Mr. Blackburn (Jonquière): Point of order, Mr. Speaker.

The rules which were given to me for information purposes state that you have to be present at the time the motion is moved, as was the case yesterday when the said motions were being debated in the House. However, no one told us that at the time this procedure would apply we would also have to be present. In other words, you are asking us to be here almost day and night.

I insist that these motions be debated and voted on.

[English]

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): When the motions are put the member should be in the Chamber. I regret that we have to stay here all night but that is the way the Standing Orders are.

I can ask for unanimous consent from the House if we can put Motion No. 10 in the name of the hon. member for Jonquière. Is there unanimous consent?

The Acting Speaker (Mr. Paproski): I hear a no. I regret.

Mr. Blackburn (Jonquière): Mr. Speaker, I rise on a point of order. May I ask which of the motions I introduced as a member of Parliament will not be voted upon? Does that apply to all motions starting with Motion No. 2?

[English]
