

MR. GLADSTONE RESIGNS.

He Announces His Intention to Her Majesty—Lord Rosebery Likely to Succeed Him.

Press Opinions—Fears That the Break Up of the Party is Inevitable.

LONDON, March 2.—It became finally known this afternoon that Mr. Gladstone had made up his mind to give up the premiership, and intended to resign on Saturday. Up to that time the Radicals had been believing that the private representations they had made would deter Mr. Gladstone from taking any definite step. They had secured some seventy members who had promised to attend a meeting to protest against Mr. Gladstone's retirement, and against Lord Rosebery's selection as his successor.

When the news of Mr. Gladstone's decision to give up the premiership came to them, through a private but trustworthy source, they could only find twenty-one men to-day willing to go and make a public protest to the Government's chief against Lord Rosebery's appointment. Whether this demonstration would have had weight it is impossible to say. A group of Radicals headed by Mr. Labouchere is going through a list of members of the House of Commons, with a view of sending telegrams broadcast the purpose being to try and get concerted action. Mr. Labouchere is not hopeful that this will do any good, but it is probable, though, that Lord Rosebery will be frightened by that has been said and done, and decline the post of premier in favor of Sir W. Harcourt.

The boom for Lord Rosebery has been so open and palpable that it has inspired bitter suspicions of intrigue. It is obvious that Lord Rosebery is a great favorite with the Queen. There are even rumors that he is going to marry one of the daughters of the Prince of Wales. The Radicals are savagely declaring that the whole thing has been a plot of the court circles to hurry the old man off the stage and place Rosebery at the head of the party at a time when the dangers encircling it render it doubtful. There is, however, extremely little doubt visible to-night in Radical circles. On the contrary, there are open declarations that a Rosebery ministry would be smashed at once. Active steps are being taken to secure a pledge that the party shall be consulted as to the choice of their leader instead of leaving it to Mr. Gladstone and the Queen, according to English custom.

The Radical leaders profess that the commons are disposed to acquiesce in the leadership of Rosebery, but the extremists vehemently oppose the appointment. Some moderate Radicals express the fear that Mr. Gladstone's withdrawal means the breaking up of the party. The Fall Mail Gazette says: Gladstone's last failure is pitiable. He has thrown the last bomb at the House of Lords, which has frustrated him. He now retreats tired, embittered in his old age. Two days before the fate that Lord Rosebery listened to the speech delegating him to the task of destroying the House of which he himself is a member.

The Westminster Gazette says: Should the party generally decide upon Rosebery as the best leader before the country, the rank and file ought loyally to adhere to his decision. The Gazette calls on Sir W. Harcourt to silence the voice of faction.

The St. James's Gazette says: This is not the first time Gladstone has withdrawn from the conflict, leaving his followers to extricate themselves from the disaster he caused. T. P. O'Connor, in an interview to-day, said he regretted Gladstone was so soon to retire, but inasmuch as it was inevitable it was better steps should be taken at once and a leader decided on. He did not think it would avail anything if the Liberal leaders should elect to beseech Mr. Gladstone to continue the Government, but Connolly is little changed.

Hon. W. E. Gladstone, accompanied by his wife, left Paddington station at 3:30 p.m. for Windsor. It is believed that during their stay at Windsor he will tender his resignation to the Queen. Before leaving Downing street Mr. Gladstone received Sir Wm. Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, and a few other intimate friends. A crowd had gathered at the station, and all showed the deepest respect for the old man. When the train began to move everybody on the platform cheered from his heart. Mr. Gladstone started from his seat, and bowed and smiled from the window.

The two thousand or more persons who had assembled at Windsor cheered heartily when Mr. and Mrs. Gladstone alighted. Gladstone entered the royal carriage with his wife and proceeded to the castle. The streets through which the carriage passed were filled with men and women, who greeted the Premier with cheers and the waving of hats and handkerchiefs. Mr. Gladstone had an audience with the Queen before dinner, and told her of his intention to resign from office. The formal resignation, however, may be delayed until after the meeting of the council which the ministers will hold to-morrow. All the formal prorogation of Parliament is to be enacted. There are but two topics in the political clubs this evening. They are the retirement of the Premier and the choice of his successor. Rumors and surmises of all sorts are repeated from mouth to mouth, but news with any noteworthy foundation in fact is very scarce. The newspapers are printing columns of sensational speculation, but most of this matter is the result of palpable guess work and throws no light on the situation.

The Daily News says editorially: "We most deeply and earnestly deplore that Mr. Gladstone should have felt it incumbent upon himself to resign. The whole party would have preferred retaining him upon whatever terms he might have suggested and substituting any other man, however able and eminent."

The News refutes every objection to the choice of the Premier from the House of Lords. "The bulk of the Radicals are too sensible," says the News, "to reject a good Premier because he happens to be an earl." The News says it has information that there is no reason why Mr. Gladstone should not recover his eyesight entirely in a few months. Advanced age, it adds, is no hindrance to the cure of such a complaint as this.

The Daily Chronicle says: "Mr. Gladstone informally resigned last evening. The Queen offered him a peerage which he declined. Lord Rosebery has received a formal summons to Windsor. He will have the help and enthusiastic support of the overwhelming majority of the Liberal party." The Chronicle says of Mr. Labouchere: "He has also been the confidence of every man who has a steady conception of Liberalism. He is doing his party an eminent disservice. The Times welcomes the prospect of Lord Rosebery's succession, saying that no other member of the Government is equally trusted. The writer predicts friction between Lord Rosebery and Sir Wm. Harcourt in case the latter consents to serve under the new Premier. The Standard says: "Such a farewell as Mr. Gladstone is bidding to-day appeals with singular force to general sympathy. One of the greatest and most interesting figures of the century is passing away from public life. His opponents, with unfeigned cordiality, wish him the peaceful enjoyment of honorable repose."

TORONTO TOPICS.

TORONTO, March 2.—(Special)—In the legislature Sir Oliver Mowat in announcing the resignation of Hon. C. F. Fraser paid a tribute to his integrity and administration of the public works department during the past 19 years. He stated that Mr. Fraser would nominally hold the portfolio during the remainder of the session, but would take no active part in the cabinet. He hinted that there had at times been differences of opinion between Mr. Fraser and other ministers on certain matters of public policy. Mr. Meredith expressed the deepest regret at the announcement of Mr. Fraser's resignation and eulogized his services to the country but wanted to know why the Government had not made the house aware of the difference alluded to by the attorney-general.

J. Thomson, a prominent hardware merchant here, died suddenly. He was to have been married on Dec. 9 last to a Miss Norton of this city, but she died the week previous to the date fixed for the wedding. The Master-in-Ordinary has proven $75,000 claims against the Ontario Express Co. A check received here to-day announces that John G. Fraser, who with G. Teedy left the city in June last taking with them nearly $15,000 belonging to the Grand Trunk R. R. Co., in whose employ they were, has been captured in St. Louis, and that his companion would be in the toils shortly. There was a rumor in political circles yesterday that Hon. G. W. Ross, minister of education, will resign his post to accept the regentship of Middlesex. However, he declares he will not.

CAPITAL NOTES.

Considerable Falling Off in Importations—Prohibition Commission to Close Its Sessions.

McGregory and Connolly Gone Home—Binder Twine Industry at the Penitentiary.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

OTTAWA, March 2.—Sir John Thompson returned from a visit to the Kingston penitentiary to-day. All the machinery for the binder twine establishment is in position, and the raw material will be there next week. Work will commence about April 1, and give constant employment to some forty convicts. The financial returns issued to-day show that uncertainty respecting the tariff is causing a decrease in importations. The revenue from the customs has fallen off half a million in eight months. The publication of the annual report of the Dominion Rifle Association has been delayed owing to the non-receipt of the annual subscription of the late Governor-General Lord Derby. His Lordship being in the meantime communicated with. The prohibition commission meets here next week for its closing session. Captain John Irving and wife have arrived here from Montreal. Messrs. McGregor and Connolly left for Montreal yesterday afternoon. McGregor looks very ill, but Connolly is little changed.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

OTTAWA, March 3.—Hon. Mr. Daly will introduce a bill into Parliament during the coming session for the purpose of protecting the Peace and Mackenzie River districts. Mr. Ogilvie estimates that there are only two hundred head of wood buffalo there. Some of the treaty Indians are playing havoc with all classes of fur-bearing animals, and it is deemed essential to institute vigorous repressive measures. The Auditor-General's report out to-day, makes a volume of sixteen hundred pages. It contains fine campaign literature for the Grits. Mr. Huddart left for New York to-night, and sails for England on Wednesday. On his arrival there he will immediately place an order for a third new steamship for the Australian service. James Elmer, entomologist at the Experimental Farm, has been placed in charge of the experimental apiary here.

THE FATHERLAND.

Suicide of a Theatrical Manager—The Loss of the Warship "Brandenburg."

Bi-metallism in Berlin—New Imperial Decoration—Twenty-fifth Anniversary of Sedan.

BERLIN, March 3.—Felix Lipschuetz, vice-manager of the Dresdener, shot himself dead last night in the lavatory of the express from Munich to Berlin. He had been engaged to succeed Barney in the management of a Berlin theatre next September. Lipschuetz entered the lavatory just after the train left Jueteburg, about forty miles from this city. He did not return to his compartment, and when the train reached the Anhalt station, some one mentioned his disappearance to the guard. Herr Rabitz, a friend who was at the station to meet him, immediately went to the lavatory and found Lipschuetz dead, with a bullet wound in his temple. A revolver lay on the floor beside him. On the dead man's breast was pinned a paper bearing these words: "I am Felix Lipschuetz, and my home is the Marten Strasse, Berlin." In his pocket there was a letter addressed to his friends, thanking them for their assistance in his last business venture, and deploring the bad fortune of the actors whom he had engaged for his opening next fall. He hoped they would find other engagements, he said, and he recommended them to the consideration of other managers. Lipschuetz's suicide is believed to have been due to financial troubles, connected with the difficulties he found in obtaining money with which to make the deposit required by Proprietor Hartogens, of the Berliner theatre. Baron Hartogens and Rabitz say had already arranged matters with Groszkopf. It is reported that Lipschuetz's heirs will be obliged to carry out the agreement with Groszkopf. Vice-Admiral Holman, Secretary of Naval Affairs, told the Budget committee of the Reichstag on Friday that the disastrous explosion aboard the warship Brandenburg, off Kiel last month, was due to the faulty construction of a steam valve. His statement has been received with astonishment. The newspapers have only words of blame for the Valcan ship-yard officials, who by some inexplicable oversight, allowed the plans of the main valve to go to the work shop without having provided for the extra safety contrivance.

Dana Horton, the bi-metallist, has come to Berlin and set him on communication with the German champion of silver. He watches closely the proceedings of the Imperial currency commission. The Emperor William has approved the design of a new decoration of the Royal Prussian Order of Merit. The design consists of a red cross with an eye in each corner.

The military unions in Leipzig, seconded by the municipal authorities, will invite the German military societies of the United States to send delegates to the city to aid in the celebration of the twenty-fifth anniversary of Sedan.

ROSEBERY ACCEPTS. LONDON, March 3.—The United Press correspondent learned from an official source at 11:30 this evening that the Queen had accepted Mr. Gladstone's resignation, and had offered the premiership to Lord Rosebery, who had consented to take the office.

LOBENGULA'S ENVOYS. LONDON, March 3.—The Government has published the correspondence which passed between the Colonial office and Sir Henry Loch, Governor of Cape Colony, relative to the killing of the envoys of the late King Lobengula. The correspondence shows that the killing of the envoys was a series of misunderstandings and averted by the Ripon, Secretary of State for the Colonies, exonerated the military authorities who were concerned in their death.

CRISP'S POLICY. ROME, March 3.—Premier Crisp addressed the Deputies to-day in defence of his policy during the Sicilian uprising. "The government would have betrayed the country," he declared, "had they allowed the insurgents to enter Palermo, where the leaders proposed to proclaim formally the Sicilian revolution. We are resolved to combat to the fullest extent all revolutionists, whether they be anarchists or socialists. After Premier Crisp's speech the Chamber approved by a large majority the declaration of the state of siege in Sicily and Massa, as well as the other exceptional measures taken by the government."

NANAIMO CITY. NANAIMO, March 2.—(Special)—At an enthusiastic meeting of Government supporters held in Foresters hall, this evening, James McGregor was nominated by acclamation as a candidate for the representation of Nanaimo City in the Provincial Legislature. Mr. McGregor will prove a popular candidate to all classes. Now engaged in the clothing business, he was formerly Vancouver Colliery and is a brother of William McGregor the mine manager. As a mine boss, he was extremely popular among those under him, and always treated the men well, earning both their respect and regard which was practically made manifest when he resigned his position to engage in business. As a business man Mr. McGregor shows that he is possessed of sterling qualities which apart from all political feeling have gained for him the esteem of the whole community. The nomination of a candidate was followed by the appointment of a strong working committee composed of twenty-one influential citizens including A. Healan, M.P., Mayor Quinlan, Aldermen Craig, Dawson, Churohill, Place and Nightingale, Douglas Praeger, Davis and McKelvin, Lawyers Yarwood, Young and Simpson. The canvass of voters will be commenced at once; so effort will be spared to secure every vote possible in order to return the Government candidate with an overwhelming majority. It is understood that in both North and South Nanaimo movements are on foot to arrange a plan of campaign and select candidates. A public meeting will be held shortly at which James McGregor will have an opportunity of publicly declaring himself as a Government candidate. It is expected that some of the Government members will be present on that occasion.

WOMEN'S WEDDING GIFT. LONDON, Feb. 28.—The Countess of Derby, wife of the former Governor-General of Canada, presented to-day to the Duke and Duchess of York the wedding gift of the Canadian women. The gift consists of two fine horses and a sleigh. Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner, was absent from the presentation ceremony, on account of illness.

HIS LATEST SPEECH.

Rt. Hon. Mr. Gladstone's Remarkable Deliverance Against the Lords

Review of Their Past Actions—The Time Has Come for a Decision of the People.

LONDON, March 2.—When Mr. Gladstone entered the House of Commons at 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, he was greeted with a storm of cheers which lasted several minutes. He walked directly to his usual seat and held a whispered consultation with Mr. John Morley, chief secretary for Ireland, and Sir William Harcourt, chancellor of the exchequer, who sat on either side of him, most of his conversation being addressed to the latter. Lord Rosebery occupied a seat in the press gallery. The Speaker put the question that the amendment of the House of Lords to the local government bill be considered, when Gladstone arose and addressed the House in what in many respects was the most remarkable speech he has delivered for many years. He showed no signs of weariness in his otherwise resonant voice. Mr. Gladstone began by saying that the Government had reached the conclusion that the time for passing bills back and forth from one House to the other had ended, and had decided upon a definite course. Laughter and cheers interrupted the Premier, who, when he was able to resume, spoke as follows: "To continue the process would be loss of dignity to both houses, and the Government has decided to stop the operation and take a definite course. The Government had the amendments and the House of Lords' bill, or of accepting the second choice (Cheers.) The action of the House of Lords regarding the bills of this session has raised a question of the gravest character. Two of these bills—the Home Rule bill and the Employers' Liability bill—occupied the attention of the House of Commons one hundred days. They involved vast labor, and with an unequalled amount of labor. The House of Lords, without giving it much consideration, wrecked that legislation." (Cheers.) Mr. Gladstone said he remembered a book published in 1880, called "Fifty years of the House of Lords." The contents of the book left upon the mind of every Liberal a painful but firm conviction that the action of the House of Lords during those fifty years had been grievously unsatisfactory. After further reviewing the action of the Lords in the past on various questions, Gladstone said: "We have now come to a more acute stage. The question now is whether the judgment of the House of Lords is not only to modify, but to annihilate the whole work of the House of Commons. (Continued cheers.) The Government has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting to judge motives, we feel it our duty to state the indisputable fact that the issue is raised between a deliberative assembly elected by the votes of seven million men and a different kind of an assembly, which has not been anxious to precipitate or unduly to accelerate the present bill with the declaration of the difference between the two houses cannot continue. (Loud cheers.) Without using any hard words or without resorting