

THE PRAIRIE

ILLUSTRATED

Vol. I No. 1.

CALGARY, SATURDAY, MARCH 21, 1891.

Price 10c.

SIR JOHN—Will ye be obsarvin, Mister Prairie, the immense size to which his tail is growing; shure, an it's that that's made his temper so mighty unsartin of late.

OUR FAMILIAR—Sir John, before long the civilized world will behold the phenonemop of the "Tail wagging the dog."