His baggage and that of his suite was carried by 200 camels. The people of Urga had long been expecting his arrival, and, notwithstanding the severe frost, the Chinese troops and 200,000 citizens went out of the town for several miles to meet him. His arrival was announced to the rest of the population by a salvo of artillery, and he took up his quarters in a palace specially prepared for him, where all the holy men and teachers of Urga usually hold their meetings, and which contains the most famous Buddhist temples. Many thousands of pilgrims are arriving from all parts of Mongolia, from the Astrakhan steppes, to do him homage. LOCAL TEMPTRATURES.

The Southern Republics Fear Uncle Sam's Designs.

Argentina, Brazil and Chile Have Strengthened the Bonds of Sympathy.

Washington D. C., Feb. 13. - South America may repudiate the Monroe don. Conn., to St. John, N. B. doctrine. In the forthcoming message construed by the United States as a violation of the Monroe doctrine and involve the great American Republic there will be a paragraph formally declaring the freedom of his country from American protection. The President of Chile may take similar action. Even Brazil, which has manifested on so many occasions its friendship, is considering the advisability of withdrawing itself from the aegis of the United States.

Argentina, Chile and Brazil consider themselves sovereign states and entitled as such to the same voice in international councils as other nations. The Monroe doctrine places them in GREAT SUFFERING IN STATES the eyes of Europe as under American suzerainty, and as they transact most of their business with Europe they do not like the view Europeans take of The recent message of President Roosevelt brought things to a head. That document has been interpreted in South America as proof that the United States regards itself as the protector of all the republics of the west hemisphere.

no interference from the United Americas are constantly and brilliantwith their affairs would be at an end. Nevertheless, it is the grievance of hours late, Argentina, Brazil and Chile that the states which are chronically engaged of ending once and for all what are regarded as "Yankee pretensions to guard the western hemisphere from European aggression" Spanish-American diplomats suggest that each of the nations named should make a declaration of purpose to resist intervention by any state for any purpose whatsoever. This, of course, would be aimed against the United States, and peculiarly against the Roosevelt interpre-lation of the Monroe doctrine, which contemplates intervention in flagrant cases of wrongdoing or impudence in the republics of this hemisphere.

Several facts have come to the attention of the authorities here which show the peculiar state of mind into which South Americans have worked themselves. Argentina has sent her minister of finance to Chili to pave the way for the abrogation of the protocol limiting the naval armament of each country, which was entered into in order to avert war between them. Ostensibly Argentina war between them. Ostensibly Argentina has been moved to this action by the appropriation of $60,000,000, just made by Brazil for the construction of 40 new men of war. The Brazilian programme is to Authorities here are never inclined to take the South Americans too seriously and ridicule the idea of conflict ever in the far future. But they do appreciate that it is unwise to take any action which might accentuate South American sus-picion. Therefore, in the Dominican treaty proviston was inserted by which the United States recognized the independence and integrity of Dominican territory.
