THE REV. FAIHER QUINN'S NATAL JUBILEE.

To the Editor of THE POST: It was the realization of a happy inspira-tion to hold a featival in honor of the anni-versary of the birth, and the twenty-third of the pastorate here, of the Rev. Patrick Quinn, the very esteemed curé of the parish of St. Bibien of Richmond and vicinity, in the assembly room of the Convent of the Congregation of Notre Dame, Richmond, on the 16th inst., the evening before St. Patrick's Day. The convent hall was britliantly and prettily decorated with overgreens, flags, etc., etc. To the right and left of the central arch, with the harp for a keystone, were the following artiscally executed mot-toes in English, French and Latin:—"Wel-come Joy," "Bienvenue," (welcome) and "Vivat," fully translated (may be live long). Upwards of one hundred little girls and young ladies uniformally, but tastefully, arrayed, occupied the body of the hall on the one side, while the parent, and invited guests were seated on the opposits side, and in front of these, in places of honor, to the right and left of the Rev. Father Quion, were seated the Rev. Fathers and Brothers who had come from the surrounding parishes to do weil merited honor to their esteemed confrers on this auspicions occasion, viz. : the Venerable Rev. Father McCauley, P.P. Conticooke, able Rev. Father McCauley, P.P. Coaticooke, the Rev. Father Alexander, P.P. L'Avenir, the Rev. Father Mouscau, Vicar L'Avenir, the Rev. Father Connolly, P.P., South Dur-ham, the Rev. Father Diguan, P.P., Windsor Mills, the Rev. Father Mailhiot, P. Parish Satton, the Rev. Father Lacerto, Vicar, ichmond, and the Rev. Bros. Hilarion, Fabien and Louis Paul, teachers of the boys Catholic Academy, Richmond. The central space afforded room for the piano, and for the carrying out of the pleasing comemorative pupils of the convent. The execution of a choir and well arranged programme elicited frequent and much deserved applause from the auditors.

conducted solely by the youthful

Were we not aware of the wishes of Father Quian to avoid newspaper publicity, it would please our readers should we give in extenso his address of thankfulness and gratitude, as also his impressive words of advice and counsel to the pupils,—the appropriate remarks of Venerable Father McCauley,—showed that he had lost none of his well known wit and elequence.

The several exercises of the pupils in song and recitation evinced assiduous memorization and carefully supervised rehearsal; their prenounciation, both in French and English. was particularly good. The performance on on the piano manifisted superior instruction and painstaking practice, and the manners of the pupils were very polite. The lady superioress and her associates are deserving of much praise for the great progress evidently made by their pupils in so short a period of time. Since the opening of this new and flurrishing institution of learning, from its increasing patronage, it is quite evident that their new, excellent, and commodious convent building will need very considerable enlargement at no very distant day.

Of the Rev. Father Quina and his successful labore during his twen'y three years' pastorate in Richmond, it is difficult to speak without using words which to strangers would seem too eulogistic. In 1863, when but a young man 27 years of age, he entered this field of labor, which for years had been occupied by Father Tahen of revered memory, and beloved alike by Catholics and non-Catholics, the best well wishers of his successor could hardly be expected to do otherwise than to alternate between hope and fear for his then youthful successor in this important parish; but the trying ordeal was safely passed, and with auspicious surroundings hope budded and blossomed into full fruition, and to-day, mond and vicinity have been with many learned and highly esteemed pastors, Catholic and Protestant, the history of none of the parishes under their charge, has been more noble work of those societies which are actnoteworthy than that of Ste. Bibien during in all things according to the spirit of the the past quarter of a century and upwards; in this all our good citizens of every tongue, kindred and creed will agree.
AN INVITED GUEST.

CARDINAL MANNING'S DENIAL. Sir,—As I promise, I send to you for publication the letter of His Emineuce Cardinal Manning to me respecting the forged letter.
Yours, etc.,

John Joseph Lynch, Archbishop of Toronto, St. Michael's Palace, March 22.

ARCHBISHOP'S HOUUSE, WEST-MINSTER, S.W., Feb. 24. My DEAR LORD ARCHBISHOP, -I thank your Grace, and through you many other who have sent to me the forged letter which has been published as mine. On Saturday last, as soon as it reached me, I telegraphed to your good dean to expose this imposture. What good the forger thought to gain I do not know, but I may turn his handiwork to good account. It gives me the opportunity to say that, from the hour I saw the full light of the Catholic faith, no shade of doubt has ever passed over my reason or my conscience. I could as soon believe that a part is equal to the whole as that Protestantism in any shape, from Lutheranism to Anglicanism, is the revelation of the day of Pentecost. As to my friends, the priests here and in many lands, they have been to me my help and consolution, as to the conversion of others, my last five and thirty years have been spent in receiving them into the Church.

I am glad to take this occasion, which the forger has made for me, to bear once more my thankful witness to the Catholic Church. The worst I wish him is that his eyes may he opened to see the truth, and the unworthiless of his own act.

Believe me, my dear Lord Archbishop, your affectionate servant in Christ,

HENRY E., Card. Archbishop of Weatminster.

> Holloway's Pills.-The changes of temperature and weather frequently upset persons who are most cautious of their health, and most particular in their diets. These corrective, ptrifying, and gentle aperient Pills are the best remedy for all defective actions of the digestive organs; they augment the appetite, strengthen the stomach, correct biliousness, and carry off all that is noxious from the system. Holloway's Pills are composed of rare balsams, unmixed with baser matter, and on that account are peculiarly well adapted for the roung, delicate, and aged. As this peerless medicine has gained fame in the past, so will it preserve it in the future by its removating and invigorating qualities, and its incapacity of doing harm.
