

D. & J. SADLER & Co., HAVE JUST PUBLISHED THE GOLDEN MANUAL; BEING A GUIDE TO CATHOLIC DEVOTION, PUBLIC AND PRIVATE, With the approbation of the Most Rev. Dr. Hughes, Archbishop of New York. THIS Manual contains, in addition to forms in general use, various devotions selected from approved continental works. The Prayers, Litanies, &c., have been collected from the Latin originals, wherever such were known to exist. The English versions of the Psalms here given, have been constructed by a comparison of the authorized Douay text, (to which in substance it adheres,) with the several other versions, which from time to time have been sanctioned for the purpose of devotion. The indulgent prayers have been literally translated from the Racolla, Dominici's Treatise on Indulgences, and the best edition of the Catechism Palmatrix. The particulars connected with the Confraternities, &c., to which indulgences are attached, have been carefully collected from authorized sources. The American Edition has been enlarged by the addition of three hundred pages of matter, under the supervision of a Rev. gentleman of New York. Many new translations have been made expressly for it, and a great number of Prayers have been added, which are in constant use in this country. The Illustrations are appropriate and well executed. We send this book conditionally before the public, with the assurance that no expense has been spared to make it (what it really is) the most complete Prayer Book ever published in the English language. The following notice of the work, is taken from Brownson's Quarterly Review for July, 1851:— "This is a reprint from an English Manual approved by Cardinal Wiseman, with large additions by the American editor. It is the largest and most complete manual of devotion we are acquainted with. It contains a great variety of devotions, adapted to almost every occasion and to every taste, and, as far as we have examined it, selected with judgment and true devotional feeling. We know of little, except in devotions before and after communion, that we could desire to have added, and we have met with nothing in it that we wish to have omitted. It is due to the publishers to say that the copy before us is well printed, and richly bound. It contains numerous illustrations, several of which are executed with much skill and artistic skill and taste. There is no occasion to commend this Golden Manual to the public, for it is approved by the Most Rev. the Archbishop of New York, and is sure to become, and deservedly, a great favorite with devout Christians." 18mo. of 1041 pages, at the following very low prices:—

BENJAMIN; OR THE PUPIL OF THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS. Translated from the French, by Mrs. J. Sadler—32mo. of 250 pages, price only 1s 3d, or 10s. the dozen. The following preface by the translator, will explain the nature of the work:— "At the present moment when the whole Catholic world is awaking to the vital importance of securing a religious education for the rising generation, it seemed to me that this little work might do a great deal of good, and I have hastily thrown it into an English form for the benefit of our own people, both parents and children. Let both read, the children for amusement, and the parents for instruction, and let the latter reflect on the contents of this simple volume,—they will find it a most useful lesson. It is with inexpressible joy that I see the schools of the Christian Brothers spreading from town to town and from city to city throughout the length and breadth of Christendom. Nation after nation is opening her arms to invite their approach, and wherever they go, they bring with them true faith, humble fervent piety, and the purest of all morality. These are the lessons they every where inculcate, and our Benjamin is but one instance of the benign effects of their teachings. The day has at length come, when Catholic parents have no longer an excuse for sending their children to 'Godless' schools—they all have the means of having sound religious instructions, blended with their children's secular learning, and we be to them if they avail themselves not of the advantages placed by Providence at their disposal."

CANTON HOUSE. FAMILY TEA, COFFEE AND SUGAR WAREHOUSE, No. 109, Notre Dame Street.

SAMUEL COCHRAN invites the attention of Consumers to his Stock of TEAS and COFFEES, which have been selected with the greatest care, and on such terms as to allow him to offer them at unusually low prices. The MACHINERY on the Premises, worked by a Four Horse Power Steam Engine, for Roasting and Grinding Coffee, is on the most approved plan, the Coffee being closely confined in polished metal spheres, which are constantly revolving and oscillating in heated air chambers, is prevented imbibing taint from Smoke, danger of partial carbonisation of the Bean and loss of Aroma, so important to Connoisseurs, which is further ensured by attention to Grinding at the shortest time prior to Sale. To this elaborate process SAMUEL COCHRAN owes the high reputation his Coffee has obtained through a large portion of the Provinces. CRYSTALLISED SUGAR (much admired for Coffee), REFINED SUGAR in small loaves, and WEST INDIA SUGARS, of the best quality, always on hand. A few of the choicest selections of TEAS may be had at the CANTON HOUSE, Native Catty Packages, unrivaled in flavor and perfume, at moderate terms. Families residing distant from Montreal will have their orders scrupulously attended to, and forwarded with immediate despatch. June 12, 1851. 109, Notre Dame Street.

THE SUBSCRIBER takes this opportunity of returning his thanks to the Public, for the patronage extended to him, and takes pleasure in informing his friends and the public, that he has made extensive alterations and improvements in his house. He has fitted up his establishment entirely new this spring, and every attention will be given to the comfort and convenience of those who may favor him by stopping at his house. The Hotel is in the immediate vicinity of mercantile business,—within a few minutes walk of the various Steamboat Wharves, and will be found advantageously situated for Merchants from the Country, visiting Montreal on business. The Table will be furnished with the best the Markets can provide, and the delicacies and luxuries of the season will not be found wanting. The Stables are well known to the public, as large and commodious; and attentive and careful persons will always be kept in attendance. The charges will be found reasonable; and the Subscriber trusts, by constant personal attention to the wants and comfort of his guests, to secure a continuance of that patronage which has hitherto been given to him. M. P. RYAN. Montreal, 5th September, 1850.

MASSON'S COLLEGE, TERREBONNE. THE ENTRY of the STUDENTS of this Establishment for the current year, takes place on THURSDAY, the FOURTH SEPTEMBER next. Terrebonne, Aug. 28, 1851.

ST. PETER'S COLLEGE, CHAMBLY, C. E. THE COLLEGE will open on the NINTH of next month. It is regarded as very important that all the pupils should be present on the day appointed; for any delay is prejudicial to them, as well as to their parents, and to the College itself. As already well known to the Public, the course of Studies embraces Reading, Writing, Orthography, Arithmetic, Grammar, Composition, the Use of the Globes, Sacred and Profane History, Botany, Chemistry, Political Economy, Belles Lettres, Rhetoric, Book-keeping, Algebra, Geometry, Mensuration, Surveying, Astronomy, Natural and Moral Philosophy, Logic and Metaphysics, Eloquence (French and English), Music, Drawing, Greek and Latin. Besides the above Double Course of French and English, the completion of which necessarily requires five years, there will be, this year, a Special Class, consisting only and exclusively of Writing, French and English Grammar, with Arithmetic and Mathematics. The Latter Course for the benefit of those who, owing to peculiar circumstances, cannot spend more than one or two years at College, or who wish to enter a Commercial career. The system of government is mild and paternal, yet firm in enforcing discipline. The health and morals of the pupils are watched over with the tenderest solicitude. Catholic patronage alone solicited. In this establishment, all degrees of talent and fortune will meet that system of education suitable to their capacity, so as to make every one faithful to God, useful to himself and to society.

TERMS: Tuition, £4 per annum, half in advance; Board and Washing, 2s 6d per month, payable according to private agreement. TO THE CATHOLICS OF CANADA! A BEAUTIFUL MEZZOTINT ENGRAVING OF POPE PIUS IX., SEVENTEEN BY TWENTY-SIX INCHES, TAKEN FROM AMES' ORIGINAL PICTURE, FOR ONLY ONE DOLLAR!

EVERY person purchasing will receive a certificate, entitling the holder to a chance of obtaining the Painting, which will be drawn for on the plan adopted by the Art Unions. This picture was painted from life, at the Quirinal Palace, Rome, at the desire and petition of the Archbishop, and several of the Bishops, of the United States. It measures eight feet by twelve, and represents his Holiness in the long white pontifical dress, inwrought with gold and silver, and the various emblems of the Catholic Church, standing forth from the Papal chair, in the attitude of benediction. Across the Mosaic floor, in the background, stands in a niche of the chapel, a statue of St. Peter. The Drawing will take place within two years from the 1st May, 1851. The following letters, commendatory of this picture, have been received:— JOSEPH AMES, Esq., Boston, Jan 13, 1851.

Dear Sir:— I have examined the plan by which you propose to dispose of your much admired Painting of His HOLINESS PIUS THE NINTH, and think that it cannot fail to prove satisfactory to the public generally. You are at liberty to use my name for the purpose of obtaining subscribers, as I feel confident that none who may subscribe will fail to receive in the end more than an equivalent for their money. Respectfully yours, JOHN B. FITZPATRICK, Bishop of Boston. Having examined the plan for disposing of the Painting and Mezzotint Engravings of Pius IX., and being satisfied of the respectability of the parties concerned, and the extreme reasonableness of the conditions, I approve of it, and agree to take ten copies. FRANCIS PATRICK KENRICK, Bishop of Philadelphia. Philadelphia, March 15, 1851. JOSEPH AMES, Esq., Providence, R. I., June 10, 1851.

Dear Sir:— I approve much of the plan by which you propose to dispose of your admired painting of Pope Pius IX. As each subscriber will receive an engraving of this fine piece, a sufficient consideration for the subscription required, I would be much pleased to see it every where gracing the parlors of our people. Most respectfully yours, &c., BERNARD O'REILLY, Bishop of Hartford. The Engraving alone, is worth THREE times the price asked for it, and a copy of it should be found in the house of every Catholic. D. & J. SADLER & Co., 179, Notre Dame Street, Agents for Canada. August 23, 1851.

THOMAS PATTON, Dealer in Second-hand Clothes, Books, &c. &c. ST. ANN'S MARKET, MONTREAL.
