

A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL OUR PATRONS.

The Weekly Monitor.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 22, 1886.

CHRISTMAS.

Again has the unceasing throbbing of time's onward march brought us close to the period made sacred to mankind by its holy origin and associations...

It has always been our custom in general with the majority of our contemporaries to greet our readers with quite a lengthy leader; but as it appears to us that everything that comes to us as well as to occupy our space with what would be only a repetition of thoughts woven into transparent gauze.

There are some things, however, that cannot be touched upon too frequently. Forgiveness is one. Let the true Christmas spirit enter into the hearts of all at variance with each other...

Clearly, is another eminent attribute of the day. Almost everyone, in a greater or less degree, has it in his or her power to exercise this virtue. Try and think of some poor and deserving family, who have a hard struggle to make both ends meet...

Charity is another eminent attribute of the day. Almost everyone, in a greater or less degree, has it in his or her power to exercise this virtue. Try and think of some poor and deserving family...

The Monitor has endeavored to speak a few timely words of counsel in the above which it trusts will be received in the same spirit in which it is uttered. Elsewhere in its columns will be found other suitable literature for the day...

It will not be out of place just now to say a few words in reference to Bridgetown and its general standing, as a business community. We have always contended and still maintain that this town in proportion to its size is second to none...

Just received by J. Z. Bent, fine steel Engravings, Landscape Paintings, etc. Framing especially. I supply agents. Parties dealing direct with me will receive the benefit.

Mr. Solomon Clark, of Clarence has a thorough bred Durham cow, four years old, that now has her fourth calf. She looks first prize at the Annapolis Exhibition.

Remember the 30 per cent discount offered by the Acadia Organ Co. in its humming. It is a fine organ, and buy an Organ at the above discount from the factory during the Holidays, Come and see.

Public Schools.—According to the regulation governing holidays, the Christmas recess of this year will begin on Friday, 24th Dec. Public schools will therefore close on Thursday, 23rd inst.

Just opened at John Lockett's, a large stock of Oranges, Lemons, Figs, Grapes, Nuts, etc. Also some hanging lamps.

The meeting of the Annapolis Convention, held on Tuesday, Dec. 14th, was attended by delegates from Annapolis, St. John's, and Grand Ferry. Officers were elected for the coming year.

The relative and friends of Mr. Gilbert Bent, of St. John, N. B., a native of this County, will be interested in the following from the Globe on the 14th inst.:

The January number of Arthur's Home Magazine is at hand, with its usual attractive table of contents and charming illustrations. The short stories are capital, and the news by M. G. McClelland begins well, and promises to be one of the best by this rising young writer.

A Christmas hymn. It came upon the midnight clear, That glorious song of old, From angels bending near the earth...

Still through the cloven skies they come With peaceful wings unfurled; And still their heavenly music floats Above us like a sweet wind...

Yet with the woes of sin and strife The world has suffered long; Beneath the angel-steps have rolled Two thousand years of wrong;

For to the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;

For in the days are hastening on, By prophets seeried foretold; Comes round the age of gold; When Peace shall over all the earth Its ancient benediction send;
