

11-02

WHAT FOLKS SAY.

Morning Express, Albany, N. Y.

DAUCHY & CO., ADVERTISING AGENTS.—The firm of DAUCHY & Co., dealers in Printers' Goods and Advertising Agents, No. 75 Fulton Street, New York, is one of the most reliable in the country. We have had business transactions with them between three and four years, and have ever found them prompt and accommodating. Every obligation entered into by them has been fulfilled to the strictest letter, and we consider it a duty to thus publicly express our opinion of them. We trust our business relations with them may be continued years to come, and we assure our friends of the Press throughout the country, that they will find it to their interest to have dealings with them.

National Standard, Salem, N. J.

OUR NEW TYPE.—The new type in which the Standard appears to-day shows what it is and needs no commendation from us. It was obtained through the well known advertising house of Messrs. DAUCHY & Co., 75 Fulton Street, New York. The Messrs. DAUCHY & Co., are gentlemen with whom it is a pleasure to deal. In fact they generally permit editors to have their own way, and seem to be more desirous of giving the knights of the quill full satisfaction than in driving a good bargain. They do not ask for a monopoly of our columns, but acting upon the principle of "live and let live" they only demand a fair start and equal chance in the race for business. We commend them to those who desire to deal with courteous and accommodating gentlemen.

Evening Post, Hartford, Conn.

A FIRST CLASS AGENCY.—The Advertising Agency of DAUCHY & Co., of New York, is taking a high position in its special line of business, and is daily growing in popularity among advertisers. Enjoying as it does, un-