

CONTENTS.

ix

CHAP. VIII.

New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania. Description of their situation, &c. Short account of their settlement. 184

CHAP. IX.

City of New-York. Its flourishing trade. Albany. The Indian trade there. The Iroquois, or Five Nations. 190

CHAP. X.

New Jersey. Its trade ; and inhabitants. 194

CHAP. XI.

Account of William Penn. The principles on which he settled the colony. His death. 195

CHAP. XII.

Inhabitants of Pennsylvania. Variety of nations and religions there. Pacific principles of the Quakers. Reflections on the present state of affairs there. 199

CHAP. XIII.

Description of Philadelphia. Its trade. Number of People in Pennsylvania. Its flourishing condition. Few Negroes there. 203

CHAP.