

- tribes of, 120-30; difficulty in taking measurements of, 132; of Bugone forest, height of, 120; of Kwidschwi, height of, 130; of Riwenzori, height of, 130
- Baudalet, Captain, chef de zone, at Rutschuru, 169
- Bawira, characteristics of the, 225; villages of the, description of, 225
- Bearers, engaging, from the Wassukuma, 9; mode of payment of, 22; recruiting from the Wahala, 9; reprehensible behaviour of, at Kwidschwi, 162
- Bees at Katschuri, 52
- Beni, description of, 190; composition of commissariat to, 8; forest of, birds and Lepidoptera of, 199; hail-storm at, 198; industries of, 199; smuggling prevalent at, 197; we arrive at, 196; we return to, by a circuitous route, 200; we start on a fourteen days' excursion to the forest of, 199
- "Bergriedeln," 76
- Beringe, von, investigations of, in Virunga region, 111
- Berlin, my departure from, 10
- Berlin Zoological Museum, advice from authorities of, induces me to visit eastern shores of Lake Victoria, 1
- Bernstein, Mr., greets us at Irumu, 231
- Bethe, investigations of, in Virunga region, 111
- Biological peculiarities of Congo forest, 249
- Bisbau, M., accompanies us from Mogandju, 262
- Boats, description of, on Lake Kiwu, 91; our fleet of, on Lake Kiwu, 78
- Bohm, Dr. Richard, 101
- Buguma, crocodiles found at, 223; description of, 223; intense heat at, 223; we camp at, 222
- Boisac, M., chef de poste, receives us at Kasindi, 183
- Bolero, Lake, description of, 120; preparations for trip to, 85; we start for, 120
- Boma, arrival at, 274; description of, 274; negro band at, 275
- Bomili, arrival at, 259
- Bosobangi, arrival at, 253
- Botanical apparatus carried by expedition, 5
- Botanical purposes, Mildbraed and Schubatz visit Buddu forest for, 17
- Botanical results of the expedition, 279
- Botanical specimens, use of firearms to obtain, 73
- east, Dr. Mildbraed appointed, 3; r., breaks into poetry, 109
- von Lieutenant, joins us at Bunya, 22
- Brake ferns on Peak of Ssekera, 17
- Branca crater, the, 157
- Branca, Professor, consultation with, 2
- Brazzaville, a visit to, 272
- Bright, Colonel, welcomes us on our visit to the British Commission, 221
- British Commission on the Semliki, we visit the, 221
- Brauer, Professor, consultation with, 2
- Buanja, Dr. Czekanowski rejoins us at, 10; cave picture at, 16
- Buddu forest, Mildbraed and Schubatz visit German portion of, for zoological and botanical purposes, 17
- Buddu territory, we enter, 18
- Buffalo, Batwa knowledge of haunts of, 133; Batwa method of capturing, 133; of the Congo State, 170; Raven badly injured by, at Kasindi, 205; Raven successful in killing, 133; we hunt the, for five days, 37; Weidemann falls in with a, 38
- Buffaloes, a real El Dorado of, 30; we fail to shoot, 18; we receive tidings of a herd of, 17; Wintgens falls in with a herd of, 38
- Bukoba, benefits of European power in, 47; enthusiastic send-off from, 14; factor indispensable part of our goods to, 7; our arrival at, 12; our departure from, for the interior, 14; province, fine roads in, 17; we exchange greetings with sultans at, 13
- "Bulamitari" (Stanley), recollected by Dedoye, 224
- Bunya, Lieutenant Boyton, joins us at, 220
- Burgermeister*, we embark on the, 11
- Burunga, we encamp at, 141
- Butagu, Mildbraed reports on the advance through the Valley of the, 210; Valley of the, description of, 210; flora of, 210 et seq.
- Bush-buck, Mildbraed secures a, 99; seen on Wan Island, 98
- Busuenda, altitude of, 168
- Butterflies in the Kwidschwi forest, 107

C

Camping quarters on the Irumu-Stanleyville route, description of, 239