

Supply

Mr. Blaikie: Madam Speaker, the draft regulation number is 91-018.

Mr. Don Boudria (Glengarry—Prescott—Russell): Madam Speaker, I listened attentively, particularly to the last remarks. I am a little puzzled by this so-called Upper Canada clause that the member referred to.

As a member of Parliament from so-called Upper Canada, as a matter of fact the community where Upper Canada was founded, namely Glengarry where the United Empire Loyalists arrived after 1776, I am a little curious as to what is meant by this clause.

I represent, of course, those people with great pride. I consider it the birthplace of our province, as it is in my opinion. Obviously you know, Madam Speaker, that Simon Fraser, Alexander Mackenzie and Sir John Johnson came with those people to Williamstown in Glengarry shortly after the War of Independence in the United States and after they were chased out of that country, so many of them with just the shirts on their back, and came to found the province of Upper Canada in this land of trees, of the great pine forests of eastern Ontario.

I am a little curious as to what the comments of the member mean. Perhaps he could clarify them for the benefit of my constituents.

• (1130)

Mr. Blaikie: Madam Speaker, I would be more than pleased to clarify. I left out a word. I should have said the Upper Canada College clause.

I certainly withdraw any unintended implications that might exist for the entirety of Upper Canada, an area which includes a lot of people who never make it to Upper Canada College, including the hon. member. A very small minority go to Upper Canada College and actually develop a social conscience. They make it into the NDP, but the rest of them go on to bleed the country to death in a variety of ways.

I just want to say to the hon. member for Mississauga South that he should check the finance department press release. I called it a regulation but I was mistaken. It is number 91-018 in which the finance department on February 11 announced its intention to bring in the legislation I am talking about.

I would think a former chairman of the finance committee would be able to do that, and substantiate what I had to say today. In fact, he knew about it all along. He is just playing ignorant.

[Translation]

Mr. Hogue: Madam Speaker, today I would like to repeat an important announcement made yesterday—

Madam Deputy Speaker: The hon. member knows that we are still in the period for questions and comments. Are there any more questions or comments?

ROUTINE PROCEEDINGS

[English]

CANADIAN NATO PARLIAMENTARY ASSOCIATION

TABLING OF 13TH REPORT

Mr. Bob Hicks (Scarborough East): Madam Speaker, on a point of order I apologize for rising at this time but I arrived in the House one hour late exactly to table a NATO report. I wonder if I could seek the unanimous consent of the members here to table it at this time.

Madam Deputy Speaker: If we are to seek unanimous consent, we should know what we are consenting to.

Mr. Hicks: Madam Speaker, it is the 13th report of the Canadian NATO Parliamentary Association presented in both official languages.

Madam Deputy Speaker: Does the hon. member have unanimous consent?

Some hon. members: Agreed.

Madam Deputy Speaker: Agreed and so ordered.

GOVERNMENT ORDERS

[Translation]

SUPPLY

CONCURRENCE IN MAIN ESTIMATES, 1992-93

The House resumed consideration of the motion of Mr. Loiselle for concurrence (p. 12117).