27TH YEAR LAFLAMME'S ADDRESS MOVES CLIENT TO TEARS IN QUEBEC LABEL SUIT Montreal Journalist, in Litigation With Hon. J. Prevost, Breaks Down—Case About Ready to Go to Jury.

QUEBEC, May 31.—(Special.)—Court completed addresses to the jury tonight in the Prevost-Asselin libel prosecution, and only the charge of the Judge remains for to-morrow before the case is left in hands of the jury. The general expectation here is a disagreement of the jury. Before the startling evidence concerning the election fund came out, most people looked for the conviction of Asselin, the ministerialist seignior sure. So confidently do they count on political friendship in these matters that a member of the government to-day claimed nine of the jury would be for Asselin's conviction. While Lachance, M.P., and Taschereau, M.L.A., made strong and eloquent appeals in the defence, Messrs. Prevost and Turgeon and against the accused, treating Baron Lepine's evidence as largely false, the real sensations of the day occurred in the masterful address of Mr. Laflamme, whose peroration on behalf of the accused so affected the overwrought feelings of his plucky but erettable young client that the latter burst into tears being utterly unable to control himself any longer. Mr. Laflamme said Turgeon's evidence was unsatisfactory, because he contradicted in court what he had declared in the house concerning the Belgian syndicate. He had entrenched himself behind his state secret in other matters. Turgeon had behind his back of memory. In his peroration he said, "When the large papers in Canada," make a cry for reforms, they are at once listened to. The protesting voice in this case comes from a young man who has out of the sincerity of his conscience, you see a noble example. If you declare him guilty, you do not recompense a public service. In that case, were I my client I know what I would do. After having devoted my youth to defend conscience, honor, devotion, disinterestedness and patriotism and the patrimony of my fellow Canadians, I would turn toward the judge and implore him to inflict the maximum of the penalty, in order that he might convince the youth of the country that civic virtues are but vain formulas which sleep in the dictionaries, to be used alike by the politician upon the stump, for the purpose of imposing upon public opinion.

MERCHANTS WON'T ALLOW CIVIC CASH FOR THE SHOW May Issue Injunction to Stop Grant—To Try and Settle Plumbers' Strike.

That no more civic grants should be made to conventions was the opinion expressed last evening by resolution at the monthly meeting of the executive of the Retail Merchants' Association. The resolution was moved by T. Grinnell and J. Bond and by its terms a resolution will wait on the city council and request that no more public grants be made for conventions or shows of any sort. Reference was made particularly to the proposed fair show, the objection being that it is under private auspices and ought to pay its own way, and that the city was making large expenditures at the Toronto Exhibition for the dairy interests. The solicitor of the association will be instructed to bring for an injunction if necessary to stop the grant. The discussion was heated. It was thought that if the city could not afford a small bridge at the foot of Bay street and to repair the roads, on one of which 25 dangerous holes had been counted, it couldn't afford to subsidize conventions. By a resolution moved by S. R. Hanna and H. Ellis, a committee consisting of President F. C. Higgins and Messrs. Dockery, Mann, Dineen and Trovorn, will wait on the Street Railway Company to ask that the company please leave alternate thru streets free for vehicular traffic, for instance, to avoid Teranauy-street, and to put tracks on Elizabeth-street if a route thru the ward is required. The city was again rapped over the knuckles in a resolution moved by A. Anderson and H. Ellis, to the effect that no streets be disturbed for repairs unless the work could be continuously proceeded with until finished. As the plumbers' strike is felt to be injurious to trade, on motion of John Wilmut and W. J. A. Carnahan, an effort will be made to assist in bringing about a settlement. The annual excursion of the association will take place on June 3 to the Hamilton, in which city the provincial convention is being held July 3 to 4. The local delegates are F. C. Higgins, M. Moyer, W. Dineen, W. Mann, S. Corrihan, R. W. Dockery, T. Grinnell, S. R. Hanna, W. J. A. Carnahan, H. Ellis, M. Ryan, J. Wilmut, W. Bawn, A. Anderson, T. Porter, A. Benson, and I. Bond.

NO MORE UNION BEER WORKERS EXPELLED CHICAGO, May 31.—The last barrel of "union" beer in Chicago and the whole country, according to an edict of the American Federation of Labor, will be manufactured to-day.

At midnight the Brewery Workers' Union will cease to exist, in the eyes of the national labor leaders, and the 2,000,000 union men in the United States will be asked to "get on the water wagon," or use some other kind of beverage. The brewery employes have rebelled against President Gompers and the national labor executive council, and they are to be disciplined. The method adopted is that of expulsion. Two months ago the National Labor Council met in Washington and gave the Brewery Workers' Union until June 1 to comply with an order to oust all engineers, firemen and teamsters from its organization. They refused.

American Missionaries in China Were Not Attacked Revolution Was Not Directed Against Foreigners, But Was Purely a Political Affair.

NEW YORK, May 31.—American missionaries stationed in the Chinese provinces of Kwang Tung and Kwang-sai, where the standard of rebellion against the Chinese dynasty has been raised, are believed by the Presbyterian board of foreign missions to have suffered no injury thus far from the outbreak. The destruction of the German mission station at Lien Chow by a Chinese mob, the Rev. Dr. Arthur J. Brown, secretary of the Presbyterian board said to-day probably occurred, not in the Lien Chow, where the Pres-

DOCTOR ONCE KNOWN IN EXCLUSIVE HOMES DIES IN OBSCURITY Robert E. Campbell, Who Leaves Property to Relatives in Canada, One Time Physician to Buffalo Swellmond.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 31.—(Special.)—Death has revealed the fact that "Doc" Campbell, who died in obscurity at the Park Saloon Hotel on Monday, without a friend at his bedside, was none other than Dr. Robert E. Campbell, one-time physician to the Buffalo millionaires, who married wealthy Helen Thornton, from whom he was separated after sensational divorce proceedings. He lived and entertained, in the height of his social glory, in the mansion in aristocratic North-street, later occupied by the recently deceased multi-millionaire, Frank Goodyear. The adjustment of the estate has revealed the fact that the physician of the dead man, who will divide the property, are for the most part in Toronto. They include a niece in Toronto. Four years ago he came to the Park Hotel, and there he lived, unknown to his prominent friends of the old days. No one called on him, except on business; he went out little, kept in his room, and no one about the place knew or dreamed that the man who was dreaming away the years in his single little room was the formerly prominent Dr. Campbell. He died on Monday with only a bell-boy at his bedside, and not until Wednesday did the identity of the man, whose body had been unceremoniously taken from the hotel to the east side undertaker's, become known. Dr. Campbell practised his profession in quarters such as no other physician in Buffalo, before or after. He was able to boast of his offices, separate from the household rooms, consisted of five expensively furnished apartments. There was a first reception room, then a boudoir for women patients, with a maid in attendance. Mrs. Campbell's divorce from Dr. Campbell, which was a first reception room, then a boudoir for women patients, with a maid in attendance. DINNER TO FRIEND TURNS OUT TO BE A BANQUET OF DEATH One Man Killed and Half a Score Injured in Dance Hall Fire—Guests Become Excited and Jump From Windows.

MONTEREAL, May 31.—(Special.)—When a committee appointed for the purpose sent out invitations to a dozen or more friends to attend a dinner in Lacasse Hall, Notre Dame-street, in honor of J. N. Charbonneau, a barber, was to be married June 4, they little thought that the function would be as good as a banquet of death. At 3 o'clock this morning as the guests were singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," a cry of fire was heard, followed by a "Sauve qui peut." They all of course lost their heads, as they subsequently admitted, and instead of quietly walking down the stairway, where there was very little smoke, the young men attempted to jump thru LIFE IN MOST OF FRENCH PORTS PARALYZED Thousands of Men Go Out For Increased Pensions—Everything Quiet.

PARIS, May 31.—An admirably organized general strike by all branches of the shipworkers of France has paralyzed life in the ports of the republic. Unlike an ordinary strike, this movement is not attended with bitterness against the employers or revolutionary feelings. The manifestations are made with the object of drawing the attention of the country to the strikers' cause. The naval reservists set forth, in a manifesto issued to-day, in which they asked the support of the classes, that it is impossible for the widows of seamen to support themselves and raise children on the pensions granted by the government. The men are well behaved, and as an instance of the sentiments back of the strike, there is the fact that harbor watchmen have been provided by the strikers for all ships in port. The government is fully alive to the importance of the movement, and it has arranged to assure the continuation of the maritime postal services and the transportation of perishable goods. The cabinet will hold a special meeting to-morrow in an effort to find a way to bring the strike to an end. Many persons consider that the seamen's union acted in this matter with undue precipitation, and that all could have been arranged through a consultation with the authorities. Up to the present time the strike has been characterized by an unusual amount of discipline on the part of the strikers. This leading steamship lines are much embarrassed and have appealed to the government to take rapid steps to remove the cause of a state of affairs by which they alone suffer, although they are in no way responsible for the strike. The French trans-Atlantic steamship companies' officials have requested the government to lend them crews from the regular naval reserve, but no reply has yet been received. A. Marseilles the sailors and longshoremen struck almost to a man, and even the fishermen drew up their nets. The strike is also complete at Havre, but up to this evening the men had not struck at Brest. At Toulon the strike is complete. At Dunkirk and Nantes the men are going out, and at Rouen the longshoremen have abandoned their work. The naval reservists comprise almost all the maritime population devoted to seafaring life. They number about 117,000 men, of which 55,000 belong to the war fleet. Practically the entire personnel of the merchant marine, as well as the longshoremen, are included in the members of the union. The executive of the National Seamen's Union ordered the strike because the government's new bill, increasing pensions from $40.50 to $72.50, in the case of seamen, and from $156 to $200, in the case of captains, as being inadequate. Strike in Symphay. ALGIERS, Algeria, May 31.—The seamen of Algiers went on strike to-day, and the dockers and coolers went out in sympathy. More Going Out. BORDEAUX, France, May 31.—A meeting of the seamen held this evening, confirmed the decision to strike, and from 15,000 to 20,000 men will go out to-morrow. Arrange For Mails. TOULON, France, May 31.—The transports Vinh-long and Nive left here to-day for Marseilles, following instructions sent out by Minister of Marine Thomson, in order to assure the transportation of passengers and merchandise to Corsica and African ports. PREPARED FOR THE ASCENT OF THE POLITICAL MATTERHORN. GOUIN RETURNS LITTLE SOONER THAN EXPECTED Quebec Premier Lands at Quebec After Fine Trip, But Refuses to Discuss Politics.

QUEBEC, May 31.—(Special.)—Premier Gouin returned from his European trip to-day, his first enquiries on landing being naturally as to the progress of the Asselin-Prevost libel case. He declined to discuss in any way the changed political conditions produced by the revelations during the trial, or even to admit their existence, except to deny most absolutely any knowledge or belief in the existence of the alleged election fund mentioned by Baron Lepine. Mr. Turgeon, who was acting premier and attorney-general during his chief's absence, met him at the wharf accompanied by Hon. Weir, Roy and other friends, who gave him an ovation. Judge Lanctot and Geoffrion, private secretary, returned with the premier and all report a most delightful trip and numerous official courtesies in London, Paris and Rome, including receptions by Hamar Greenwood, M.P., and others. There were also interchanges of courtesies in London between the Quebec provincial party and Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his party, the Canadian premier being reported by Mr. Gouin as in the best of health and spirits and looking very large in the public eye on the other side of the water. President Fallieres received him cordially in Paris, the Pope gave him a private interview and Cardinal Merry Del Val, papal secretary of state, entertained him at dinner at the Vatican.
