

7. If the request for extradition relates to a sentence of both imprisonment and a pecuniary sanction, the Requested Party may grant extradition for the enforcement of both the imprisonment and the pecuniary sanction.

8. If the request for extradition relates to a number of offences, each of which is punishable under the laws of both Parties, but some of which do not meet the other requirements of paragraphs 1 and 2, the Requested Party may grant extradition for such offences provided that the person is to be extradited for at least one extraditable offence.

ARTICLE 3

MANDATORY REFUSAL OF EXTRADITION

Extradition shall not be granted under this Treaty in any of the following circumstances:

1. When the offence for which extradition is requested is considered by the Requested Party to be a political offence. For the purpose of this paragraph, political offence shall not include:
 - (a) the taking or attempted taking of the life of a Head of State, a Head of Government, or a member of his or her family;
 - (b) an offence for which each Contracting Party has the obligation pursuant to a multilateral international agreement to extradite the person sought or to submit the case to its competent authorities for the purpose of prosecution;
 - (c) murder, manslaughter or other culpable homicide, malicious wounding or inflicting grievous bodily harm;
 - (d) an offence involving kidnapping, abducting, or any form of unlawful detention, including taking a hostage;
