

st Expedition, 221-232.
edition, 233-267; Third 267-270. Ross's Second 1-304. Present position ion regarding a North-age, 305. Return of ek, 306.

W.

urse, the, 72. Encoun-52, 313.
nd of, 122.
hannel, 225, 305,
George, voyage by, in North-west Passage,
piracy of the crew, 189.
rrricane, 190.
description of, 67-70.
70. His immense

, the, objects of, 344.
ised on the coasts of
5. Spitzbergen long he fishery, 346. First
ges to the Arctic Sea,
es between the differ-347. Dutch fishery,
n fishery, 351; encour-vernment, ib.; bound-and ultimate succe-
ode of conducting,
equipment, ib.;
ttack and capture 30; operation of flens-
Dangers of the whale-
Shipwrecks and ac-
376. Recent changes
ing-stations, 376. In-ers, 378. Capital ine trade, 380; its pro-
Ports whence it is car-
Disasters and ship-330, 386-398; adven-
shipwrecked crews on
; extinction of the
easies, 396; loss sus-Abstract of the
ge from 1815 to 1834,
nt, from 1835 to 1842,
for 1843 and 1844,

ir Hugh, voyage of,
a North-east Pass-
disastrous issue, 112.

Z.

Quirini, expeditions

ur, n.