7 KILLED WHEN TRAIN CRASHES INTO MOTOR CAR

Stevensville Crossing On T., H. and B. Railway Scene of Fatality.

FAMILY WAS HOLIDAYING

WELLAND, July 20.—When a T., H. and B. train from Toronto to Buffalo hit a motor car at the Stevensville crossing about 1 o'clock this afternoon six persons were killed instantly, one was fatally injured and died later in the Buffalo Hospital, and another now is in the hospital, and is not expected to recover. The dead are:

Daniel Fretz, Mrs. Daniel Fretz, their three children, Ethel, Harold and Carl; Robert C. Baker and his mother, Mrs. Edith Baker, wife of the deputy reeve of Bertie Township.

Mrs. Baker was alive when taken out of the wreck, but expired after reaching Buffalo. Thelma Baker, daughter of Mrs. Edith Baker, is now in hospital in a critical condition. Daniel Fretz was formerly a farmer of Bertie Township, but recently had been living in Colorado. The Fretz family were here for a holiday, having made the trip in the car in which they met their death. The party of eight had just left the residence of Deputy Reeve Baker, near the Stevensville station, with Mr. Fretz driving, and had turned out of the Baker lane to cross the track when they were struck by the T., H. and B. train, which was traveling about 50 miles an hour. The bodies were badly mangled by the impact, and the car was torn to pieces. Engineer Humphrey says he did not see the car at all, and also declared he sounded his whistle for the crossing. His fireman, however, saw the car approaching the track, but not until too late to give the warning to the engineer. Conductor Ferguson was in charge of the train. The injured were put on the same train and taken to Buffalo.

CUPID VANQUISHES DR. BELAND AGAIN

Cabinet Minister Quietly Wed in Ottawa To Charming Belgian Maid.

OTTAWA, July 20.—Quietly and without ostentation, Hon. Dr. Beland, minister of soldiers' civil re-establishment in the King government, was married in the Juniorate Chapel of Sacred Heart Church early this morning.

The bride was Miss Henrietta van Laethem, formerly of Belgium, but who has been in Ottawa for the past few years.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Paquette, O.M.I., in the presence of Hon. Jacques Bureau, and Consul-General Goor of Belgium, who acted as witnesses.

No others were present and publicity regarding the quiet event was discouraged by the groom, who, with his bride, has left for a brief honeymoon trip to Northern New York. On their return they will proceed westward, the minister having planned a trip of inspection to the Pacific Coast.

This is the third venture of Dr. Beland into matrimony. In June of 1915 he married Florie Gerin Lajoie, a French-Canadian maiden of a well-known family. From this marriage there was one daughter, who later married M. Mathieu, a notary of Montreal, and a nephew of Mgr. Mathieu of Regina. The first Madame Beland died in 1905.

In 1914 Dr. Beland was wedded to a Belgian countess, and when the war broke out they were on their honeymoon in the bride's homeland. Both remained and offered their services to the medical staff of the Belgian troops, and both declined to seek safety when the forces of the Germans poured down on Antwerp.

The minister was taken prisoner and retained as such for the greater period of the war. Madame Beland later died in Holland without husband and wife ever meeting again.

The third Madame Beland, it is stated, was a firm friend of the late madame. She is young and handsome, and of the vivacious type.

TORONTO MAN SLAIN IN SUBURB OF LOS ANGELES

Lured to Lonely Spot, Where Death Is Inflicted by Blow From Pipe.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—Another murder mystery was revealed here today in identification of a body found yesterday in the hills near Inglewood, a suburb, as that of Samuel Dibb, 55 years of age, of Toronto, Canada. The skull was crushed and a two-foot length of pipe found near the body apparently was the instrument of murder, police say.

Identification was established by papers and a letter, dated June 5, from McLaughlin, Johnstone, Moorehead & McCauley, attorneys in Toronto, inclosing a check for payment on a mortgage held by Dibb.

Preliminary investigation indicated Dibb probably was lured to a lonely spot and slain for robbery. He had been living for some time in Los Angeles.

A Season-End Clearance, $5.95

Opportune Values In Voile, Swiss Organdy and Gingham Dresses

It is not the season's end, to be sure, with us or with you—but it is so with the manufacturer from whom we made this great clearance, and tomorrow we offer our customers the full benefit of the price reductions we obtained on this group of pretty summer dresses. The prices in most cases are about one-third to one-half, and there is such a variety of pretty styles that you need not confine your preference to any one particular style, and if your size is not to be found in one attractive group, it will be in another, just as desirable. Here are garments indispensable to vacationists as well as women looking to their immediate needs.

Summer Dresses, Saturday, $5.95

All this season's models, featuring the newest and novel trimmings. Kimono style and set-in sleeve, dainty lace at collar and cuffs, cable stitching and tucking on skirts.
