ASQUITH WILL GO TO DUBLIN.
LONDON, May 11. Premier Asquith announced in the Commons this afternoon that he felt it his duty to go to Dublin to-day. Asquith said that he would leave for Dublin within a few hours. His trip, he explained, would not be made with the intention of superseding the executive authorities, but for the purpose of consulting with the military authorities on the first hand, and arriving at some arrangement for the future which would commend itself to Irishmen of all parties and to parliament. He added that the present government of Ireland was in an anomalous and unsatisfactory position which could not continue.

SUGGESTS IRISH BRIGADE.
LONDON, May 11. The Daily Mail suggests that an Irish Brigade in which some rebels might be included, be formed to cooperate with the French Army. The suggestion is enthusiastically supported by the Nationalists, but some of the leaders fear that an appeal for recruits would not bring great response. Another suggestion is that an Irish Brigade be formed to serve in South East Africa.

IRELAND DUPED.
LONDON, May 11. In his remarks about the Irish uprising, Mr. Samuel said it was a foolish rebellion because its leaders rashly put faith in German aid. He continued: "I believe when the full history of the rebellion comes to be written, it will be found that nothing has been so significant in this crisis as the manner in which the German Government betrayed those whom they had duped. Undoubtedly the leaders of the revolt anticipated substantial aid from those whom they called their Continental Allies."

COMMISSION TO INVESTIGATE.
LONDON, May 11. Announcement was made to-day of the appointment of a Royal Commission to investigate the Irish rebellion. The members of the Commission are Baron Hardinge, former Viceroy of India, Justice Sir Montague Spearman, and Sir Mackenzie Chalmers, former permanent Under Secretary of State for the Home Department.

LORD LIEUT. OF IRELAND RESIGNS.
LONDON, May 11. The Marquis of Creve announced in the Lords to-day that Baron Wimborne, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, had resigned.

DEMAND INVESTIGATION.
LONDON, May 11. At a meeting of the Irish Parliamentary Party in the Commons to-day the following resolution was passed unanimously: "That any inquiry into the Irish situation must, if it is to be of any value, and satisfactory to the public of Ireland, be conducted on the following conditions: the personnel of the commission must be in touch with and satisfy the public of its impartiality and capacity to conduct the inquiry effectively, without favor. The terms of reference must allow full investigation into all the circumstances which led up to the Irish rebellion, the sections of the people of Ireland, the recent insurrectionary outbreak, the nature and extent of the outbreak, the fitness of the present form of executive in Ireland to deal with such troubles, and the actual steps taken by the Irish executive during the last three years to deal with conditions which led up to the outbreak, as well as the outbreak itself."

CIVILIAN CASUALTIES.
LONDON, May 11. The number of casualties among civilians in the uprising in Ireland up to May given by Mr. Asquith in the Commons to-day is 180 killed and 614 wounded. Mr. Asquith added that the police were prepared a list of killed and wounded, so that there might be additions to the total as given by him. It had been found impossible, he said, to separate the names of insurgents who were killed or wounded, from those of other civilians.

DILLON'S RESOLUTION.
LONDON, May 11. The text of the resolution presented in the Commons to-day by John Dillon is as follows: "That in the interests of peace and good government in Ireland, it is vitally important that the government should make immediately a full statement of their intentions as to continuance of executions on the execution of martial law; as to continuance of martial law, military rule, searches, and arrests now going on in various districts of the country." Dillon's motion was voted down without division. In speaking on his resolution in the Commons, Dillon referred to the execution of Thos. Kent, County Cork, saying it looked as though there was a roving commission to carry out these horrible executions. To-day Tennant has announced that there had been fourteen executions, he continued, although the previous figure was twelve. He asked what people were to believe, and added that it was no wonder that many viewed the matter with gravest concern, lest another execution had been held back from the Premier, and might be brought to light later. Dillon said he drafted the resolution in order to confine the discussion to the narrow but important issue of military executions and the continuance of martial law. He complained that Premier Asquith was kept in the dark by the military authorities as to what was going on in Dublin and they are embittering the people. Mr. Tennant said, two others have been sentenced to death but the sentences had not been carried out. The number being deported from Ireland was given as 1,796. These have not yet been tried and are still in the United Kingdom.

PROTEST OF THE LORDS.
LONDON, May 11. The Lords adopted a resolution by Lord Loreburn expressing dissatisfaction with the administration of Irish affairs. There was no division.

GERMANY'S NEW NOTE.
WASHINGTON, May 11. Germany's new note acknowledging responsibility for the destruction of the Sussex, promising reparation, and announcing punishment of the submarine commander, was received late to-day at the State Department from Ambassador Gerard. The text of the note, made public, reveals that Germany, while contending that the submarine commander acted in the bona fide belief that he was facing an enemy warship when he torpedoed the Sussex; nevertheless it says that he formed his judgment too hastily, and did not act in strict accordance with the instructions of the Imperial Government, and therefore frankly admits that the assurances given to the United States were not adhered to in this instance. The note expresses "sincere regret regarding the deplorable incident," and declares Germany's readiness to pay adequate indemnity to injured American citizens. It says the German Government "disapproves the conduct of the commander, who has been appropriately punished," and voices the hope that the United States will consider the case settled.

TORPEDED WITHOUT WARNING.
LONDON, May 11. Thirty-seven unarmed British merchantmen and 22 neutral vessels were torpedoed without warning between May 7, 1915 and May 7, 1916. Thomas J. McNamara, Financial Secretary of the Admiralty said in the Commons to-day. He added that he understood these figures were known to the American Government.

MIGHT MAKE ENQUIRIES.
WASHINGTON, May 11. Secretary Lansing indicated to-day that the United States might make enquiries of the German Government regarding the punishment imposed upon the commander of the submarine that sank the steamer Sussex.

ALBANIA ATTACKED.
ATHENS, May 11. Prince Albert, of Serbia, will remain in Corfu, for the present with the general staff of the reorganized Serbian army. Serbia has purchased a second destroyer, as well as a transport for the new Serbian fleet. Sharp fighting has taken place north of Valona, which is apparently a signal that the Austrians have commenced their long-delayed offensive against the Italians and Serbians in Albania.

EXPLOSION CAUSE FIRE.
NORFOLK, Va., May 11. Twenty-six negroes, all women and children except one, perished in a fire which destroyed a Motion Picture theatre after a gasoline explosion at Walleston near here. Twenty were injured.

FIRST CLASS MAIL TAKEN OFF.
BERLIN, May 11. A despatch from Copenhagen to the Overseas News Agency says that all first class mail from the United States on the Norwegian steamer Kristianiafjord and the Danish steamer Relligolar was taken off by the British authorities recently at Kirkwall.

TALKING PEACE.
NEW YORK, May 11. In response to an appeal from the Netherland anti-war council meeting, which will be considered a proposal that President Wilson be urged to promote a conference of neutral nations to offer mediation in the European war, a meeting will be called soon in this country. This was announced to-day by Hamilton Holt, Chairman of the American branch of the central organization for durable peace, the recipient of the appeal from the Dutch Council. According to Holt this indicates the belief by many persons in the Netherlands, that Emperor William through Germany's reply to the American note on the submarine controversy has made an indirect bid for peace.

RUSSIAN MONK ASSASSINATED.
BERLIN, May 11. Gregory Rapulin, the Russian monk reputed to have exercised great influence over Emperor Nicholas, has been assassinated, according to reports from Petrograd received at Bucharest.
