

Again—be consistent, stick to type, don't cross breeds recklessly; choose pure bred stallions always—the best in the district; never breed the scrub, unsound or worn-out mare under any consideration.

THIS IS NOT ENOUGH

It guarantees only the breeding of the foal. The latter may have every hereditary advantage and still be a failure. The environment—feeding, care, management—determines its development.

Horses of good inheritance are made or marred by the usage they receive until they reach maturity. Good feeding and management must follow careful mating to produce the outstanding profit—making horse.

MAINTENANCE RATIONS.

Doctor (making Sunday morning visit at Hospital).—"Well, Mac how are you this morning? Have you had breakfast yet?"

MacK.—(Who is on 'light diet' and has just devoured all the edible contents of his tray).—"Not yet Doc.,—I've just been taking communion though."

ANOTHER GUESS.

Fair Visitor, (pointing to 'weather shelters' near Physics building).—"What kind of birds do they keep in those houses?"

Mr. P.—"No birds at all. They have thermometers in them."

Fair Visitor.—"I am sure they have birds in them too for I saw a man feeding them yesterday."

ANXIOUS—Crewe—"Good heavens, how it rains! I feel awfully anxious about my wife. She's gone out without an umbrella."

Drew—"Oh, she'll be all right. She'll take shelter in some shop."

Crewe—"Exactly. That's what makes me so anxious."—Tit-Bits.

TRY THIS.—Mrs. Crawford—"Have n't you ever discovered a way to get money out of your husband?"

Mrs. Crabshaw—"Oh, yes. All I have to do is to threaten to go home to mother and without a word he hands over the railway-fare."—The Lamb.

PEACEFUL MAN.—A man in Louisville, arrested on suspicion, was found to have three loaded pistols in his pockets, but the judge released him. Three revolvers are not suspicious in Louisville unless accompanied by a couple of daggers and a time-fuse bomb.—San Francisco Chronicle.

AN EXPERIENCE MEETING.—JOE Stein, of Sheboygan, divorced for wife-abandonment, is serving two years in jail for the same reason. Thomas Wagner, who married the former Mrs. Stein, has been sent to jail for non-support. Stein and Wagner occupy the same cell.—Fond du Lac Reporter.

Cholly—Do you think it would be foolish for me to marry a girl who was my intellectual inferior?

Dolly—More than foolish—impossible.—Cleveland Leader.
