WEAK AND WEARY WOMEN FIND A REAL FRIEND IN SOUTH AMERICAN NERVINE.

Despaired of by All Her Friends, and Her Case Pronounced Hopeless by Doctors, Miss Annie Patterson, of Sackville, N.B., Was Restored to Perfect Health.

PERHAPS he was a cynic! but some one has said that in this age there are no healthy women. Let us be generous and discount the statement. The age has many women, strong and noble physically, as they are mentally, and morally; but it is true nevertheless, that a large percentage of the women of the country suffer from nervousness and general debility. They drag out a weary existence, and each day is a day of pain and suffering. This was the case with Miss Annie Patterson, of Sackville, N.B., a lady widely known in those parts. She was weak, and showed symptoms of entering a decline. She suffered terribly from indigestion and nervousness. Having tried practically all sorts of remedies, and called in the assistance of the cleverest physician, and, these doing her no good, she was influenced by some one, somehow, to try South American Nervine. Of course, it was like hoping against hope—another patent medicine. But she had taken only one bottle when her system began to take on the health of earlier years, and after using three bottles she was completely cured. No wonder she is strong in her conviction that there is no remedy like South American Nervine.

This remedy is a remarkable health builder, it removes dis-ease, strengthens the nerves, and puts on flesh. Miss Patterson's case is only one of thousands that have been chronicled in these columns at different times.

The Presbytery of Toronto at its regular meeting on the 1st of October agreed to grant six months' leave of absence to the Rev. D. J. Macdonnell on account of ill health, and again expressed deep sympathy with him in his severe illness. It was agreed to endeavor to secure some form of organization for the Young People in connection with the Presbytery, and to utilize as far as possible the organization already in existence in this city. A resolution of sympathy with the Rev. Mr. Gilray, and with Mr. Joseph Gibson, in their loss of a wife and a daughter, was sustained, and ordered to be forwarded to each. The name of the Rev. Alex. Mackay, D.D., having been omitted from the Appendix to the Roll, the Clerk drew attention to the omission, and stated that Mr. McKay was still under the care of this Presbytery. A call from St. Enoch's congregation in this city was presented and sustained. The call was addressed to the Rev. Alex. McMillan, pastor of Mimico congregation in this Presbytery. Mr. McMillan having left the matter in the hands of the Presbytery, it was agreed to translate him to the charge of St. Enoch's, and Presbytery will meet on Monday the 21st inst. for his induction. The Moderator, Rev. J. Neil, will preside, and address the people. Mr. J. A. Grant will preach and Dr. Parsons deliver the address to the pastor. Mr. McMillan was appointed interim Moderator of Mimico. The following students were on the report of the Committee on Applications ordered to be certified to the Senate of Knox College: J. D. Jeffrey, A. Mullin, W. S. McKay, and H. Cowan, for Third Year Theology; G. P. Duncar, for Second Year Theology; Harper Gray and B. D. Macdonald for First Year Theology; C. A. McCrae and J. D. Morrow for First Year Preparatory, and F. W. Mahaffy and J. Johnston were recognized as students preparing for the ministry. Mr. W. A. Munro was certified to the Assembly's Home Mission Committee for work during the coming winter.—R. C. TIBB, Clerk.
