Advertisement for 'Ordination at Petty Hr.' Rev. W. E. R. Cracknell, Curate of St. Thomas's, was advanced to the Priesthood yesterday. The ceremony took place at St. Andrew's Church, Petty Harbor, and was performed by the Lord Bishop who was assisted in the laying of hands by Rev. Canons Smith, White, Bolt; Rev. J. Hewitt, Incumbent of St. Andrew's, Revs. C. H. Barton, Principal of Queen's College, and H. J. Leggo, Rev. Canon Bolt, who was preacher and examining Chaplain, presented the candidate. The Bishop's Chaplain was Rev. Mr. Leggo. There was a large congregation present, and Miss Hewitt presided at the organ. After the service the clergy and visitors were entertained at St. Andrew's Hall where the Women's Association had provided an excellent repast. Owing to Rev. Mr. Hewitt leaving for the city to officiate at a wedding, Rev. Canon Bolt, on behalf of the ladies, extended a cordial welcome to the clergy and visitors. The Lord Bishop made a fitting response, intimated how pleased he was to conduct an Ordination Service at St. Andrew's and expressed himself as gratified for the association for their kind welcome. Brief speeches by Revs. Smith, White, Barton and Leggo followed, after which return to town was made.
