

EXEMPT
Sec. 15(1)

5. Joint Committee for
Injury Determinations

Potentially, the same Joint Committee described above for subsidy issues could also resolve disputes over injury issues.

3. Political and Diplomatic
Resolution

It may come to pass that Canada and the United States will be unable, or unwilling, to agree on a set of general principles to govern subsidy and injury determinations. In that event, it may be advisable for the FIA to require consultations between the two governments immediately after a countervailing duty
