

Madame A. Lariviere of Fall for three years, and had treatment from several doctors, all of whom gave up the ease. "Finally," she Zam-Buk, which I did, and fer advised me to go into a hospital. which I have ever since been thankful. I very soon felt some ralief. and perseverance with Zam-Buk Zam-Buk instead, and in two

SEVERE CUT HEALED

Mr. C. Oakley of Saskatoon, who River, Mass., suffered with ecrema sustained a terrible ont on his leg, says: "Hell I known of Zam-Buk when the accident occurred. I could axys, "I went to a specialist, have saved myself a $40 doctor's him which cost me snother $20, but I bill! A doctor sewed up the cut "A friend advised me to try but the wound did not heal, and he

"I objected, however, and used completely rid me of the disease." weeks' time was back at work."

SAVED OPERATION

"Father developed a painful sore on his face," writes Miss N. Lewis of Silver Lake, Oregon. "Numerous remedies and treatment from several doctors failed

For Her Sake:

Wood.

CHAPTER XVII.

interrupted what would have been a urally into her place as guest and as "and I have won the victory. I have scene; but she was grace and suavity a person of secondary importance, conquered myself; but it has cost me itself-a contrast to the pale serrow- while she had taken her standing as dear."

"My dear Diana, welcome," she said keep it. kindlier had they not had such an arti- room," said Lady Cameron. ficial ring-"welcome!" she repeated.

ed Diana.

and she felt that here she had no one | thousand miles apart. in whom she could confide, or to whom she could look for comfort.

did not dwell with eager fondness on to be the only one sacred to her. him, as they would once have done. "He looks well," she answered, briefly; "he is sun burned." Lady Cameron smiled.

"How have you left all at Ferness?"

she asked. The words were very simple; but there was something in the tone that little ashamed that her master's own hers now. Diana was quick to resent it.

"I left all well and bright," the answered-"very different from this." The two looked at each other, and you send my maid to me?" there could be no doubt as to the feeling existing between them. Sir forgotten by Diana, and, though Lady was to attend upon you." Cameron made an effort to conceal

"Yes, this place must look small

"Would you like any refreshment?" longer. asked Lady Cameron-"wine, soup, or

Her husband felt that it would have life was broken; her father would "I did not know that you had arrived, been much kinder had she offered to never be the same to her again. or I would have been with you be- do so herself, while Diana cared but little, provided only she might get "I am quite well, but tired," answer- away. Her sense of desolation, of bit- see the pretty rosy face of her maid. She longed to be alone; the check- was almost more than she could bear. tered. There was an unmistakable ed tears were burning into her heart, She and her father already seemed a frown on her face, the smile she gen-

"I can believe that," said Lady Cam- her wages had been doubled, and her | weeping. eron. "You shall go to your room. How boxes filled with dresses. Diana foldo you think your father is looking?" lowed her to the room which for the at the tear stained face.

the room down-stairs is kept for visit-

The woman looked and felt just a seemed to imply that Ferness was daughter, the heiress of Ferness, said at length. should have the worst sleeping room

Diana was haughtily indifferent. "It matters little," she said. "Will Flowers looked up in surprise. "Have you brought your maid?" she

"You will find Susanne here; be

Diana would not discuss any sub-

When You

Can't Sleep

nervous depression are sometimes caused by overwork and worry, but more often by disorders of the stomach and the bowels. Abbey's

"It does indeed," declared Diana. possible to restrain her tears much

Then came five minutes' reprieve-"I should like some tea," returned during that interval the overcharged The Murder in Furness Diana, promptly, "but not here; let it heart burst forth in a violent agony of grief. The heiress threw aside her hat "I will order it at once," said Lady and cloak and knelt down by the lit-

She felt that everything was going "This is the first time I have done Her quick instinct told her she had fairly well, that Diana had fallen nat- real battle with myself," she thought, mistress of the house, and intended to All the hidden pain, the shattered love, all the misery that reigned su--and the words would have seemed "My maid shall see you to your preme in her heart found vent in that torrent of bitter tears. The idol of her

> There was a knock at the door. "Come in," said Diana, expecting to But it was Lady Cameron who en-

Lady Cameron looked for a moment

"I am sorry to see you in such trou-"It is not a very comfortable look- I hope you have not come here to ed her ample food for contemplation. ing apartment, miss," said Flowers, make any scenes. We are all very hap- No one knew how she shrunk from "but it is the only one available. The py and comfortable, and I do not wish meeting "those Scarsdale girls," as but stood calmly waiting.

"Yes," replied Lady Cameron; and "Most certainly," was the brief re- much of them."

Royal's lectures and admonitions were asked. "I understood my lady that I my permission. It is most inconveni- girls. Diana went down to the draw-

"I think you might do so now, when meet her. phasize to the fullest her position of your journey." mistress.

part with my maid."

"My daughters can do very well without one," said Lady Cameron. tween Thea and her mother and sister. "Most probably," answered Diana; but that does not concern me."

do," sneered Lady Cameron. "I do not intend to try," replied arms round Diana's neck.

Diana. Her ladship, finding her words vain, transferred TRACESUSTER CON LOCAL room for all your dresses?" "You need not unpack many of them. Fashion usanne," said Miss Cameron.

THE REST OF THE PARTY OF THE PA

was cold and unpalatable—even in this small matter Diana felt that she was neglected. Then a servant-maid came with a message to say that when Miss Cameron was rested, Mr Cameron would be glad to see her. "Now for my armour of strength," said Diana to herself; "now for my

She summoned to her aid all the good resolutions she had made, she called to mind all that Sir Royal had said to her on the subject of pride, and then she went down to her father. "My darling," he said-his face and voice were as kind as ever-"I thought you were never coming, and I am longing to hear all about Ferness. Come and talk to me."

econd battle with myself."

upon his knee, and his hands smoothed the fair ripples of hair as they had been wont to do. He asked the mist minute questions about Ferness, and then he told her of many of the incida reprieve from dissimulation—and er be bridged over. She could not help thinking that she was talking more to Lady Cameron's husband than to her 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust own father. She found herself watch- measure. Size 38 requires 41/2 yards ing her words as she had never done

Suddenly he looked down at her. "Diana," he said, hurriedly, "was

"Papa," she answered slowly, "it ed my life."

ship's voice at the door. "Mr. Oczneron," she continued, advancing into the room, "I want to speak to you for a few minutes about the new carriages ordered from Payne's."

Diana rose and quitted the room.

CHAPTER XVIII. ing him all that had passed-of her erally wore had vanished. Diana struggle with her pride and her vic-Flowers quickly appeared, looking sprung to her feet, annoyed and irtory over herself. Then she began her ritated because she had been found tollet The small rooms, the close atvery good-tempered and prosperous- ritated because she had been found tollet. The small rooms, the close atmosphere, the continual noise-for every sound could be heard throughout the house—the want of accommodation, the knowledge that she was ble," she said, coldly. "Excuse me, but with people who disliked her, afford-"May I ask what you require?" she perhaps for many years they were to the frown deepened on her face. "I "courage! We must be close togetherhave brought your maid with you?" plenty of room, and I need not see in silver or 1c. and 2c. stamps.

The meeting was commonplace "You should have written to ask enough, but characteristic of the three ent. I have really no sleeping accom- ing-room, where the sisters awaited Size modation for her. She must go back her. Happily for the family peace, her chagrin, undying hate could be good enough to send her to me," she to Ferness; we are quite crowded there were several guests present who had been invited to dinner-indeed "If she goes, I too shall return to Lady Camron feared to risk a family wanted to be alone, for she felt it im- been accustomed to manage without looking stately and lovely as a young queen, the elder sister advanced to said Lady Cameron, determined to em- Thea. "I hope you are not tired after "

She did not feel particularly pleased sufficient accommodation, I should not anything that she did not feel; and have come; but I decidedly decline to it was this habit of never sacrificing truth on the altar of hypocrisy which Diana made some indifferent reply; and then Evadne, a vision of dainty "What they can do you can surely loveliness in her dress of white and blue, came forward and flung both said. "I was longing to see you. I delighted," she said, "that everything

Plates

A SULENDID DRESS IN ONE-PIECE STYLE.

2980-As here shown, serge and satin are combined. The design would of the polling districts fixed by also be good for crepe de chine and the Proclamation of His Excelsatin. Black satin and velvet with a lency, dated the 29th day of the ed as if they were once more united bit of color used as piping, would heart to heart; yet Diana felt that be- be nice. Taupe gabardine with old tween them lay a gulf that could nev- blue, is effective, or serge with braidyard at the foot.

> The Pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, of 40-inch material.

> A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or 1c. and 2c. stamps.

SIMPLE FROCK FOR THE LITTLE in the year 1919. MISS.

young ladies have the front room, and for any exhibitions of weeping and Lady Colwyn styled them. She would cale or lawn for this style, or, check-Division, on the 24th day of the have given anything to avoid them. It ed or plaid suiting. An attractive ef- month of October, from 10 a.m. To this Diana vouchsafed no reply, was more intolerable still to remem- feet is gained by cutting waist and until 2 of the clock in the afterdental work than we charge you are The Pattern is cut in 5 Sizes: 2, 4, them in the General Assembly

6, 8 and 10 years. Size 6 requires 21/2 of Newfoundland; and that in yards of 36 inch material. A pattern of this illustration mail-allowed in the manner of law wish to know if it is true that you here; but at Ferness there will be ed to any address on receipt of 10c. prescribed, such poll will be Jawellery, Plate and Watches, Photographic and Optical Goods, Provisiont and Oilmen's Stores, etc., etc., commission 2½ p.c. to 8 p.c. Trade Discounte allowed.

Specia' Quotatious on Demand.
Consignments of Produce Sold

Electoral District of St. John's, Western Division. To Wit. PUBLIC NOTICE is hereby given to the electors of the Elecoral Division aforesaid, that in bedience to His Majesty's Writ to me directed and bearing date the sixth day of October, 1919, I require the presence of the said electors at Buchannar said electors at Buchannan Street School Room, in the district of St. John's, Western Division, on the 24th day of the noon, for the purpose of nominating persons to represent case a poll be demanded and allowed in the manner of law prescribed, such poll will opened on the 3rd day of the month of November, in the year 1919, from the hours of eight in the morning until eight of the clock in the afternoon, in such month of September in the year 1919.

blue, is effective, or serge with braid-ing. The dress measures about 14 channan Street School Room I shall open the Ballot Boxes, count the votes given for the several candidates and return as elected the persons having the majority of votes, of which all persons are hereby required to take notice and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my hand at St. John's, this 10th day of October,

FRANCIS J. DOYLE.

Dental Parlors

toral Division aforesaid, that in bedience to His Majesty's Writ to me directed and bearing date the sixth day of October, 1919. I require the presence of the said electors at the C. C. C. Hall opened on the 3rd day of the month of November, in the year 1919, from the hours of eight in the morning until eight of the clock in the afternoon, in such of the polling districts fixed by the Proclamation of His Excellency, dated the 29th day of the month of September in the year

And further, that at the C. C. C. Hall (Mechanics' Building) I shall open the Ballot Boxes, count the votes given for the several candidates and return as elected the persons having the majority of votes, of which all persons are hereby required to take notice and govern them-Given under my hand at St. John's, this 10th day of October, in the year 1919. JOHN B. WADLAND. Returning Officer. oct13,14,17,21,23

Insure with the Newfoundland. Every satisfaction given in settling losses. Office: 167 Water Street.

Dr. A. B. Lehr. Dentist. 203 Water Street.

> This is the Old Reliable Office. Established 27 years.

PYORRHEA. Of all the poison taken into the blood, the germs and pus contributed dseased gums (Pyorrhea) are month of October, from 10 a.m. the most destructive to the human until 2 of the clock i. the after-forced to fight against numbers of them in the General Assembly of Newfoundland; and that in case a poll be demanded and reventually you are an invalid. Kidney, stomach, heart trouble, rheumatism and many other diseases are brought on by diseased gums and > Commercial Union Assurance Co'y.

Limited,

Fire Insurance. Risks Accepted at Lowest Rates. Prompt

H. J. STABB & CO..

Settlements.

The Maritime

The Home of Good Dentistry. Free examination, advice and exact stimate of putting your teeth in per-ect condition. This is a day of speialists. If you intend getting false teeth made, or if you are wearing teeth that are unsatisfactory, why not noon, for the purpose of nomi-nating persons to represent exist. All branches of dental work

Full Upper or Lower Sets, $12.00 and $15.00 Painless Extraction 50c.

M. S. POWER, D.D.S. (Graduate of Philadelphia Dental College, Garretson Hospital of Oral Surgery, and Philadelphia General Hospital.)

176 WATER STREET. (Opp. M. Chaplin.) jan15,tu,th.s.tf

Grove Hill Bulletin TOMATOES!

CUT FLOWERS. LETTUCE, PARSLEY.

WREATHS & CROSSES at shortest notice.

WEDDING BOQUETS.

J. McNeil. Waterford Bridge Road.

NOTICE.

The public are reminded that all Births which occur in the City of St. John's must be reported within TWO DAYS to the Registrar General, 268 Duckworth Street, upon cards which may be precured at any Post Office or Postal Telegraph Office in the City. The penalty ffice in the City. The per

"The right PAINT to MEANS: Less frequent pai Paint can be applied

For Sale by Al

Ontario to Ha an

Canadian Shippin leased Gradua Troops Have Le

UNDER NEW ORDERS.

LONDON, Oct. 13. The British Socialist party has decided by an overwhelming majority Kerr, to join the third communist International, established at Moscow and to motor sever connections with the old International Socialists Bureau.

NOMINATION DAY IN ONTARIO.

TORONTO, Oct. 13. and This was nomination day for the has provincial elections of Ontario. Poll- ther ing will be on October twentieth.

RESOLUTIONS IN IRELAND. LONDON, Oct. 13. The Belfast Correspondent of the Morning Post devotes half a column ed th to resolutions sent by the Canadian the Uleter Unionist League adding that the ions Vister Unionists are quietly perfect- Cana ing their organization. Meanwhile the Correspondent says the Govern- altho ment is still pondering on the sedition | before mongers. Dublin Castle issues an offi-tende cial return of outrages attributed to alize the Sinn Feimers from May 1916 to September 1919 showing 1293 outrages including sixteen murders the victims in fourteen cases being soldiers, pol-or officers.

LONDON, Oct. 13. It is officially announced that the bered last British troops left Murmansk

ON THE LAST LAP. GREENSPORT L.I., NEW YORK. ies in The Handley Page Bomber "Atlanthe" left here 11.20 a.m. to resume in the ginni

of the States

tion their public delive

upon;

sociat

of the

International League

of Liberty. St. John's Nfld., whose the ra

October 11th, 1919. Bir,-The Government of the Republic of Cuba have forwarded me the enclosed copy of an Act passed by the Congress of Cuba, relative to the creation of an International League for caring for War Orphans, and I should feel obliged if you would publich it for general information. I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant. R. J. DEVEREUX. Consul for the Republic of Cuba.

to sai To The Editor. Arti Evening Telegram, shall City. the F Article 1.-The Executive Power is the as hereby authorized to propose, in the called name of the Republic of Cuba, to all erty," the Powers allied in the war against those the Central Powers of Europe and to liberty those that severed their diplomatic is an relations with them, that, on occasion the sa seld in Paris, they appointed plenipo- lives tentiaries to meet in that city, if the Arti covernment of the French Republic is like 1000000000000000000 EX S. S. TAUNT of the peace conference about to be those

"JONATHAN" in boxes of 163 Co NICE SIZE FOR RET MOIR'S AGAIN. Calif Our depleted stock of Moir's renewed again in Calif

5 lb. XXX boxes Cheries, etc. 1/2 lb. & 1 lb. box Regular As-36 & 1 lb. box Nut and Hard.
Assorted Kisses and "You Kid" Caramels.
Butter Scotch and Lellies in

Cran

Pre-

withdrew in a not very amiable mood. know we should remain friends." It Then came Susanne. She looked was a Judas kiss that she pressed on round the little stuffy room in dis- Diana's proud face. "I am so glad, so miss," she cried, "is this for has turned out so pleasantly! How J. B. ORR COMPANY, Limited, St. John's, you? Why, it is not so large as a cup- happy we shall all be together at dear Distributors for Newfoundland. board at home! Where shall I find Ferness!"

And the maid, puzzled and anxious egan her work, taking out only such stumes as she believed would be cessary for present requirements. For more than an hour Diana sat in the room with naught but her sad thoughts to keep her company. The cup of tea was brought to her, but it

She drew a little footstool to his feet and sat down. She laid her head before with him.

my marriage a shock to you?" has broken my heart and utterly ruin-"What a tableau!" cried her 'ady-

Before dressing for dinner Diana wrote a long letter to Sir Royal, tell-

"Courage," said Diana to herself-you know that it inconveniences me," "You have reached us safely," naid

"I am serry to disturb you," replied to see Diana, and she did not say so. Diana. "If I had known there was not Thea seldom took the trouble to say caused so many little ruptures be-

"I am so glad you have come!" she ished in wrist or elbow length.

Wholesale indents promptly executed at lewest cash prices for all British and Continental goods, including Books and Stationery,
Boots, Shoes and Leather,
Chemicals and Drugglsts' Sundries China, Earthenware and Glassware Cycles, Motor Cars and Accessories Drapery, Millinery and Piece Goods Sample Cases from $50 upwards.
Fancy Goods and Perfumery, Hardware, Machinery and Motal,

the Company having the largest number of Policy Holders in Adrain Bldg. P. O. Box 782. Telephone 658. QUEEN INS. CO.,

GEORGE H. HALLEY

Moir's Slab Cake—Sultana &

Dackworth Street and Qu