Thirdly, Becaufe, as the State can do no wrong, unlefs Suits against their Officers are rather encouraged than checked, the Subject will in many Inftances, fuffer Injustice, neglecting the legal means to do himself Justice, least by an ex post facto Law he should find his Attempts frustrated, and his Damages encreased by the Cost and Expense he has been at; by which means, Persons cloathed with public Authority, whose Conduct should most narrowly be watched, will be tempted to commit Acts of Violence and Oppression.

The faid Objections having been read and confidered, and the faid Bill reconfidered, Mr. Speaker put the Queftion, whether the faid Bill, notwithflanding the Objections of the Honorable the Council of Revision to the fame, fhall be a Law of this State, and it was carried in the Affirmative, by more than two-thirds of the Members prefent.

Thereupon, Refelved, That the faid Bill, (notwithftanding the Objections of the Honorable the Council of Revision to the fame) be a Law of this State.

Ordered, That Mr. Baker deliver the faid Bill and Objections, to the Honorable the Senate.

Monday, Three o'Clock, P. M. March 14th, 1785. Page 88.

"A copy of a Refolution of the Honorable the Senate, delivered by Mr. Ward, was read, and is in the Words following, viz.

Refolved, That the Bill, entitled, "An Act for the Indemnification of the Commiffioners of Sequeftration and the Commiffioners of Forfeitures, and the Leffees under them, and for other Purpofes therein mentioned," notwithstanding the Objections of the Honorable the Council of Revision to the fame, be a Law of this State.
