

Business of the House

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Batten): When shall the bill be read the third time? Now, by leave?

Some hon. Members: Next sitting.

Mr. Pickersgill: I wonder whether we could not have it read to remove from me any temptation to make another speech on Thursday.

Mr. Winkler: If that were the only reason we would agree.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Batten): When shall the bill be read the third time?

Some hon. Members: Next sitting of the house.

Some hon. Members: Now.

Mr. Pickersgill: Now.

Mr. Bell: A non-maritimer objects to it.

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Batten): Next sitting of the house.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE

Mr. Churchill: Mr. Speaker, I wonder whether the house leader would like to give us the order of business for tomorrow and Friday.

Mr. Pickersgill: Tomorrow we will take third reading of the Atlantic development board bill and I will give an undertaking not to speak, if I get an undertaking from all other hon. members that they will reciprocate.

Mr. Monteith: No undertakings.

Mr. Pickersgill: Then, we will take second reading of the economic council bill. I hope that by six o'clock we will have completed second reading of the bill, so we can spend the evening on the resolution preceding the Department of Agriculture bill. I do not imagine we would need a third item for tomorrow, but if we do I will consult with hon. gentlemen about what it should be. On Friday we intend, as I have already indicated privately, to call the estimates of the Department of Transport. We are counting on the same leadership from the hon. member for Winnipeg South Centre, and the same co-operation in getting another department through on Friday.

At six o'clock the house adjourned, without question put, pursuant to standing order.
