

VOL 6.

BRIDGETOWN, N. S., WEDNESDAY OCTOBER 16, 1878.

NOTICE Weekly Monitor, LL persons having any legal demands against the estate of the late Chas. Bar-PUBLISHED A against the estate of the late Chas. Dar-aux, of Nictaux Falls, Annapolis County, are notified to present the same, duly attested, within three months from this date, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate psyment to John Me-Every Wednesday at Bridgetown Windsor & Annapolis Raiw'y. persons indebted to said estate are requested to make immediate payment to John Mc Keown. Jr., of Wilmot, to whom I have given SANCTON and PIPER, Proprietors. Time Table, Power of Attorney for the transaction of said TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION .- $1.50 per an-num, in advance ; if not paid within six months, $2.00. Tuesday, 3rd June, 1878. September 6, '78. Advertising Rates. NOVA SCOTIA LLOYD'S ght ONE INCH.-First insertion, 50 cents: xpress Da s. and Fre Friday. . and Fre day, Thu every after insertion, 121 cents ; one month MARINE $1.00; two months, $1.50; three months, 3 GOING WEST. $2.00; six months, $3.50. ASSOCIATION. ONE SQUARE, (two inches) .- First inser Pass. Tuesd BxJ Pass. tion $1.00 : each continuation, 25 cents -01three months, $3.50; six months, 6.00 twelve months $10.00. A. M. A. M. P. M. 9 30 12 00 5 40 0 Windsor-leave ... Annapolis Royal. HALF COLUMN .- First insertion, $4.50 ; 7 Hantsport. 9 52 12 27 6 12 THE undersigned are Insuring on MA-RINE RISKS, at the lowest current ates that the business can be done with safety to the assured. All losses promptly 11 00 2 10 paid on recept of proof and adjustment A COLUMN .- First insertion, $8.00 ; each continuation, $2.00; ore month, $12.00 two 34 Waterville ... months, $18.00; three months, $25.00; six months $40.00; twelve months, $70.00. 11 23 THOS. S. WHITMAN, Attorney. 3 02 ROBT. MILLS . 11 41 3 24 SAML MCCORMICK P. M. 12 03 12 12 Yearly advertisements changed oftener than once a month, will be charged 25 cents extra per square for each additional alter-62 Middleton... W. M. WEATHERSPOON, Directors. 4 02 A. W. CORBITT. WM. MCCORMICK. 62 Lawrencetown .. 12 36 Saml. J. Bogart, 65 *Paradise . 12 45 5 10 Saml. Pickup, Robert Delap, Insolvent Act of 1875. 70 Bridgetown ... 78 *Roundhill ... 1 00 5 3 1 20 60 ohn Mills, 4 Annapolis-arrive . 1 35 W. B. Troop, James E. Shaffner and Amending Acts. St. John by Steamer 8 00 Alfred Troop, , and Freight , Wed., and Friday. . and Freight . Thurs. and saturday. In the Matter of R. D. Mac-Wm. Croscup, Samuel Groves, donald, an Insolvent. Albert Delap, GOING BAST. John Johnson M. Gilliatt Pass. 8 Tues. A LL persons indebted to the said Insolvent, are hereby requested to make immediate payment to the endersigned. W. J. SHANNON, awrence Delap I. D. DeBlois NEW GOODS 0 St. John-leave Assignee Annapolis, July 17th, 1878. Annapolis-leave . 6 1 5 n13 tf New Store. *Round Hill 6 40 BRIDGETOWN 7 05 14 Bridgetown 19 *Paradise...... HAVE this day taken the store next the 7 26 22 Lawrencetown 7 39 Marble Works Middleton 8 05 8 17 1 Wilmot 8 35 9 03 5 Kingston 2 Aylesford 7 Berwick . . 9 25 ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE 0 Waterville 9 45 9 Kentville-arrive 10 25 Do-leave 6 15 11 10 FALCONER & WHITMAN Port Williams 6 35 11 32 6 49 11 41 6 42 4 Wolfy 5 29 Grand Pre. 6 55 11 54 besides a large variety of other articles are now manufacturing 7 21 Hantsport . 7 21 12 30 6 08 . 7 45 1 00 6 30 4 Windsor-arrive Monuments & N. B .- Express Trains run daily and when Bridgetown, May 1st, 1878. N. B.—Express Trains run daily and when ignalled, or when there are Passengers to set town, they will stop at Stations marked thus() Sie.auer "EMPRESS" leaves St. John ever MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY at S Gravestones

Heekly

4. m., for Annapolis, and returns every TUES-

GEO. E. BARTEAUX, INSURANCE Sing red, red roses But when comes winter And ingle warm-John Stairs, James B. Duffus John P. Mott, E. C. Twining F. E. Rice, Alpheus Marshall H. H. Chute, Richard Clarke George F. Miller David Walsh, Samuel Potter. C. D: Pickles, Albert D. Mills, Howard D. Tro tercolonial Hotel, where I intend keep-ing on hand a very choice lot of Groceries. Small Wares, Gents' Fur-nishing Goods, Ladies' Collars and Ties, Handkerchiefs, Hoslery, Hais and Caps, in all the latest styles. Also POCKET AND TABLE CUTLERY, trust in Tom misplaced.

together with a select stock of BOOTS and SHOES.

MINNIE I. WADE.

immense order, but it would not be wise men were in the compartment with me. I fingers would grasp spasmodically at the Poetry. to forward the goods.' 'You did not hint that A SONG OF THE SEASONS slightest fear ? No, but I was glad to get the money, to put a bewildered old gentleman in by Jones and another colored man were put When Spring comes laughing twelve thousand pounds would have been my side and we were off. By vale and hill, y wind-flower walking And daffodil a heavy loss." ' It would have done me

Sing stars of morning, Sing morning skies, Sing blue of speedwell And my Love's eyes When Summer cometh,

Full-leaved and strong And gay birds gossip The orchard long-Sing hid sweet honey That no bee sips, And my Love's lips

When Autumn scatters The leaves again, And piled sheaves bury The wide-wheeled wain-Sing flutes of harvest Where men rejoice, Sing rounds of reapers And my Love's voice

With hail and storm, With red fire roaring Sing first sad going Of friends that part Then sing glad meetin And my Love's heart

Select Literature. A Twelve Thousand Pound

Cheque.

The hour grew late and Mr. Brand pacd his chamber in moody silence. The which haunted him in spite of his faith in Lake. A merry, sober old trader of long experience had said that Lake was too young to fill the important position which he held, but Mr. Brand never found his the held, but Mr. Brand never found his house with which he had extensive deal-ings, the merchant had dispatched Lake to London, telling him to make enquiries, numerous to mention, which will be sold for London, telling him to make enquiries, the smallest living profits for cash. and in any case to get the partners of the firm in question to settle their accounts.

ing followed and plundered in a train, and in that small space I was powerless and the So Lake had gone from Liverpool to somehow I associated the story with the veins in my throat and head were swelling A pretty story is told of Admiral Sir London. The time appointed for his man before me. It was the first time I had like sinuous bars, when the old gentleman Edward Inglefield, now commander of the return passed, and still he did not come. paid him any particular attention. But I in the corner awoke and came to my as- North American squadron, to the effect that gave him full observation now. The more sistance. I heard the low whir of some I looked at him the less I liked him. He weapon in its descent, and my first assail- one occasion, to be particularly handy in was handsome, gentlemanly, with a fair ant reeled from me stunned. Then the old assisting her Majesty down a ship-ladder. face and elegant figure, full of strength gentleman, with a strength and rapidity of The Queen took a fancy to the young and suppleness. His manner was singu- action wonderful to see in a person of his fellow, inquired his name, and then said "I hope so, Mary, but it is getting very larly unassuming; but, by tooking the and dashed him down on a seat. larly unassuming ; but, by looking close- age, seized the scoundrel, lifted him away -" You have helped me down the ladder; I must try and help you up it. If you ter-looking in the depth and softness of his There was a brief struggle, and then I need my special aid, let me know." Years heard a sharp click-scoundrel the second went by, and the admiral was too smart does not stop, except at the central sta-ind prepossessing, and my friend was the 'I never liked a stranger to be affable' had a pair of handcuffs on his wrists. an officer to need adventitious assistance, 'They were more prompt than I expect.' 'Perhaps he will come, papa ; he would very pink of affability and grace. ed,' said the old gentleman, removing his hobble, since under certain admiralty re-We played for an hour with alternat- woollen comforter, with which he had fast- gulations, he would be compelled, in the not mind coming ten miles, even if he we played for an hour with alternat-ing success; he was an amusing compan- ened my first assailants hands behind him, ordinary course of events, to accept a rank ion, well informed, and had travelled; but " and a railway carriage does not afford which probably would practically "shelve" I was shy of conversation. I left him and much scope for a struggle." said Mr. Brand, sternly; 'punctuality is an sty of conversation. I lett nim and much scope for a struggle. still having some time to spare, went to a The pocket-book was safe. The ruffi- to remind the Queen of the ladder epishim. At this juncture he found means friend in the Temple. ans were securely bound, and the old gen- ode. Her Majesty, who never forgets her When, at the expiration of some thirty tleman who without spectacles or muffler, triends or their faces, was as good as her or forty minutes, I emerged into Fleet stood out in bold and pleasant relief as the word, and the admiral, by being sent out street, almost the first person on whom detective, kept guard over them. to Washington as naval attache, contrivmy gaze fell, was my late antagonist at At the station they were handed over ed, under the limitation exempting from into the custody of the police. I was all the rule officers on special service, to gain billiards. er was angry, and knowing ins serieuros. of principle, and how inveterate was his dislike to any breach of duty, she did not venture to speak again. I thought there was something more right by that time. Vixen roue with the than a mere coincidence in this second meeting since we stood together at the banker's. He was in a cigar store oppo-worse for my ride by express. I thought there was something more right by that time. Vixen rode with me his desired object. Book agents are not to be relied upon in regard to household recipes gra-Not a hundred yards from the Temple Mary's bridal dowry. The contents of the pocket_book were tuitously given. A lady in a neighboring Mary sat subdued and quiet, watching gate stood a man whom I recognized with town, whose house has been infested him. She saw that he was listening as the night express went whirling by, and from the detective. Wixen, the detective. the depths of her heart there went up a prayer that Lake would come safely home. The girl loved him, and would have stak-ed her life on his truth, and knew he was not beyond his time through any weakand started on a week's visit to her ' Come and have a glass of wine with liard playing. He had too narrow an esness or wrong. Two slow, weary hours me, I have something to say.' friends. When she returned there was cape, and he did not forget the lesson. not a bug in the house, but there was such He shook hands in the most natural way an overpowering odor of brimstone that it possible. I took his arm and we entered SUFFERINGS OF A TARREDMAN. life it did not interest him; he was thinkwas upwards of a week before the rooms could be occupied. The fumes had pene-I told him my suspicions, and told him From the Virginia, (Nev.) Enterprise.] of money that would be in his possession of the sum I had in my possession, and of trated every nook and corner, even to the W. J. Jones, who was tarred and featherbureau drawers and wardrobes. The valuthe journey I had to perform by rail. the journey I had to perform by rail. I saw that, watching through the glass of the door, he was taking a mental photo-graph of the two men. graph of the two men. ' They mean business,' said Vixen, quictly, ' but I shall be with you. We must part at the door, or they will see that we have scented the game.' land train. He was in a truly pitiable con-dition. Coal tar or gas tar had been used, to work to remove the ter. It was an hour The man whose face I had not seen before Dr. Goss was called and the linseed oil which he prescribed obtained. Every-I could hardly repress an exclamation. body who saw the poor wretch pitied him. 'And yet,' said Tom, gravely, 'this There was no mistaking that frank, genial The very men who performed the deed morning the odds were considerably countenance, nor the lurking devil in would have pitied him. His sufferings those eyes, whose softness was so sinis- were extreme. His eyes were fairly burning up; no one ever heard before of puttwitch nervously as if from the pain he en-

Tom took two chairs, placed them side He had me then at last. Vixen had ting tar on a man's face and in his eyes. by side near the fire, led Mary to one, and broken his promise, and I was left to trav- For six hours two men worked faithfully, scated himself in the other. He had done el that perilous journey alone, with- neutralising the tar and removing it from his duty as the merchant's clerk, and now another who might be his confederate, and his body, We saw him this morning. was Mr. Brand's prospective son-in-law an old gentleman, who, after grumbling His eyes were terribly inflamed. It is out his indignation against all railway ser- doubtful if he ever recovers his sight. It is and partner. 'I had an adventure,' he said ; 'I was vants and locomotive travelling in general feared the eye-balls have been burned and the was a stranger.

Monitor,

turned toward me.

the hero of a strange story in a ride by ex- was fast asleep in the corner. That the intentions of my billiard player press.'

Mary bent forward to listen - Tom were bad was manifested by the fact of his clasped her hand in his own. Mr. Brand having assumed a false moustache and sat opposite them, interested by the speak- beard. They added to the beauty of his at opposite them, interested by the speak-r's manner, as he began : 'When I got the cheque, I had an idea glitter that is so characteristic of the Asia-'When I got the cheque, I had an idea glitter that is so characteristic of the Asia-'Balance Companies, that devised and carried out by the late Benjamin Fay, er's manner, as he began : that all might not be well, so to make sure tic.

I presented it at the banker's. There was, He spoke to me, remarked the oddity of of Chicago, will hold a prominent place. as I told you, a consultation before they cashed it, and while the consultation was going forward I noticed a strang-er looking at me intently. I knew the man in my younger and wilder days. I had man in my younger and wilder days. I had met him often at a race course, in billiard We had made the last stoppage, and were the instruction of the stoppage and the stoppage an respectable. Now he was changing a cheque for some petty amount, and was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger, telling me that it was pictol to which was evidently astonished by the immensity of ring from his finger.

the order I had presented. I left the bank a curious piece of workmanship, having a pistol to which was attached one end of a with my pocket-book full of notes, and secret spring, which he said I could not dis-string. To the other end of the string was tound that I had lost the train. The next cover. would be the night express, so I strolled I took it, searched in vain for a spring, into a billiard room. A man is just as safe then returned it to him. It dropped and man to where the iron weight had lain, with a fortune in his pocket as if penni- rolled under my feet. train had come in, but his messenger had not returned, and the merchant was not returned, and the merchant was troubled—troubled by a vain sort of doubt, which haunted him in spite of his faith in Lake A marry scher old trader of long jury, just now.'

4 How ?'

against it ever reaching you.'

possessed by the vague shadow of a single ately for a chance of resistance. idea. I had read somewhere of a man be Their work was nearly done. Cramped self- sacrifice will have been in vain.

blistered and forever destroyed."

could not see the face of one, and the oth- open air. Sometimes his body would

The bell rang. The guard had just time dured. Arriving at Truckee, Gradison

AN EXTRAORDINARY CRIME

attached an iron weight. The string was long enough, taut, to reach from the dead and the number of empty chamber in the which startled me. My challenger was the man whom I had Though the horror of the situation did to kill himself and fabricate the appear-ance of having been robbed and murdered, room, one of his favorite resorts, but I was for the pocket-book, and I strained desper- and the husband and father's fraudulent

'And you,' I said, ' how will you act ?' and used freely. This substance blisters Der We understand that Mr. George A. 'And yon,' I said, 'how will you act ?' 'I shall travel to Liverpool by the night peel off Mr. Jones as if he had been boil- produce in Montreal, has been requested ed. His hair and the wound on his head to prepare a pamphlet on the butter trade ing him to be a clever and determined fel- was filled with tar. The hair stuck out in of Canada, with the view of having it all directions, or at least a mass of tar printed, at the public expense, and circustuck out. The sockets of his eyes were lated widely amongst farmers and country Taking a casual glance across the road, level full with solid tar, which seemed to store keepers. The gentleman named has and then Tom Lake came in. He went is aw my man with his companion. It was have been poured into them and allowed a thorough knowledge of the butter trade,

I took my ticket, lingering almost to the Sightless, helpless, coated with a horrid widest publicity and consideration, for the moment of starting before I entered the oderiferous substance, he sat silently, with dairy interest in Canada is of great and

He left me. I had no fear now-know-