

CONTENTS.

8

CHAPTER X.

Facilities for Travel.—Railroads through and towards Minnesota.....	173
---	-----

CHAPTER XI.

Steamboat and River Trade, &c.....	191
------------------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XII.

The Indian Tribes—Sioux, Chippewas, and Winnebagoes	198
---	-----

CHAPTER XIII.

The Sioux Treaty of 1851.—Schools, Courts, Roads, &c.	214
--	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

Miscellaneous Matters.....	225
----------------------------	-----

CHAPTER XV.

Conclusion.—A Vision: Scene in St. Paul Twenty-Three Years hence; all of which I saw, and part of which We all expect to be.....	243
---	-----

SKETCHES BY A CAMP-FIRE.

CHAPTER I.

The Outward March.....	255
------------------------	-----

CHAPTER II.

The Homeward March.....	296
-------------------------	-----

CHAPTER III.

Letters from Pembina and Selkirk Settlement.—Description of the Settlement.—Poetical Tribute to the People of Selkirk Settlement. —Table of Distances from the Mouth of the Minnesota to the Pem- bina Settlement.—Table of Soundings of the Red River of the North, &c.....	315
--	-----

APPENDIX.

Prince Rupert's Land.—The Hudson's Bay and Northwest Companies.—The Esquimaux, Montagnes, Crees, Sau- teux, Sioux, Assiniboins, &c.....	335	Notice of Hennepin County.....	383
The Mounds of the Minnesota Valley....	358	The Owatanna River.....	384
The Pre-Emption Law	362	Steele County	385
List of Officials of the General Govern- ment in Minnesota Territory	363	Interesting Statistics.—An Exhibit of the Sales of Public Lands in Minnesota since 1848.—Pre-Emptions.—Land Spec- ulators.—Land Subject to Entry.—In- ducements to Settle in the different Land Districts	386
Northern Minnesota	365	A word of Encouragement for the Future	405

SUPPLEMENT.

Business of St. Paul.....	366	The Lumbering business of the St. Croix and Upper Mississippi Rivers.....	412
History and Business of St. Anthony.....	372		