"What are those holes for in the Gruyere cheese?" "Oh, they're to let the smell out."

"We are discovered!" exclaimed the hair-pin. "Impossible!" insisted the collar-button.

She: I know, Alfred, I have my faults. He: Oh, certainly. She (angrily): Indeed. Perhaps you'll tell me what they are!

The Chinese troops refuse to fight unless they are paid. Quite natural. In the land of taels the soldiers want to do a cash business.

The Samoans will whip the Germans because they are much more courageous. One of their chiefs recently married his mother-in-law.

It is more romantic and better for the digestion to sleep with wedding cake under the pillow than to try to sleep with it in the stomach.

The Greek bandit, Papakkyritzopuolo, was recently followed to his lair and shot. The posse was made up of the secretaries and stenographers who had to spell his name.

Mrs. Strongmind: If women would only stand shoulder to shoulder they would soon win the suffrage. Dr. Guffy: But, madam, that is something they can't do with the present styles in sleeves.

"It's very puzzling," said a worried looking woman to one of her neighbours. "What is that?" "I can't tell whether Willie is corrupting the parrot, or whether the parrot is corrupting Willie."

"How did you vote in the last election, Uncle Jim?" "I don't member now, suh. Dey wuz two gentermens biddin' for me, en I ain't sho' ef de $10 one waz Democrat, Publican, or des twixt en between."

Schreiber: Have you seen that little poem of mine that has been going the rounds of the papers lately? Treiber: I saw it when it first appeared. What papers have copied it? "Well, ah—the fact is, it was before it was published that it went the rounds."

"How do you pronounce this word, g-o-l-f, Mr. Hicks?" "I don't really know, Miss Wilkins. Some people call it Golf to rhyme with Dolph; some Guff to rhyme with stuff; and a Boston girl I know called it Goff in a little verse she wrote, to rhyme with laugh."

"Can you change this fifty-dollar bill?" asked a seedy individual of the teller in the bank. The teller took the bill and looked at it. "I think I can change it for you." Then he stamped the word "counterfeit" across it two or three times and handed it to the man. "How's that?" he asked; "isn't that pretty well changed?"

A restaurant keeper, noticing that two of his customers were evidently trying to eat their suppers in the shortest possible time, lest they should miss the boat, which was nearly ready to start, thought it would be very funny to frighten them. Accordingly he went into a back room and gave a remarkable imitation of the steamboat's whistle. The joke worked well. The men heard the sound and rushed for the boat, and the joker laughed loud and long, until it suddenly occurred to him that the men had gone off without paying their bills. Then he stopped laughing.

A WOMAN'S BURDENS

are lightened when she turns to the right medicine. If her existence is made gloomy by the chronic weaknesses, delicate derangements, and painful disorders that afflict her sex, she will find relief and emancipation from her troubles in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. If she's overworked, nervous or "run-down," she has new life and strength after using this remarkable remedy. It's a powerful, invigorating tonic and nerve which was discovered and used by an eminent physician for many years, in all cases of "female complaints" and weaknesses. For young girls just entering womanhood; for women at the critical "change of life;" in bearing-down sensations, periodical pains, ulceration, inflammation, and every kindred ailment, if it ever fails to cure, you have your money.

"GREAT IS ACETOCURA."

185 Madison street,

Chicago, Aug. 17, 1894.

Gentlemen: One day last month I called into the office of your agent, Mr. S. W. Hall, on other business, and received the gentleman's condolence upon my wretched appearance. As a matter of fact, I was a sick man—had been receiving treatment from two different physicians without the slightest benefit. I certainly was discouraged, but afraid to let go. I had not had a decent night's rest for most ten days, no appetite, no ambition, "achey" all over, but bowels were in good order—the fact is, neither the physicians nor I knew just what the trouble was. Mr. Hall spoke of Acetocura. I confess I would have paid little attention to it but for my precarious condition. He insisted on giving me half a bottle to try, and refused to accept any payment for it. I read the pamphlet and had my mother rub me that evening. Failing to produce the flush within 15 minutes, I became thoroughly frightened—the flesh along the spine seemed to be dead—but persisting in it produced the required result in just 45 minutes. That night was the first peaceful one in ten, and on the morrow my spine was covered with millions of small pustules. By night I felt a considerable improvement. Owing to soreness the application was omitted, but again made the third night. The following day showed a wonderful change in me. I felt like a new man. Since then I have chased rheumatic pains several times, with the greatest ease. From being sceptic, I cannot help but say, "Great is Acetocura." It is truly wonderful, and I am most grateful to Mr. Hall for his action.

Respectfully yours,

P. O. BAUER.
