

ceeding, according
shore on board.
observe, before you
of a mile to the
discoverable
of Fort F. in

Penobscot, there
side of the Fox 0 feet above high

Castine Harbour,
vessels going up or

the Penobscot, and

an ebb-tide, you
from that point.
you may lie safe
you leave Orphan
If requisite, you
you pass through;
ish Bay, keeping
an Island. When
r rocks nor shoals

le of Isleborough,
to go into the har-
on that direction,
s the first island,
, until the island
m, and lie safely
eet, and flows at

White Head, or its will thus avoid the
a pistol-shot from
ou will see a good
essel may lie safely
erth, in order to
aks with any sea,

and anchor right
may anchor any-
.E. and ebb-tide,
our, which bears

the Penobscot,
y Mr. Laurie.