

ively, may in like manner as the Executive Committee of the Association, and for like purposes, with the consent of the Executive Committee of the Association, mortgage or absolutely convey any real property of such Lodges.

(12) The Executive Committee of each such Lodge shall at the Annual Meeting of such Lodge, present a report in writing of all their dealings or transactions in real property and the value thereof.