

Take Care of the Children.

At this time of the year every mother should jealously watch the health of her children. At the first sign of a cough or cold she should adopt measures to break it up, for it is the precursor of much more acute and dangerous complications—such as Whooping Cough or Croup—perhaps even Consumption—these surely follow in the train of neglected colds. The enervating influences of summer leave a child's system weakened—it needs toning up and invigorating, the blood is thin and ought to be enriched, the whole body requires vitalizing. For more than half a century the best known agent for this purpose has been Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure. It is a never failing remedy. It has rebuilt and strengthened more enfeebled constitutions than any other medicine during that long period. It is guaranteed to bring these great results—if it fails to do so, the purchase money will be refunded in full. Read the opinion of Betsy Forbes, an old lady, whose grand-children owe their lives to Shiloh's Cure.

When taken in time Cures Croup in a night.

She writes:

"Never shall I forget the agony I experienced that night, when little Tommy was taken with the Croup. It was midnight and snowing. Our house was a mile from the nearest village. I had no one to send for the doctor, as I had given Tom nearly a bottleful of syrup of ipecac, without effect. He was suffocating. Frantic with fear I pulled him out of bed, and, as a last resource, made him turn round and round. In fact, I whirled him until he grew nauseated and suddenly threw up a quantity of mucus. His life was saved! With dear old SHILOH at hand, nowadays, we have no such terrible scenes to contend with, for it prevents them."

Sold in Canada and United States, 25c., 50c. and $1. a bottle; in England, 1s 2d, 2s 3d and 4s 6d.

FOLLOWING UP A STIFF FIGHT

the admiralty, when distributing prizes to volunteers and riflemen in London last night, said: "The possession of 250,000 volunteers will be regarded by the country, I am sure, as a great element of security, and I am confident that they are all prepared to do their duty. In the colonies they are prepared to do their share, and Canada and Australia are to the fore, welcoming the opportunity to go to the front." (Enthusiastic cheering.) After praising the great service of the naval brigade in assisting the troops in South Africa, and testifying to the constant anxiety of naval men to be in the thickest of the fighting, Mr. Goschen said: "It is impossible to grant their desires, even if these soldiers and sailors would be glad to go to the front in thousands, because when 120,000 regulars have left our shores, the responsibilities of the efficiency of our navy will be immensely increased. I believe the preparedness of the navy has contributed essentially to assist Britons to remain calm and silent, despite the black outlook."

EVERY SHIP MUST BE MANNED. "We have not only to look at South Africa, but at the situation and the possibilities all round, and without being an alarmist, I would insist that we must sacrifice to the imperative duty that every ship be fully and properly manned." Mr. Goschen closed with an eloquent tribute to the unanimity of the country in its support of the government in a grave crisis.

DEPENDS ON ARTILLERY. Rear-Admiral Lord Charles Beresford is quoted in an interview as saying: "The issue of the war will depend more upon artillery than anything else, especially at the siege of Pretoria and other places, where the biggest battles are expected. Therefore I urge that all the naval guns which can be spared from the reserves and the other ships be mounted on artillery trails and timber for fire service immediately."

THE QUEEN. London, Dec. 18.—The Queen passed a quiet day at Windsor. She took an airing in the afternoon. It is said her majesty will leave Windsor for Osborne, Isle of Wight, Dec. 22, and Mr. J. Balfour dined with the Queen this evening.

PLENTY OF VOLUNTEERS. There has been a notable rush of volunteers all day to offer their services for the war in South Africa. Several colonels have placed their regiments at the disposal of the war office. About 300 artillery volunteers offered their services in Edinburgh before noon.

TROOPS FROM INDIA. London, Tuesday, Dec. 19.—4.30 a.m.—The war office has been in communication with Gen. Sir William Lockhart, commander-in-chief in India, with a view to ascertaining what troops can be spared from his forces, and it is understood that, as a result of these inquiries, a force will almost immediately leave Bombay for Durban, including four regiments of seasoned troops, with an ammunition column and a brigade of artillery, including horses and field batteries. It is hoped that this force will reinforce Gen. Buller within a month.

America's Friend

IS BRITAIN. New York, Dec. 19.—President J. C. Schurman, of Cornell, discussing "colonial development" at the annual dinner of the Congressional Club, said: "Whether Britain was right or wrong in accepting the gauntlet Kruger threw down, I am not prepared to say, but I do know in the Orient, where we have had dealing with Britain, our cause has been her cause, and in countless ways has assisted in our work and aiding and comforting us. When the British men-of-war were in the Philippines, their commanders were instructed to communicate with the leaders of the insurgents and to show to them the folly of further resistance to American arms. One of the most beneficial results of the Spanish-American war, in my opinion, was the bringing together of the British and American peoples. I sometimes say I am not an imperialist, if by that you mean the hauling down of the flag where it has been justly raised. I believe in upholding the national honor and doing the national duty—all the more so when difficulties beset."

BOER DISCOURTESY. New York, Dec. 19.—The Washington correspondent of the Sun says: "The action of the Boer authorities in granting only part of the concessions requested by this government in behalf of the British prisoners at Pretoria has apparently intensified instead of abating the feeling in official circles here growing against the way the Boer authorities have treated the humanitarian offers of the United States. The attitude of the Boers is regarded here as not only contrary to usage in civilized war, but extremely discourteous to the United States, a neutral nation, which is actuated merely by humanitarian motives in endeavoring to care for the British prisoners. So far as the officials here are able to discover, there is nothing this government may do with propriety to bring about a change in the attitude of the Boers, other than to continue to press for the most favorable treatment for the captured soldiers of the British army."

BUGLE BLASTS. A New York Herald dispatch from Berlin says that the Berlin Tageblatt is informed that the Austrian government is inclined to offer its mediation in the conflict in South Africa.

Public advocacy of Great Britain's side in the South African war by Dr. Andrews, superintendent of public schools in Chicago was the cause of resolutions being introduced in the city council last night calling for his resignation or immediate suspension and removal. The resolutions were referred to the committee on schools.

CANADIANS TO THE FRONT

Great Britain Accepts the Offer for a Second Contingent.

Scores of Highlanders in Canada Ready to Volunteer—Offers Coming in From All Quarters.

Ottawa, Ont., Dec. 19.—Britain has accepted Canada's offer of a second contingent for service in South Africa. It will be dispatched at once. The composition of the force will be probably as follows:

- (1) "A" and "B" Batteries of the permanent corps. Their peace strength is 230 combined, but the full strength is over 300, and they will be brought up to that. They will take 12 guns.
- (2) A force of 300 or more cavalry or mounted infantry, made up from the Northwest Mounted Police and the Royal Canadian Regiment of Cavalry.
- (3) A battalion of infantry, probably 500 strong. This will be made up of volunteers.

Toronto, Dec. 19.—Rev. John Mackie, M.A., of St. Andrew's Church, says a hundred Highlanders are ready in Canada to step into the places of Scotchmen killed in South Africa. Montreal, Dec. 19.—Lieut.-Col. Cooke, of the Prince of Wales' Fusiliers, has again offered the service of his corps to the government in the event of a second Canadian contingent being accepted. Offers for individual enlistment continue to pour into the brigade office.

Halifax, N. S., Dec. 19.—Col. Collard, of the Leicesters, D.O.C. here, says Canada should offer a second contingent, and he hopes to see Canadians tumbling over one another in anxiety to enlist. He admits it possible the Leicesters may be withdrawn, in which event the militia would man the garrison.

ALL WELL AT BELMONT. Quebec, Dec. 19.—Hon. Richard Turner has received the following cable message from his son Albert, who is a private in E. Company, Canadian contingent: "Belmont, Dec. 18.—Well. (Signed) A. Turner."

Mr. Turner considers the dispatch to indicate that not only is his son in good health, but that there is no sickness among the other members of the contingent. The date of the cable, that the regiment was at Belmont on Saturday.

A special memorial service was held on Sunday in St. Andrew's Church in honor of the British soldiers who have been recently killed in the Transvaal.

TORONTO, DEC. 19.—Military officers are enthusiastic over the decision to send a second contingent to the seat of war. Col. Clarence Denison, of the Governor-General's Body Guards, says 83 troopers and 9 officers from the three city squadrons volunteered when the first contingent was organized, and most of them are still available. Capt. Myles, of the Field Battery, said all the officers had volunteered, and trained horses could be found without any trouble to equip the Toronto battery to war strength.

MORE AUSTRALIANS. Melbourne, Dec. 18.—An Australian mounted contingent of 1,000 men will sail for South Africa before Jan. 10. An additional New South Wales battery of artillery is to sail immediately.

A WARNING. London, Dec. 19.—Among politicians it is generally recognized that colonial military help may be a serious alteration of the constitution of the empire. Hon. W. P. Reeves, agent-general of New Zealand, has an article in the Spectator warning against the policy presumably initiated at Toronto of seizing this opportunity to impose upon the colonies some imperial military system. Mr. Reeves argues strongly that just as the offer of military forces is not the result of any constitutional obligation, but a free-will offering, so the colonies must be left to make as freely as possible in future towards a change in the nature of their contributions towards the empire's defense. Mr. Reeves says his view would be generally endorsed by leading statesmen, whose last wish would be to attempt, or seem to attempt, to coerce the colonies.

HOLOCAUST IN NEW YORK

Seven Lives Lost in a Tenement House Fire

Several Persons Believed to Be Fatally Injured.

New York, Dec. 19.—Seven lives were lost in two big tenement houses which were destroyed by fire in this city early today. Five charred bodies were found on the upper floors of a burned tenement at One Hundred and Second street and Third avenue, known as the Mentor, and five women and a little girl, badly burned, were carried alive from the blazing house to near by hospitals. There was thought to be but slight chance of any of the six surviving. Several other persons had escaped from the flames and dense smoke with cuts and bruises.

A SECOND FIRE. A few hours earlier a deadly fire attacked the South African tenement, No. 496 Tenth avenue, near Thirty-eighth street, burning to death a mother and her child. The charred remains of both were found after the fire was put out.

Following are the casualties of the Harlem fire: Dead—John Barrett, Mrs. John Barrett, and a baby (three years old), an unknown woman, probably Miss Annie Farley; Richard Nickerson, of Cincinnati.

Tenth avenue fire: Mrs. Martin Fox and her son George, 2½ years old. Mr. Fox is a hackman, and was not at home all night. These are the only persons missing in the Tenth avenue fire, and no other persons were injured.

The Harlem fire is supposed to have started in the bath. The air shaft and the stairs in the building aided the fire in gaining such rapid headway that there was no successful fighting of the flames, which had gained tremendous headway when the firemen arrived. The firemen did gallant work in rescuing the occupants of the burning tenement, and but for their vigilance the loss of life would have been much larger.

SENSATIONAL REVELATIONS

Regarding the Ville Marie Bank Affairs.

Montreal, Dec. 19.—Ferdinand Lemieux, ex-accountant of the defunct Ville Marie Bank, who had been yesterday on a charge of furnishing a false statement of the bank's affairs to the government, William Weir, ex-treasurer of the bank, and a friend, were sentenced to two years for the same offense, gave some sensational evidence. He testified that it was Lemieux's duty to prepare the monthly report on the government of the bank's financial position. Lemieux first signed these reports; so the directors had signed on the strength of Lemieux's certificate. The book showed that the cash balance had been checked by Lemieux during the four years or so which he had acted as local manager. On Aug. 30, 1898, $21,040 had been taken from the reserve and placed in the teller's cash. This had been done to supply a shortage which had been found in the inside vault. Mr. Lemieux had admitted the shortage, but covered it with notes to the satisfaction of the board of directors. Lemieux had given $26,000 of Bate du Chateau notes to cover the shortage. These notes were considered good at the time. They had not been paid up to the time the bank had closed. The notes had been placed to Mr. Lemieux's credit, and, of course, it balanced. On Nov. 5, 1898, Weir had again examined Teller Herber's cash. Mr. Weir had first told Mr. Lemieux of his intention to examine the cash, and Mr. Lemieux had asked him to wait until the following day. Mr. Weir, however, had said that was against the rules. Lemieux had not then waited for the cash to be counted, as he ought to have done. The cash on that day should have been $218,010; $49,000 had been found, and a memorandum for $173,000, which Herber had told witness was in the vault. The vault had been checked a few days before, and witness knew the money was not there. Meanwhile, Lemieux had gone "on his holidays," having a note that he would be back in time to balance his books at the end of the month. In about a week it was discovered that Lemieux had gone to New York. Witness had gone to New York and seen Lemieux, who had told him that it was absurd that there could be a shortage of $173,000. As a matter of fact, the sum of $173,000 had disappeared, and the bank had had to redeem the notes. Lemieux had returned to Montreal and re-entered the service of the bank, but under different circumstances. He had failed to even effectively explain the shortage at $173,000. That $173,000 must have been in circulation in the sense that it had gone out of the hands of the bank, and would have to be redeemed.

Patriotic Demonstration of Dublin Students.

Chamberlain Gets a Great Reception—The Colonial Secretary Makes a Speech.

THE STOCK MARKET TROUBLE. London, Dec. 19.—An investigation into the causes of the semi-panic on the stock exchange yesterday fails to reveal any substantial reason, aside from the timidity and nervousness of the public in face of the reverses in South Africa. The depreciation was not accompanied by any extensive liquidation, and the causes were mostly in jobbers' quotations. The fall in consols was probably due to the rumors of a new issue to meet the expenses of the war.

CHAMBERLAIN AT DUBLIN. Dublin, Dec. 19.—The honorary degree of Doctor of Laws was conferred on Mr. Joseph Chamberlain at Trinity College yesterday. There was a brilliant assemblage at the ceremony. The under-graduates gathered on the college grounds and sang patriotic songs, and the choir, under the direction of the college choir, sang "God Save the King" and "The Union Jack." The latter was captured by the police, and the procession of the students, who made a demonstration at the Mansion House, where they tore the green corporation flag to shreds.

and caused other damage. The police were forced to intervene, and the students returned to the college in an ugly mood. The students made a desperate effort to recapture the Union Jack, but the police were too strong for them. In the meantime a hostile crowd had assembled in college green, and more stringent measures were taken to keep the students within the gates. Mr. Chamberlain and his wife and Lady Betty Balfour, who were driving to the college, were cheered, but points, but there was a noticeable difference of opinion among the crowds lining the streets. While the procession was passing from the provost's residence to examination hall, the cheering was deafening. The students lined the passage, and held aloft Union Jacks, under which the procession passed. Mr. Chamberlain appeared to thoroughly enjoy the demonstration. As the procession entered the college, the students arose and cheered Mr. Chamberlain.

CHAMBERLAIN TALKS. At the close of the ceremony, Mr. Chamberlain, in response to the cries of the students, said the police were under very difficult circumstances. If the arrangements had been recent, he added, he would not have chosen the occasion to receive the honorary degree from the university. Their minds, Mr. Chamberlain continued, were solemized by the serious news from South Africa. But England was accustomed to hold her own in adversity. He was old enough to remember the Crimea, and the earlier period of the Indian mutiny, when England met with greater disasters than she had just experienced, but eventually the nation sprang to its feet, and recovered its strength, and no doubt it would do so again. In conclusion, Mr. Chamberlain exhorted the students, now that he was one of their doctors, to practice the virtues of toleration and patience.

The students that attacked the Mansion House numbered about 150. They beat the caretaker who attempted to protect the corporation flag.

MAMMUD PASHA SKIPS OUT. Constantinople, Dec. 19.—The flight of the sultan's son-in-law, Mammud Pasha, on Thursday, with his wife, jewels and all the money he could collect, caused a great sensation here. It seems he sailed for Marseilles on a steamer, and the Turkish government has telegraphed to the French minister of foreign affairs, asking for the arrest of Mammud, and his return to Constantinople, on the charge that he is implicated in a plot to assassinate the sultan.

CRISIS IN AUSTRIA. London, Dec. 19.—A special dispatch from Vienna announced that in consequence of the paralysis of parliamentary business, due to persistent Czech obstruction, the Austrian cabinet headed by Count Clary Aldringen, which was formed last October, to succeed the ministry of Count Thun-Hohenstein, will resign today (Tuesday).

CABLE NOTES. Count Tolstoi has sufficiently recovered to resume work. Joseph Chamberlain and Mrs. Chamberlain were the guests of Earl Cadogan, the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, and Countess Cadogan, at Dublin, prior to Mr. Chamberlain receiving a degree from Dublin University.

The new twin steamship Potsdam, built for the Holland-American Line, was launched at Hamburg Saturday. She will be ready for service about May 1.

Paris was enveloped in a heavy fog all day Saturday. Traffic was greatly impeded and venturers of all descriptions barely crawled along. Lights were burning in houses and on the streets all day. There was no steamboat service on the Seine and navigation was almost impossible.
