

New Publications.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE:—This sterling old periodical is to hand for August. Good as it has always been, it has evidently improved considerably of late, and is certainly doing its best to regain its pristine vigour.

THE ATLANTIC MONTHLY.—The September number of this favorite of the American periodicals has been received from the publishers Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, Boston.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—The September number of this favorite of the little people has been received from Messrs. Ticknor & Fields, Boston. It has a number of very interesting articles and stories adapted to the comprehension of juvenile readers.

THE YOUNG ARTIST.—Messrs. Nordheim & Co., Toronto, have sent us a new piece of music, a Swiss air, which is one of a collection of beautiful melodies arranged for the piano forte, by Woodlawn.

A CRUEL SENTENCE.—A few days since an unfortunate woman was passing by a field from which a splendid crop of wheat had just been carried, and seeing a few cars lying on the ground she ventured to pick them up.

FUNERALS.—The facts of the case having been stated and the prisoner having made known her defence, those worthies laid their heads together, and after a short deliberation between themselves and the clerk (very appropriately named Sharp) they condemned the prisoner of wheat cars to seven days imprisonment.
