

TOO MUCH CEREAL IMPORTED FOR BEER BY BRITISH ISLES

Means Scandalous Waste, Declares London Chronicle.

SUBS THE BIG PROBLEM

Daily Mail Asks if Admiralty Is Doing All It Can.

[Canadian Press.] London, Nov. 16.—The Times commenting today on the submarine discussion in the House of Lords yesterday, indorses Baron Sydenham's reference to public uneasiness over the menace.

"Confidence of the nation in the navy and its commanders is boundless," says the Times, "but it does not extend without qualification to the board of admiralty. The new German submarine campaign has been an obvious and growing menace for a considerable period, and the country is by no means satisfied that the admiralty has been alive to it."

[Canadian Press.] London, Nov. 16.—The Daily Chronicle in hearty agreement with the Times' proposals calls for an additional drastic curtailment in the scandalous waste of cereals, both grown for home and imported, for production of beer. "We are producing far more drink than any other belligerent country," says the Daily Chronicle, and it ascribes this fact to the "tremendous political grip the liquor trade exerts on the conservative party."

The Daily Mail says: "We must be grateful for the action, even when it is so late that it is in danger of coming too late. But the Government has not had the courage to let the public why it is necessary. The program apparently is to be supplemented by a provision guaranteeing them to grow it, but of this Mr. Runciman said too little."

"It has taken the war to give the British people a sense of the value of the food supply," says the Daily Mail. "It is a question for the admiralty administration. The question is answered by success or failure. But the gist of the problem is the administration of all that can be done."

The Times, after welcoming Mr. Runciman's proposal, which it believes will have a wholesome effect in the country and hearten the Allies, says: "All good citizens must wish the scheme complete success. All must exert themselves to secure it. But the gist of the problem is the administration of all that can be done."

The Daily Sketch expresses the belief that Lord Milner will be the food dictator.

HIS MOTHER AND SISTER HURT IN ZEPPELIN RAID

Londoners Hear of His Friends in London Being Injured.

Terry Seal of 37 Front street is in receipt of a letter from his mother in Devon's road, Bow-est, London, England, telling of a zeppelin raid in which she and her mother were both injured and her sister was killed.

The raid was over Devon's road in October, and one bomb, which fell on the Black Swan Inn, destroyed the building completely, and everything within a radius of 100 yards. As the Seal home is near the inn, the windows were broken and this glass injured the inmates.

REDMOND'S MAN WINS IRISH BY-ELECTION

O'Leary Defeats a Member of the O'Brien Party.

[Canadian Press.] London, Nov. 16.—12:35 p.m.—D. O'Leary, Irish Nationalist, and an adherent of John Redmond, has been elected a member of the House of Commons from the west division of Cork County in succession to James P. Gilbooly, who died October 16 last. O'Leary has a plurality of 177 votes over the number cast for his chief opponent, Frank Healy, a member of the O'Brien party.

There was great interest in the election in Ireland, this being the first since the Easter uprising at Dublin.

The vote stood: O'Leary 1,836, Healy 1,749, Dr. Shippey (Independent) 368.

TEDDY LANDMARK GOING

[Canadian Press.] New York, Nov. 16.—The old four-story house, which was the home of Col. Theodore Roosevelt when he was 27, 1888, is to be torn down to make room for a modern business place. It was announced today. Several years ago the Roosevelt family had organized with $1 membership fee to preserve the building as a place of historic interest, but owing to the lapse of payments on mortgage the property was recently sold under foreclosure.

Indigestion Resulted From an Inactive Liver

The Bowels Became Constipated and the Whole Digestive System Upset.

With every person constipation becomes a habit and it is a dangerous habit which is certain sooner or later to cause serious disease.

"Daily movement of the bowels" is the first and most important rule of health. When this rule is broken the flow of bile into the intestines is stopped and the bowels become constipated but you can readily overcome this condition by using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. There is no treatment obtainable which so promptly awakens the activity of the liver and bowels and thereby corrects derangements of the digestive system.

Mrs. Herbert Doherty of Beaver Brook, Albany County, N. B., writes: "I can truthfully say that Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are a great medicine for constipation. I have suffered from constipation ever since I can remember, but

LADY BECK RENDERS VERDICT ON STEEDS

Gives Judgment in Several Classes of Saddle Horses.

[Special to The Advertiser.] New York, Nov. 16.—The big horse show didn't really begin today until Lady Beck, wife of Sir Adam Beck of London, Ont., and first and only woman horse show judge that the world has ever known, walked across the tank and took her place at the judges' stand.

With her peach basket hat clamped firmly on her head, her round, chubby face all smiles, note pad in one hand and pencil in the other, Lady Beck appeared in the crowd of the show at 10:45 to give her verdict on eight prancing saddle horses.

She had an awful time deciding between seven saddle horses in Class 30. She couldn't seem to choose between W. H. Rhodes' Radiant, ridden by a young woman who thoroughly lived up to her mount's name, and Buren Arrow, combined and ridden by Miss Anna A. Austin. Finally she gave it to the two Radiants.

BARNARD—PURDOM NUPTIALS

A charming house wedding took place Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Purdom, King street, when their daughter, Lillian Barnard, was united in marriage to John Harcourt Barnard of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Barnard, Central avenue.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Rhodes, pastor of the Methodist church, with a young woman who thoroughly lived up to her mount's name, and Buren Arrow, combined and ridden by Miss Anna A. Austin. Finally she gave it to the two Radiants.

Autumn leaves, smilax, ferns and flowers in profusion were used with artistic effect in the decorations of the rooms for the happy event.

In the hall, autumn leaves were used with white chrysanthemums, the former being the combined and ridden by Miss Anna A. Austin. Finally she gave it to the two Radiants.

Yellow chrysanthemums were chosen for the drawing-room and with the autumn leaves, formed the canopy under which the nuptial knot was tied. A color scheme of pink and green in the dining-room was carried out with pink roses, ferns and smilax.

Stationed in the upper hall, the harpers provided enlivening music while the guests were arriving and following the wedding service.

At 5 o'clock the groom, the best man, Ross McPhillips of this city, and the officiating minister, Rev. D. C. MacGregor, of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, took their places in front of an extemporized altar beneath the canopy, to perform the ceremony.

The notes of the Lohengrin Brind Chorus floated down from above and through the rooms, and a moment later all attention was centred upon the bride and groom.

First came the tiny niece of the bride, little Lillian Purdom, a fairy in white, with a tray of pink roses and a bouquet of pink roses. ## SOLDIERS' WIVES RESENT HINT THAT MIGHT WORK TO HELP THEM SAVE MONEY

Only Ten Respond in Proper Spirit to Chairman Spencer's Suggestion.

On November 10, William Spencer, chairman of the relief committee of the London Patriotic Association, sent out a kind letter to the soldiers' wives in this city, suggesting means whereby they could supplement their present income and at the same time serve their country. The response he received was very discouraging. Apparently the soldier's wives do not appreciate his suggestion, for he was the recipient of several indignant letters. He is gratified, however, that ten took his suggestion in the proper spirit.

SOME GOOD SALES MADE AT POULTRY EXHIBITION

Big Attendance on Two Days, and More Expected on Last.

Today is the last chance the poultry-lovers of London will have to inspect the excellent array of birds that are given at the Poultry Building at Queen's Park. At 10 o'clock tonight the show will close. The owners will then remove their birds, and the finest exhibition ever held by the London Poultry and Pet Stock Association will be brought to a close. "The best one yet," said J. C. Andrews, the secretary, when he was asked this year's show compared with those of other years.

The attendance on the first two days has been good, and as today is the closing day, it will likely be as large, if not larger, than the previous days. While the owners do not bring their birds here for the purpose of selling them, nevertheless some very good sales have been made, and a number of prize-birds have changed hands.
