

ARTICLE 13

Existing Rights and Obligations

This Agreement shall not affect the rights and obligations of a Party resulting from other international agreements to which it is party.

Dispute Settlement

1. The Parties shall endeavour, in good faith, to resolve any dispute between them arising from the interpretation or implementation of this Agreement amicably, through consultations. Consultations shall take place as soon as reasonably practicable under the circumstances.
2. In particular, the Parties shall endeavour to resolve any dispute arising from the implementation of Article 11 or the Annex to this Agreement through consultations. Should such a dispute not be resolved within a reasonable time, the Parties may mutually decide to refer it to arbitration. Arbitration shall be subject to the Arbitration Rules of the United Nations Commission on Trade Law (UNCITRAL).

ARTICLE 15

Entry into Force, Amendment and Termination

1. This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of the latter written notification that domestic procedures necessary for its entry into force have been completed by the Parties.
2. This Agreement shall remain in force for an initial period of five years. It shall automatically be renewed for subsequent periods of five years, unless either Party notifies the other Party in writing of its intention not to renew the Agreement, at least ninety days prior to its expiry date.
3. This Agreement may be amended by mutual written agreement of the Parties. An amendment shall enter into force on the date of the latter written notification that domestic procedures necessary for its entry into force have been completed by the Parties.
