An enlargement of the British Moseum is proposed.

Bach department is full to bursting, and many of the choicest treasures are lost to the public for tack of pace. Not one half of the collection of Natural Hispace. Not one half of the collection of Natural Hispace. Not one half of the public, and a great deal of it for its exhibited to the public, and a great deal of it is rotting in cellars. A large collection of antiquities—including coins and medals—is not shown for want of room. At the present moment both these want of room. At the present moment both these want of great departments, Antiquities and Natural History, require more than double the space they now tory, require more than double the space they now tory, require more than double the space they now tory. Then, again, there is in the Museum one of occupy. Then, again, there is in the Museum one of the noblest collections of prints and drawings in Euthe noniest confections of prints and drawings in Eu-rope—collections admirable kept under lock and key in drawer and chest—but perfectly invisible to the public. Only fancy a collection of drawings that cannot be seen !

REVERSEE FOR ROYALTY IN SPAIN .- M. Forcade, a man of consideration among the French literati, a man of the last journey through Spain to Alicant. He witnessed there the inauguration of the Madrid and Alicant Railroad; he had taken the game route as Queen Isabel on the road to the port, and stopped everywhere to observe the popular and supposes. He relates, in the Political Chronicle of the Revue des Deux Mondes, that multitudes of the people of the towns and the country travelled from people of the county travelled from all distances to hail the sovereign at the railroad all districts to had the covereign at the railroad stations; they waited hours for her arrival under a burning sun; the greater part knelt as she approached; doves were let loose to fly about the equipages; the Queen herself was astonished at the enthusiastic emotion of the concourse; che repeatedly wept for joy, and held forth the Royal Princess, her youngest child. The diversified and picturesque original costumes of the peasantry—especially of the mountaineers-and the varieties of countenances and stature enhanced the interest of these scenes-M. Forcade remarks, "royalty in Spain is truly an institution with a deep vigorous vitality; the politicians of Madrid have no idea of the fervor of the national sentiment in the provinces, and along the coast."

AN AME TO GRIND-ORIGIN OF THE TERM.-"When I was a little boy," says Dr. Franklin, "I re-member one cold winter morning I was accosted by a smiling man with an axe on his shoulder." My a smiling man with an axe on his shoulder." My pretty boy," said he, "has your father a grindstone?" "Yes sir," said I. "You are a fine little fellow," said he, "will you let me grind my axe on it?"—Pleased with the compliment of the "fine little fel-Pleasen with the compliment of the "line little rel-low," "O yes," I answered, "it is down in the shop." "And will you, my little fellow," said he, patting me on the head," get me a little hot water?" Could I refuse? I ran and soon brought a kettle full. " How old are you and what's your name?" continued he, without waiting for a reply; "I am sure you are one of the finest little fellows that I ever saw; will you just turn a few minutes for me?" Tickled at the flattery, like a fool, I went to work, and bitterly did I rue the day. It was a new axe, and I toiled and tugged till I was almost tired to death. The school bell rang and I could not get away; my hands were blistered, the axe was sharpened, and the man turned o me with, "Now, you little rascal, you've played truant; send for school or you'll rue it." Alas! thought I, it is hard enough to turn the grindstone this cold day, but to be called a little rascal was too this cold day, out to be eathed a fittle resear was too much. It sunk deep in my mind, and often have I thought of it since. When I see a merchan over polite to his customers, begging them to take a little brandy, and throwing his goods on the counter, research and the counter of the students of the counter, research and the counter of the students of the counter, research and the counter of the students of the counter of brandy, and throwing his goods on the counter, thinks I, that man has an axe to grind. When I see a man flattering the people, making great profession of attachment to liberty, who is in private life a triant, methinks look out good people, that fellow would set you turning a grindstone. When I see a man hoisted into office by party spirit, without a single qualification to render him respectable or useful, alas! deluded people, you are doomed for a season to turn the grindstone for a body.

How Cortez Conquered Wrath .- When very angry, there was a vein which swelled in his forehead, and another in his throat; but, however enraged, his words were always mild and decorous. He might indulge with his friends in such an expression as, "Plague upon you," but to the common soldiers, even when they said the rudest things to him, he merely replied, "Be silent, or go in God's name, and from henceforward have more care what you say, or it will cost you dear, and I shall have to chastise you." it appears that, in extreme cases of anger, he had a curious habit of throwing off his cloak; but even then he always kept himself from coarse and violent language-a wise practice; for a furious gesture is rendily forgiven, (it is a mere sign of the passion of the speaker;) not so a single hasty word, which may kindle all the fires of vanity in the person spoken to. in his mode of argument the same composure was visible, and he was a master in the arts of persuasive

THE CRINOLIMETER. - The lessees of dancing saloons of Belgium complain bitterly of the falling off in their receipts, occasioned by the extra space now occupied by crinolines. An instrument, called the "Crinolimetre," has consequently been adopted by some of them, and persons whose crinolines surpass a fixed development are charged an extra admission fee.

ALPHABET OF PROVERBS .- A grain of prudence is worth a pound of craft.—Boasters are cousins to liars.-Confession of a fault makes half amends.-Denying a fault doubles it .- Envy shooteth at others and wounds herself.-Foolish fear doubles danger.-God reaches us good things by our hands .- He has bard work who has nothing to do.—It costs more to revenge wrongs than to bear them.—Knavery is the worst trade.—Learning makes a man fit company for himself.-Modesty is a guard to virtue.- Not to hear conscience is the way to silence it .- One hour to-day is worth two to-morrow.-Proud looks make foul works in fair faces.-Quiet conscience gives quiet sleep.-Richest is he that wants least .- Small faults indulged are the little thieves that let in greater .-The boughs that bear most hang lowest .- Upright walking is sure walking .- Virtue and happiness are mother and daughter .- Wise men make more opportunities than they find.—You never lose by doing a good turn.—Zeal without knowledge is fire without light.

HAVERHILL, Mass., Feb. 7, 1857. Dear Sir-Permit me the pleasure of stating to you the gratification I have in vending, and the universal favor, Hoofland's German Bitters meet with, by nearly every person who has had occasion to test their virtues in this vicinity. This establishment has had the Agency of your Medicine since 1853, and I can safely say, there has been no remedy placed before the public within the scope of my knowledge that has met so much general favor, and so worthily as the German Bitters. I have no hesitation in recommending them to our customers, suffering with diseases for which they are appropriate, feeling conadent from past experience that they will do all, and tren more, than is promised of them. In Dyspepsis and Liver Complaint, I defy an equal. To Druggists I can recommend them as a safe investment, and to the public as a truly worthy remedy.

Very truly yours, CHAS. B. EMERSON. To Dr. C. M. Jackson.

These Bitters can be had of any druggist or dealer medicines, in the United States, Canadas, West Indies, or South America, at 75 cents per bottle .-They are prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, 418 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa., and every bottle has his signature on the wrapper.

TO THE INDEPENDENT ELECTORS

OF THE DIVISION OF ALMA.

GENTLEMEN-Will SAIL on her Second Voyage from QUEBEC on AS you will soon be called upon to exercise the 16th OCTOBER.

RATES OF PASSAGE:

AS you will soon be called upon to exercise the Elective Franchise, in selecting a person to represent you in the Legislative Council, and having been honored with the urgent solicitations of a very large and influential number of the Electors of this Division, requesting me that I would allow myself to be nominated as a Candidate-I have consented; and trusting to your intelligence and independence, now appear before you, formally soliciting your support. Should I consult my own private interests alone, should certainly decline accepting the candidature; but the reasons which have been urged, and the recognised necessity which exists for practical representatives of the commercial interests of the country, in our Legislative bodies, render it imperative upon me to lay aside all private considerations, and yield myself to the guidance of the dictates of my convictions of duty.

Born and educated amongst you, my sympathies, sentiments, associations, and interests, are identified with yours, and are a guarantee to a large extent, that your interests and opinions will be faithfully represented by me, should I be elected your Representative. But when a man comes before his fellow-citizens, or suffers himself to be brought forward by others, claiming their suffrages, it is justly expected that his principles and views should be made known as fully as possible, in order that the electors may be guided in their choice, by principles, and not personal considerations. Holding these views, and also in obedience to custom, I have now to lay before you my reasons for asking your suffrages, at the approaching election, to represent you in the Legislaive Council.

My name has, for some months past, been before you as a probable Candidate, and there are very few amongst you who have not been cognisant of the There has been ample opportunity therefore to make yourselves acquainted with my antecedents, character, &c., and thus prepare the way for action on your part, in reference to the more formal course now taken by me, either to pronounce in favor or against my pretensions. My reasons for appearing before you and asking your suffrages may be expressed by the comprehensive term "Commercial." Agri-culture, Manufactures, and Commerce are inseparably connected in their bearing upon the material prosperity of the country; but the two first named occupy the most important position, inasmuch as without production no commerce would exist. It is believed, and I coincide with those who entertain that opinion, that there is a deliciency of practical representation of the above-named interests. We have had a large share of experimentalising legislation, (if I may so term it) bearing upon our sources of material prosperity; and it is much to be regretted that no definite policy has prevailed, as nothing so retards the placement of capital, so necessary to the erection of large manufactories, and the engagement in large commercial transactions, as uncertainty in regard to the fiscal policy of the country. If the subjects of "Free Trade" and "Protection" were to be fully discussed, not as abstract theories, but as applicable to the circumstances of the country and a definite policy decided upon, there is no doubt that much good would result. I do not hesitate to announce it as my settled conviction that " Free Trade," being the normal condition of Commerce, is better calculated to develope the resources of the various countries of the world, than the imposition of restrictions involved in a protective theory-provided such a policy were adopted throughout the world. But it is conceded by the advocates of both theories, that our position, in reference to revenue and other countries, is such as to render our adoption of the "Free Trade" policy in its integrity impossible; and a compromise between the two opposite theories, called "Incidental Protection," has bitherto received approval; but that policy is so uncertain in its duration, and variable in its details, that it has given rise to many evils which might, perhaps, have been avoided. My opinion is, that our position in reference to other countries, more particularly the neighboring Republic, eminently a commercial country, and with which the large majority of our commercial transactions are undoubtedly occurring, is such as to render it advisable to adopt a system of reciprocity of duties; or, in other words, assimilate our Customs Tariff to that of the United States, in so far as it affects such articles as are, or can be, advantageously produced in Canada: such reciprocity of duties, or assimilation of Tariff, to be the well understood fiscal policy of the country, extending even to perfect Free Trade, whenever the United States chooses to adopt such a policy. do not stop here to enquire how far such a policy on our part would meet the approval of the Imperial low us to proceed in such a direction; fully believing that any difficulties which may possibly exist, could be overcome. My political position is one strictly independent of either party of the parties known as Ministerialists and Oppositionists; and should I be elected, I shall occupy an independent position; prepared to do my duty to my constituents and the country, without reference to whatever party may occupy the Treasury benches, not lending my vote or influence to factious movements of any kind. There is one great question before the country, upon which it is incumhent on me to declare my viewsviz., the question of "Representation based upon Po-pulation." On looking back from the Union of Upper and Lower Canada to the passage of the Act changing the Constitution of the Legislative Council in 1854, we find that the principle of Federalism, or perfect equality of the two Provinces, has been the basis of the Constitution and all political changes sentation may be, it certainly is not applicable to our circumstances and political position. I am in favor of the most perfect equality of rights, privileges, and immunities of all classes, in reference to Educational and Religious convictions; and pledge myself to use my influence and vote, if elected, in favor of any class who may be found not in the full enjoyment of such equality of rights. I am opposed to all Secret-Politico-Religious Societies. You are aware of the prominent part which I have taken in reference to the Extension of the Harbor in Montreal, and the erection of Docks by means of a Canal debouching at Hochelaga Bay; and in opposition to the plan locating such works at Pointe St. Charles. I shall continue my exertions to that end, and spare no pains to accomplish the object in view. I have the honor to be,

and arrangements which have been made; hence the question of Representation based upon Population, involves a total change of the Constitution; and

FREE AND INDEPENDENT ELECTORS

OF THE ELECTORAL DIVISION OF ALMA.

Having been required by a great many of you to solicit the maintenant of har Electors of the flourishing Electoral Division of a limb 1 consider that to decline would be a likely of pairiotism on my part, and that it is my duty to try and make myself useful to my countrymen; I therefore demand your suffrages with that confidence which arises from the intimate acquaintance. I have of the natriotism, which aniacquaintance I have of the patriotism which animates a great many among you—confidence which is enhanced by the circumstance that my interests are identical with yours; for besides being a proprietor in the country, I am possessed likewise of extensive property situate at the City in the Wards interested in the contest engaged.

I do not come forward as a purty man, but as a man entirely independent. I am altogether free. I do not want to solicit any favor from Government, and have nothing to expect from any administration

I might abstain presently from expounding political principles, as they are known to the majority of you, nevertheless I feel bound to set forth my views on the most important measures.

Being a farmer myself, I shall do all in my power for the improvement and encouragement of agriculture which is the source of the prosperity of this country. Trade is in a prosperous condition. Owing to the works executed in the Gulf and Lake St. Peter, and hose projected at Hochelaga, it cannot fail to attract all the product of the West: such a great cause of prosperity will obtain my attention.

Need I tell you that our national industry will be the object of my assiduous care? I shall endeavour to favour our home manufactures and industrial enterprise: for no one derives more benefit therefrom than the farmer.

The colonisation of our secular forest, colonisation destined to stay the tide of emigration of our youth towards foreign countries, shall not be the least object of my Legislative duties.

To the cause of education I shall devote my constant solicitude. Useless to say that I am opposed and will ever be strongly opposed to the mixed school system. I shall ever be an indefatigable adversary of Representation based on the respective Population of the two sections of this Province.

Such are, Fellow-Countrymen, my views on those important measures of public interest-questions of considerable moment on the solution of which greatly depends the prosperity of our common country.

I have the honor to be, Jos. F. ARMAND. Riviere des Prairies, July 26, 1858.
