Who Owns Labrador?

The "Canucks" would have us to bundle and go.
 AIR: "Dark Loch Na Gae"
 Oh, can't it be true, all the things which they tell us,
 That we to the Labrador haven't no claim,
 Of our right to that shore the Canadians are jealous
 For they say that it's only existing in name.
 What a daring assertion; by it we are staggered,
 But we will demand them to thoroughly know
 That old Terra Nova was never a league,
 For her right she will fight e'er she'll bundle and go.
 We had mourned in the days when our land was divided,
 When France had been given her best spots of yore;
 But we stuck to our claim, and by Providence guided,
 We were given our right to control the French Shore.
 To-day we're determined to have all decision,
 No matter from whatever source it may flow;
 And united as one now we give our decision,
 For our right we will fight e'er we bundle and go.
 Bram Thompson has tendered a daring opinion,
 As by it all we claim he would suddenly wreck;
 What presumption to tell this old loyal Dominion
 That the Labrador shore 'tis all owned by Quebec.
 With imbeciles does he imagine he's dealing,
 Does he think we're outdone by so silly a blow?
 The "Canucks" don't know the full bent of our feeling,
 If they think we'll get up with our bundle and go.
 "Oh, shades of the dead do we not hear your voices"
 Coming down through the aisles of the years ye tolled there;
 Ye bid us be firm, to oppose all devices,
 When our rights are at stake without favor or fear.
 The toll ye performed and your grit will inspire us
 To stand firm and strong 'gainst the enemy's blow;
 And that we will do, for we are not desirous
 That we should get up with our bundle and go.
 TERRA NOVA,
 St. John's, Nov. 2, 1921.

Prince Opens Maltese Parliament.

Lady Laurier Passes Away at Ottawa--World's Millions Must be the First Thought--Collier's Strike May Result From Wage Cut.

MALTA SELF-GOVERNING. MALTA, Nov. 1. The Prince of Wales, on his way to visit the battle cruiser Renown, opened the new Maltese Parliament today. The event marks the introduction of Government in Malta based on the principle of responsible self-government, subject to definite limitations laid down in the interest of imperial security. The main principle is the establishment of two concurrent governmental systems, one for local affairs under complete legislative and administrative control of the Maltese people, and another for matters of imperial concern, taking orders from the Imperial Government.

DEATH OF LADY LAURIER. OTTAWA, Nov. 1. Lady Laurier, widow of the late Sir Wilfrid Laurier, died at her home here today. She caught a chill while out walking. No family survives.

At the Pilgrims' Society dinner last night a message was read from Mr. Boyd George expressing the hope that he would be able to attend the Washington Conference, and declaring the world owed a debt of gratitude to President Harding for summoning the conference. INDIANAPOLIS COAL STRIKE LOOMING. INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1. A general strike of coal miners in the United States seemed inevitable to-night if the operators heed the injunction issued by Federal Judge A. B. Anderson, which prescribed "check off" of union dues. A telegram sent late to-day from headquarters of United Mine Workers of America, after it had been definitely learned that the injunction was not yet in effect, advised Union officials to regard discontinuance of the "check off" as breaking the existing wage agreement.

SYDNEY MINERS' WAGE CUT. SYDNEY, Nov. 1. Formal notice of the intention to reduce wages of 12,000 coal miners of Nova Scotia, when the Montreal agreement expired on November 30th, was served to-day by the principal operators of the province, upon J. B. McLachlan, Secretary-Treasurer of the United Mine Workers of America, District 26, which includes practically all the mine workers of the Maritime Provinces. The miners have already expressed their intention of resisting any wage cut to the last ditch.

MILK DRIVERS STRIKE. NEW YORK, Nov. 1. The first-born sons being thus sent into the Church, as we should say in this country, the second sons become the heads of the families and perform the religious rites of his faith. Unlike some other semi-civilized races, the young Tibetans have the right to choosing their own wives. A Tibetan girl, too, cannot be married off by her parents without her own consent. The curious custom in regard to the eldest sons results, of course, in nearly every Tibetan family acquiring the odour of sanctity by numbering a monk among its members.
