better part of the winter in the old country. Mr. Reid and his wife were at the launching of the s.s. Kyle.

OBITUARY.—There died recently at Quinon, after a short illness, an old and respected resident of the place in the person of Mr. Josiah Taylor. The deceased was a popular and successful fisherman and was esteemed and respected by all who knew him.
