

God's name we must not take in vain ;
 Oaths must not our lips defile,
 And when we pray to His great name,
 Nothing must our lips beguile.

To ponder on God's wondrous love,
 One day in seven we must rest,
 And raise our thoughts to things above ;
 God does thus obedience test.

God has earthly parents given,
 All must honour and obey ;
 Homes will be a type of heaven,
 And prolonged will be our day.

When our God and earthly parents
 Get from man what is their due,
 Then the former five great talents
 Will the other five renew.

All malice will be put away.
 Anger, bitterness and strife,
 Will not incite a hand to slay,
 Shortening another's life.

No selfish habits will control,
 Working out deceit and lies :
 Drinking not then, inflame the soul,
 Nor poisonous love the eyes.

Then, they that stole no more will steal ;
 All our labour will be sweet,
 None will envy, nor jealous feel,
 Nor any desire to cheat.

False witnesses from earth will flee ;
 Evil speaking then will cease,
 And man, just like the busy bee,
 Do his daily work in peace.

Each one happy in his home
 Will not covet other's things,
 But all, with one great mighty tone,
 Praise to God the Father sing.

God's ten commands will then suffice ;
 Man's laws will not find a place,
 For we will then have done with vice,
 And all will be wise and chaste.
