

expertise may be used in development and analysis of immigration programs and policy, monitoring human resource utilization, as well as reviewing and contributing to the improvement of humanitarian and refugee programs. You may also have an opportunity to work in other areas such as personnel or communications, or to take an assignment with Employment and Immigration Canada.

As a Social Affairs Officer of the Foreign Service you can play an important role today in shaping Canada's future.

MEET THE WORLD AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

