FLURRIES.

Toronto, Nov. 18.—11 p.m.—During shallow depression is situated over the lower lake region.

for the next 24 hours for the lower lakes region (covering the peninsula and as far east as Belleville) are: Strong winds or moderate gales, westerly to northwesterly; fair and considerably colder; local light snow falls or flurries.

—Wm. Wallace, Geo. Millar and Charles Robinson, three tramps, gaolred Magistrate Lacey's court on Saturday afternoon.

Wallace was charged with breaking and entering in the house of a woman living in London West. He told the court that he allowed to go he would walk half way to Sarnia before dark. Squire Lacey discharged him, and when last seen he was endeavoring to keep his promise.
Miller and Robinson came from Hamilton and trespassed on the premises of Squire Lacey in London township. They pleaded hard for liberty, and it was given them on condition that they would get out of town in an hour.

—The following press dispatch from New York, dated Saturday, has been received:
"Rev. Timothy O'Connell, formerly an Anglican clergyman in London, Ont., Ireland and elsewhere, is held in $500 bail for trial tomorrow on a charge of criminally seducing a 10-year-old girl. O'Connell is 45 years old and a fluent speaker. He is smoothly shaven and his hair is slightly gray. He says he was educated in Trinity College, Dublin. He says he is a Royal Arch Mason. He severed his connection with the Episcopal Church some time ago and joined the Baptists."

—The following appears in the De Land, Florida, Weekly News: "The numerous friends of Rev. H. C. Speller will regret to learn that he has resigned as pastor of the First Baptist Church in De Land, the resignation to take effect Jan. 31, 1895.
Mr. Speller is one of the most popular men who have ever graced the pulpit of any De Land church—popular with all classes, in all denominations as well as his own, and his many warm friends will regret to lose him. He is a fluent speaker, his words are well chosen and forcibly delivered, and he has made numerous converts during his two years' work as pastor of the De Land church. The best wishes of all will follow him to his new field of labor, wherever it may please his Master to send him."

The Burglar Tonight.

A play somewhat different from the usual order of dramatic offering will be seen at the Grand tonight. Probably no other drama of the kind has the potency in drawing from all classes and conditions of people that is experienced by "The Burglar." Young and old, rich, and those less favored with the world's goods, are equally absorbed with the story. In a home of wealth and refinement are all the scenes enacted, even where the burglary is attempted, though frustrated by the art-less endeavors of a bright child of 6 years.

and Mr. Abel, to overtake him, cut Wharfedale highway. When he was a short distance east of the big wooden bridge, Mr. Abel was surprised by discovering the body of a man, ap-
