LAID ON THE LASH Middle Age Methods of Panishment Prevail in Delaware.

Wilmington, Del., May 23. - When gates of the New Castle County Workhouse vard were thrown open on Saturday, Henry Irons, colored, was in the stocks. Irons is a desperate burglar with a long record and he now begins a long sentence for breaking and entering in the night time. After gaining an entrance to the house of Frank Banner he tried to steal a crucifix from a sleeping boy's neck and that as his undoing. The boy awoke and his cries caused an alarm, which resulted in Irons' arrest. In addition to an hour in the pillory Irons was given 30 lashes. Samuel Fisher, also a negro, stood in the stocks with Irons for an hour, and later had his back whacked with 40 lashes of the cat-o'-nine tails. He has two years in which to remember his act of robbing a woman of 31. Warden Meserve had shown no Shore, Miss McMillan, Brown, (Marhe says that unless severe punishment is meted out the post becomes a farce. Thomas Howard stole 48 pounds of rope and, after receiving fifteen ashes, was sent up for a year. Instead of chicken, Alonzo Green, colored, will partake of prison diet for eight months. He was flogged for stealing fourteen fowls from a farmer. John Fisher and William Thomas, colored, received ten lashes each for stealing 90 cents' worth of coal. The former will serve two years and the latter one year behind the bars. Ten lashes well laid on was the or der of the court in the case of Harry Davis, colored, for stealing a $15 gun. and he will retire from the sun's glare for six months. Harry Smith stole a set of harness and ten lashes was the dose of Delaware justice meted out to him. will spend five months behind the bars.
