RE-PUBLICATION OF THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW,

THE above Periodicals are re-printed in New York, in a clear beautiful type, on fine white paper, and are faithful copies of the originals—Blackwood's Mugazine being an exact fac-simile of the Edinburgh edition.

The wide-spread fame of these spleudid periodicals renders it needless to say much in their praise. As literary organs, they stand far in advance of any works of a similar stamp now published, while the political complexion of each is marked by a dignity, candour and forbearance

They embrace the views of the three great parties in England: Whig, Tory, and Radical. Blackwood and the London Quarterly are Tory; the Edinburgh Review Whig; and the Westminister Radical. The Foreign Quarterly is purely literary, being devoted to criticisms on foreign Continental Works. ontinental Works.

The prices of the Re-prints are less than one-third of those of the foreign copies, and while they are equally well got up, they afford all that advantage to the Ameri-can over the English reader.

collisions have taken place with the military. The lent letter from Lord French, which concludes in the following terms :-clubs in Paris are, however, more tranquil.

It appears that M. Garnfer Pages is still the Finance Minister, M. Fould having declined to accept that post. The Bank of France has been authorized to issue potes to the amount of 1000 authonised to issue notes to the amount of 1000 millions of francs, and smaller notes than even 50 journal. We have afforded to the nations of the earth jeopardising its interests in high places. Our emergencies grow too serious for legislation to be any longer the mere plaything or privilege of the aristocracy. They have heaped the burden on our backs; we need other hands to lighten it.
